became a Mason in 1882, was knighted in 1885, and is a past master; past high priest and past eminent commander, and at present holds the offices of division commander of Division No. 10; member of the finance committee of the grand chapter of Pennsylvania; trustee of the permanent fund of the Harrisburg consistory, and a life member of the Masonic Home, in Philadelphia.

E. E. Sir W. W. Allen.

Colonel William W. Allen, who has been grand recorder of the grand commandery since 1897, is one of the most enthusiastic and widely known Templars in the state. All the correspondence of the grand commandery for the past five years has passed through his hands and at every convocation since 1897 and for many years before he has been a conspicuous figure. He knows all about everything connected with the grand commandery and is the author of a history of the grand commandery, which is soon to be issued.

He is a member of St. Alban commandery, No. 47, of Philadelphia. He was made a Mason in 1865, and was master of his lodge in 1869. He is a past high priest of the R. S. M., a past eminent commander of the Templars, and was grand commander of Pennsylvania in 1888-89.

He has been engaged in the insurance business in Philadelphia for thirty-seven years. For ten years he was captain of a company in the First regiment of the National Guard, and was in Scranton during the strike troubles of 1877, as major and assistant adjutant general on the First brigade staff. He has been commander of the veteran corps for eight years, from which position he derives his title of colonel.

He is a Philadelphian by birth and was educated in the Philadelphia public schools. For two terms he served in the city councils. He is now a trustee of the Presbyterian hospital, a member of the Presbyterian Board of Publication, and a member of the Board of the Merchants and Salesmen's association. For a number of years he was president of the Philadelphia Association of Workingmen's clubs, also was president of the Congress of Workingmen's clubs of the United States, also a member of the United Service club. He was one of the organizers of St. Matthew's Yearly Beneficial association, and has been its secretary for over twenty-four years.

E. SIR FRANK F. ROEMMELMEYER, of Carbondale, Aide to Commander of First Division.

He had the honor of degree of Mark Master Mason conferred on him March 17, 1887, and received and accepted a most excellent master the same day, and elected to the supreme degree of a Royal Arch Mason, March 23, 1887, in Oriental chapter, No. 183, Royal Arch Masons, of Philadelphia. In Philadelphia council, No. 11, Royal and Select Masters, he received the degrees of royal, super excellent and select master in January and March, 1889.

May 25, 1898, he was elected grand treasurer of the Grand commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, which position he still holds.

He has been engaged in the insurance business in Philadelphia for thirty-seven years. For ten years he was captain of a company in the First regiment of the National Guard, and was in Scranton during the strike troubles ferred to the U. S. S. Swanee, on the Pacific coast, serving until 1887. He then resigned and became a clerk in the National Bank of the Republic, acting in the position of its general book-keeper. In 1876 he was elected secretary of the Guarantee Trust and Safe Deposit company, of Philadelphia, a position which he still holds.

He has held other offices of honor and trust in Philadelphia. He is one of the board of managers of the Merchants and Salesmen's association. For a number of years he was president of the Philadelphia Association of Workingmen's clubs, also was president of the Congress of Workingmen's clubs of the United States, also a member of the United Service club. He was one of the organizers of St. Matthew's Yearly Beneficial association, and has been its secretary for over twenty-four years.

His record as a knight is quite a proud one. He was made a mason in Corinthian lodge, No. 268, of Philadelphia; crafted June 17, 1884, and was raised to the degree of a master mason Sept. 16, 1884. He was elected junior warden 1886, advanced to senior warden 1887-88, and became worshipful master in 1889.

He had the honor of degree of Mark Master Mason conferred on him March 17, 1887, and received and accepted a most excellent master the same day, and elected to the supreme degree of a Royal Arch Mason, March 23, 1887, in Oriental chapter, No. 183, Royal Arch Masons, of Philadelphia. May 25, 1898, he was elected grand treasurer of the Grand commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, which position he still holds.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The present proud position of Mary commandery, of Philadelphia, as a thirty drilled and disciplined commandery is due to the thorough and painstaking work as adjutant and drillmaster of Eminent Sir George Eiler, Jr., eminent commander, 1897. Tireless himself, he knows that perfection in drill is only possible through assiduous attention and hard work and he has always been ready to do his full share to bring Mary to the front as the equal of any commandery. The flattering commendations that have followed the commandery's public demon-

The Tribune was again honored yesterday with a serenade by the Perseverance band of Lebanon, and the 10th Regiment band, of Wilkes-Barre. The music and the compliment were alike appreciated.

Past Grand Commander Irving P. Wanger, of Norristown, is congressman from the Montgomery county district.

Past Grand Commander George W. Kuntz, Jr., of Philadelphia, is the senior grand warden of the grand lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania.

E. E. Sir Joseph Alexander, Jr., of Scranton, is the only Scrantonian other than Grand Commander Penman who has held the office of grand commander.

Colonel Arthur MacArthur, who is here as representative of the grand master of the grand encampment, is editor of the Troy, N. Y., Budget.

Among the prominent knights accompanying Hermit commandery, No. 24, of Lebanon, are: Past Grand Master John P. S. Goble, lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania; Past Eminent Commander Abraham Hess, of Altoona; Editor W. T. Atkins, of the Lebanon Times; Past Eminent Commander Grant Williams, Eminent Commander Harlan Seligst, Hon. John A. Welmer, Dr. J. C. Bucher, Charles D. Weirick, esq., Charles L. Henry, Dr. D. P. Gerberich, Dr. J. F. Wierman, John K. Raudenbush, C. J. Barr, Edward Kimmel, George Kimmel, John R. Morgan, Captain Eli Daugherty, Harry O. Sutting, Harry H. Linesweaver, Theodore P. Frautz, Joseph Kild, William P. Franz, J. Shindel Krause, Harry T. Atkins, H. E. Hughes, William Hutchinson, Francis Rothornel, John H. Kilbuck, Frederick Snyder, A. E. Gerberich, Mrs. H. W. Seligst, Mrs. S. A. McAdam, Mrs. Frederick Snyder, Mrs. Wiltmeyer, Mrs. William Hutcheson, Mrs. H. T. Atkins, Mrs. J. B. Morgan, Mrs. George and Mrs. Edward Kimmel, Mrs. Ellen R. Umberger, Mