

Shoe for Women

All the knowledge and facilities of this house have Deen exerted with a view to testing the claims of the "Dorothy Dodd" Shee. As a result of the investigation, we give it our unqualified endorsement. We find it so easily superior in all the points of BEAUTY—of FITTING QUALITIES and of VALUE, that we have decided to discontinuously at the statement of the statem continue all other lines of women's shoes selling for $3,00.

Dorothy Dodd Boots Cost $3.

Oxfords $2 50

With the exception of a few special styles, which by reason of their being more expensive to out are quoted at 50c more.

The women of Scranton will be interested to know that we have completed arrangements by which we are made exclusive agents in this city for the new faultless-fitting shoe for women, known as the "Dorothy Dodd." This is the new shoe that caused that has been raging in the shoe trade for several months past. An unusual thing about the "Dorothy Dodd" Shoe is that it is the only shoe ever placed on the market that embodies a woman's idea of what constitutes a perfect shoe. We extend to you a cordial invitation to attend our first "Derothy Dodd"

The Tremendous Sensation

Opening Display Tuesday and Wednesday, May 27 and 28. The faultless-fitting

Shoe for Women

"Dorothy Dodd" Shoes combine all the essential points that discriminating women seek. The fastidious women needs pay no more; the economical woman cannot afford to pay less.

The range of styles includes shoes for every purpose, from the light exquisite dress Oxford to the thick soled boot for tramping and outing.

A distinctive feature about all "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes s their FAULTLESS FIT:_a feature the result of a we Beautiful Window Display.

the Brooks & Sanderson Shoe Co

Corner Lackawanna and Wyoming Avenues. We Give Trading Stamps.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR OF STATE THRONG CITY

[Concluded from Page 5.]

Charles S. Foos, principal of the boys high school: Samuel D. Dibert, cigar manufacturer; James W. Yocum, clgar manufacturer; Plumbing Inspector John Drexel, Fred A. Dickinson assistant excursion agent Philadelphia and Reading railroad; John D. Mishler, manager of theaters; James H Renninger, hardware merchant; Geo. H. Valentine, eigar manufacturer.

Among those comprising the Reading visitors are the following: Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Trexler, Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Werley, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Fink, jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stein, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Clouser; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Roeder; Mr. and Mrs. John O. Glase: Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Sharman, Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Rhoads, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Leippe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barto, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. M. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Yocum, Mr. and and Mrs. H. S. Diert, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Schmehl, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Yeager, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Renninger, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Rensheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Nies, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Schlechter, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Tobias, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Van Reed, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Denlinger, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Croll, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Braucher, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Troop, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Dumn, Mrs. and Mrs. D. H. Sohl, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Lykens, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Seidel, Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Fink, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Burkey, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Dibert, Mrs. and Miss Emerich, Dr. C. B. Jennings and the Misses Jennings, Mrs. William Reese, Mrs. Ella Long, Mrs. Emma Markley, Miss Katharine Dauth, Miss Alice Markley, Miss Cora Shannan. Daniel J. Hendel, H. L. Sartorius, W. A. Schmidt, Prof. C. S. Foos, Dr. George W. Kehl, Fred A. Dickinson, W. H. Smith, I. G. Leiby, J. G. Leiby, D. L. Heinly, George C. Bowman, H. L. Hoffman, Lee C. Bricker, jr., Monrae H. Boltz, John B. Renninger, Lewis Dauth, Thomas E. Weber, John Fasig, Cyrus Lord, Frank B. De

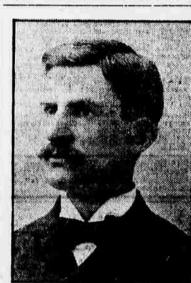

The Ringgold band, which accomthe Reading commandery, is one of the leading musical organizations of the state. Every time it has been heard in Scranton, Scrantonians have been made to feel that "there are others" besides the crack bands of M. A. Althouse is the eader of the Ringgold.

The committee of arrangements for the trip to Scranton consists of David T. Schmehl, Samuel D. Dibert, James H. Renninger, J. Harry Leippe, John

The Reading knights and their ladies left at 1.30 p. m. yesterday, arhere at 5.30 over the Delaware sylvania, with the following officers: and Hudson. They are quartered at Mount Vernon, No. 73, of Hazleton. One of the youngest but most procressive of the subordinate commanderies is Mt. Vernon, No. 73, of Hazleton. It was constituted June 17, 1892, but its growth has been rapid and today it is one of the staunchest commanderies in

It sends to the conclave one of the largest delegations that come from a

SIR GEORGE B. JERMYN. Chairman of Committee on Hotels and Railroads

distance. Among those who will parade

Past commanders, William F. Adams Charles A. Smith, John W. Crellin. John W. Clark, Jeremiah McAvoy, Thomas A. Harris, Hiram P. Kuntz, Frederick L. Smith, John M. Lewis. Amantes M. Eby, eminent commander: William S. Jenkins, generalissimo; William Glover, jr., captain general. Sirs George R. Clark, Lloyd T. Conner, Fred H. Cuyle, Clarence J. Creveling, John J. Cuyle, William F. Danzer, Henry V. Erwin, Sylvester Engle, Samuel Y. Fredrick, Stephen E. Fisher Arthur C. Foos, A. D. Guencher, Chris . Heller, James G. Harvey, Andrew F Hager, John R. Holeman, H. W. Heldenreich, Richard C. Jones, George J Kohlhaas, Joseph Levy, Henry C. Miller, Peter J. Miller, Daniel W. Mears John L. Mayer, George W. Moger, H

liam F. Otto, A. Oswald, E. A. Ober-render, Victor Oswald, John L. Poitteiger, G. O. Praetorius, Samuel Pardee, jr., James H. Pennington, Charles H. Rice, Frank W. Smith, Thomas E Warg, Julius Wolf, Fred E. Lerbeg. Temple, No. 60, of Tunkhannock.

W. McClellan, John T. McCartney, Wil-

Temple commandery, No. 60, of from the grand commandery of Penn-

Frank H. Piatt, eminent commander

Tunkhannock, held its first meeting on March 5, 1883, under a dispensation the St. Charles. On the return trip, Draper Billings, generalissimo; ames Pennsylvania, held at Wilkes-Barre, state encampments of which will be begun at 1.30 p. m. Wednesday, they will spend four hours at Allentown, visiting Dorney's park and July 18 following with a membership of for a commandery of Knights Templar, present in the city are as follows: A. Corl taking supper at the famous Duck twenty-seven. It has now entered on its twentieth year and has a membership of seventy-four. During the past year it has knighted sixteen members.

Among the members who accom panied the commandery are: Hon. Frank H. Piatt, ex-member of the Pennsylvania legislature; Hon. George W. Cooke, ex-member of the Pennsylvania legislature; H. W. Bardwell, ex-postmaster of Tunkhannock: Robert W. Bannatyne, the present postmaster; George S. Baldwin, editor of the Tunkhannock Republican; George B. M. Ward, editor of the Messenger: Prof. Jacob P. Breidinger, principal of the Wilkes-Barre schools; Edwin V. stone, cashier of the Wyoming National bank; J. Selden Swisher, assistant passenger agent of the Central Railroad of New Jersey; George F. Alteman, superintendent of the Mont-Bradley W. Lewis, Judge Frank M. Drury, Charles M. Motter, Eli H. ose railway; Attorneys James W. courts; Frank H. Jarvis, county sunannock; Dr. Frank A. Watkins, of and Hiram Young. Wilkes-Barre; Dr. N. E. Dornsife, of Centremoreland, and Dr. F. J. Bardwell of Tunkhannock; Dr. Dennis W. Sturdevant, of Laceyville, and Dr. George M. Kinner, of Meehoopany, Sir Knight Rev. H. H. Wilbur, paster of Tunkhannock, is also present.

Other members of Temple commandery attending the conclave are: Edgar Harding, Draper Billings, Lewis E. Hewitt, George W. Cooke, S. Judson Stark, S. Tracy Roberts, Nathaniel A. McKown, Truman B. Vosburg, Leroy T. Burns, Roscoe T. Handrick. Moses Shields, jr., Charles M. Barlow, Charles E. Space, John B. Jennings, Edgar A. Adams, Nelson L. Walker, Henry F. Metcalf, Dexter W. Stark, harles G. Brown, John B. Fassett, saac E. La Barre, Ruel E. Billings, Wellington L. Clifford, Harry L. Johnson, Harry D. Billings, Fred J. Billings, Aaron Brown, Orrin V. Love, Spencer D. Reed, Oscar H. Kennedy, Edwin N. Stone, J. Howard Hungerford, Charles Fredenburgh, Loren L Travis, Maurice L. Jennings, Charles E. Goodrich, Charles P. Shaw, Percy granted. eralissimo, Sir Lewis B. Wampler; captain general, Sir Matthew D. Porman; treasurer, Sir A. E. McLean, and recorder, Sir S. J. Rouse.

S. Stark, Fred B. Jennings. The officers of Temple commandery are: E. Sir Charles E. Space, eminent commander; Sir Asa S. Keeler, generalissimo; Sir Nathaniel A. McKown, captain general; E. Sir James W. Platt, treasurer; E. Sir Bradley W. Lewis, recorder, Sir Henry H. Wilbur, prelate; Sir Oscar H. Kennedy, senior warden; Sir Frank H. Jarvis, junior Sir Charles E. Goodrich, standard bearer; Sir Aaron Brown, sword bearer; Sir George F. Alleman, first guard; Sir Fred Billings, second guard; Sir F. Judson Bardwell, third guard; E. Sir Frank H. Piatt, warder; Sir Percy S. Stark, sentinel; trustees, Sir Aaron Brown, Sir Charles M. Bar low; Sir John B. Fassett; auditing committee, E. Sir George S. Baldwin, Sir Edwin N. Stone.

Gethsemane Commandery, No. 75, of

York. commandery, Knights Templar, 1894.

The following members are attending the conclave: Past Eminent Commanders S. J. Rouse, Edward M. Vander sloot, Harry E. Buckingham, William T. Nelson, N. Sargent Ross, J. Frank Small, M. D., John T. McFall and P. K. Devers: Eminent Commander Sir J Lewis King, Generalissimo Sir Lewis D. Porman, Treasurer Sir A. E. McLean and Sir Knights J. McAllister Gemmill. Edgar Y. Shearer, Lewis Shive, Lemon Love, William O. Thompson, Thomas, J. M. Curran, M. D., J. P. Lutz Platt, C. A. Little, Asa S. Keeler, M. D., J. H. Bennett, M. D., George W. Wyoming county ler, J. F. Kissinger, Edward G. Eckert, Jarvis, county su- Harry C. Naill, S. Nevin Hench, P. A. perintendent of schools of Wyoming Elsesser, A. L. Kraft, J. E. Baker, H. county; Dr. A. B. Woodward, of Tunk- C. Niles, William Witta, C. J. Wallace

The Pittsburg Delegation.

For the first time in many years Pittsburg sends no full commandery to the annual conclave. This is because the Methodist Episcopal church of of the great distance of that city from Scranton. She sends, however, a mixed delegation, comprising some of the most representative members of all her commanderics and of those in Allegheny The majority of the members compris ing the delegation are past commanders and men who have for years held high places in the councils of Templarism. There are no less than three past grand commanders in the party. Those comprising the delegation and the commanderies of which they are members. are as follows:

No. 1 commandery, of Pittsburg-James B. Sampson, P. G. C.; M. M. Felcer, P. C.; Herman Junker, P. C.; J. G. Morris, P. C.; Eli Edmundson, P. C.; George C. Johnstone, David R. Torrance, Arthur B. Wigley, Charles A. Miller, E. D. Truny, H. S. Baker, L. M. Hedges, E. C.; Henry L. Dixon, G.; Patterson, E. A. Grugan, L. Walters, Edward Lewis, C. G.: William A. Early.

Tancred, No. 48, Pittsburg-William Mustin, E. C.; Benjamin N. McLain, i.; W. S. Bell, C. G.; John T. Cunningam, P. C.; D. W. C. Carroll, P. G. C. John Dilworth, Weidman Murray, M. W. Hedden, Major W. H. Davis, George P. Ghriest. Duquesne, No. 72, of Pittsburg-Thom is Marshall, E. C.; R. M. Sterritt, G.; Former Mayor William J. Diehl, G. Ascalon, No. 59, of Pittsburg-R. R. Woodburn, E. C.; John D. Mars, P. C.

Allegheny, No. 35, of Allegheny-Lee 5. Smith, P. G. C.; John W. Williams, St. Omer. No. 7, of Brownsville-A. G.

Van Hook, E. C.; John H. Bowers and Karl Heffer. Mutchinson, No. 32, of Norristown. A splendid body of men from Norristown are quartered at the Jermyn. They are the members of Hutchinson commandery, No. 32, and they have brought with them the celebrated Third

Brigade band, of Pottsville, whose play-to be stationed at York, Pa., and to be J. McFarland, A. H. Roof, Daniel called Gethsemane commandery, No. 75, Jones, William Benner, Charles John-which was granted. At Pittsburg, in son, Daniel Yost, Edward Nyce, Daniel charter was unanimously Sinclair, Joseph Earl, William Rittenhouse, Walter Derr, Leyshon Thomas, The present officers are: Eminent Charles Wainwright, C. H. Alderfer, B commander, Sir Lewis J. King; gen- F. Whitley, Walter Childs, Daniel Hitner, John Bennett, S. B. Drake, D. F. Templeton, William E. Perry, A. Crawford, O. F. Lenhardt, Edward Crawford and Wilson D. Althouse.

> Chester Commandery, No. 56 of Chester.

Quartered at the Hotel Arlington is hester commandery No. 66, from the thriving and up-to-date little city of Chester. The officers of the commandery are as follows: Eminent command-S. E. E. Kay; generalissimo, Albert H. Baker; captain general, J. E. Oliver; senior warden, J. W. Booth; junior warden, William F. Mitchell; recorder. William H. Call; treasurer, H. E. Blume. The representation is not very large because of the season. Of the 163 members the following are present: Stacey G. Glauser, Joseph M. Harper, William M. Ford, J. Irwin Taylor, S. H. Appleton, Harry Pedlaw, A. H. Becker Samuel C. Chase, W. H. Bickley, George W. Van Horn, J. D. Oliver, Robert J. Knott, Ed. J. Oliver, W. B. Harvey. Dr. Baird.

Hospitaller Commandery, No. 46 of Lock Haven.

The members of Hospitaller commandery, of Lock Haven, are at the house. This is one of the smaller commanderies but it has sent and Thomas; treasurer, Frank M. a very good sized delegation. The offi- Highley. cers of this commandery are as follows: Eminent commander, Philip P. Rittman; generalissimo, George Vernes; captain general, Emory Waters: senior warden, William M. Israel; junior warden, William Kinley; McLay, Rev. Charles H. Band, Anrecorder, John Noble; treasurer, George W. Mason.

The other members present are as follows: Albert Marolf, W. H. Klopp, K D. Botchler, D. A. Cochran, Harry C. Truny, Sedgewick Kistler, J. H. Mussina, E. G. Layden, Simon Seld, J. H Herbert Rothrock, John M. Ward, and

Mt. Olivet Commandery, No. 30, of Erie. Mt. Olivet commandery, No. 30, o Erie, is quartered in a Pullman sleeping car near the Lackawanna station but it has what are undoubtedly the best located headquarters of any of the ommanderies. The headquarters are in the writing room of the Hotel Jermyn opening from the main lobby and were thronged all day yesterday and far into the night with Knights from all parts of the state.

The past commanders and sir knights present are as follows: F. J. Bassett, Frank McSparren, Peter Barkey, David A. Sawdey, A. P. Burton, J. L. Stern-berg, Henry E. Fish, Joseph H. Williams, C. P. Hughes, W. A. Ruppert, W. of ing is such a prominent feature at the Nick, C. J. Haller, H. M. Wells, F. A.

T. Bennett, J. O. Hay, and G. J. Miller.

Philadelphia. Corinthian commandery, of Philadelphia, popularly known as the 'Corinthian Chasseurs." is at the Hotel Jermyn. This commandery comprises among its 500 members the most thoroughly representative men of the "City of Brotherly Love." men renresentative of its business and commercial interests and of its culture and ducation. The members present are as follows: Ed. B. Spencer, P. G. C; Richard C. Ballinger, Ed S. Perry, M. H. Buckley, R. C. Ballinger, H. G. Bruner. Charles Bonsall, Charles Carey, W. H. Chambers, Charles W. Davis, Charles L. Adolph, Lewis Good, James Gray, Jacob Geller, Andrew Hughes E. E. Harding, Eugene C. Hensel, William McGowan, John O'Donnell, Edward Perry, Lewis M. Phillips, James . Parker, Charles B. Prettyman, William H. Sivel, Fred H. Starling, Carl H. Sundstrom, John P. Taylor, Alva F. Todd, William H. Stringfield, Theodore Weldman, Robert W. Walls, W. R. Roe, John J. Uhlman.

Philadelphia, No. 2, of Philadelphia. Another Philadelphia commandery stopping at the Jermyn is Philadelphia No. 2, which is one of the oldest in the state and which numbers among its members many of the leading citizens of the metropolis of the state. The officers are as follows: Eminent commander, Charles Band; generalissimo, F. J. Callahan; captain general, Murdock Kendrick; recorder, A. How-The other members present are as follows: George W. Kendrick, jr., Frank M. Highley, Murdock Kendrick, George Berkler, J. B. Jardella, F. J. Callahan, Robert Voight, M. B. drew Brown, Warren T. Ware, Ralph E. Siltzer, George B. Wells, John A. Perry, F. E. Gordon, A. Howard Thomas, W. J. Grilver and E. A. Crin-

Lancaster, No. 13, of Lancaster. Quartered at the Hotel Terrace is a delegation from Lancaster commandery, No. 13, of Lancaster, the officers of which are as follows: Eminent commander, William H. Bitner; generalissimo, J. W. Lousinger; captain general, John L. Martin; recorder, Joshua L. Lyte; treasurer, Joel S.

The other members present at the conclave are as follows: John H. Myers, Robert W. Groezinger, D. Miles Shertz, Park Crawford, Henry L. Zook, Fred Fisher, Dr. Fred Achey, Luther Schroeder, Fred Seur, John Echternasht, J. W. Lausinger, Dr. M. T. Reeder, Joshua L. Lute, D. E. Aukamp and John H. Myers.

Mountain, No. 10, of Alteona.

A delegation from Mountain commandery, No. 10, of Altoona, is stopping at the Hotel Terrace. The follow S. Rose, J. T. Caldwell, C. H. Geiger, ing officers are in the city: Eminent R. E. Taft, E. R. Young, Henry Fritz, commander, A. L. Hench; general-F. B. Gilbert, J. R. Mulkle, Curtis isimo, Allen Beckley; captain general. Johnson, E. T. Beatty; Sir Knights A. George Wichum; recorder, Wilson Tur-W. Walker, Jacob Weinhelmer, C. W. ner; treasurer, Howard D. Crawford. The Sir Knights in town are as fol-

Chas. F. Biersacher, J. E. Elway, H. E. Crambaker, S. A. Martin, Chas. G. John Dowling, J.W. Lupfer, H. J. Markey, W. O. Kepper, Wilson McClellan and J. H. Glasgow.

Lewistown, No. 26, of Lewistown.

Lewistown commandery, No. 26, of Lewistown, is quartered in a Fullman sleeping car. The officers and sir knights present in the city are as follows: Eminent commander, James Macklin: generalisimo, William H. Wren; captain general, Joseph M. Woods; recorder, William F. Eckbert, jr.; treasurer, A. S. Harshberger; Sir Knights Jesse R. Brown, P. C.; M. Smith, E. H. Heverley, J. S. Selheimer, H. J. Felix, J. D. Walk, B. F. Scheibly, H. C. Kulp, J. M. Stettler.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A place of honor near the head of today's procession will be accorded what is to be known as the "Gold Battalion." This will be composed of all past commanders entitled to wear the gold badge of their rank who may be tached. It has previously been the custom to assign such commanders to places with some of the commanderies in line but Grand Commander Penman has decided to honor them today by permitting them to march by them-

D. R. Torrance, city treasurer of Pittsburg, is with the delegation from A number of bands from out of town serenaded The Tribune last night and proved conclusively by their playing that the standard of proficiency in band music in all parts of the state is a high one. Among those which discoursed music in front of The Tribune building were the following: Third brigade band, of Pottsville: Fisk band, of Williamsport; Ringgold band, of Reading, and the Preseverance band, of Lebanon. P. E. C. Sir Samuel J. Rouse is the veteran member of Gethsemane commandery, No. 78, of York. He is aged 73 years. He was made a Mason in York Lodge 266, F. and and A. M. in 1864, and is a past master of the same lodge, past high priest of Howell chapter, No. 199, and past eminent commander of York commandery, No. 21, from which he was admitted and is now affiliated with Gethsemane No. 75, of which he is recorder. Hon, S. E. Ancona, the Democratic leader of Berks county, is a member of Reading commandery, No. 42. He has many personal friends in Scranton. Irem Temple will have a meeting at Wilkes-Barre, Wednesday night. Many of the knights will stop over to at-Mrs. Titus A. Steiner, of Easton, accompanies her husband, Eminent Commander Steiner, of Hugh de Payens commandery, No. 19.

Today or Tomorrow

at the lowest prices.

You should examine the display of Masonic supplies, paraphernalia and K. T. uniforms now being shown at Williams & McNulty's, 129 Wyoming avenue. They are the work of the M. C. Lilley Co., of Columbus, Ohio, and represent the quality and style of goods manufactured by the largest society supply house in the world. Uniforms and supplies of all kinds manufactured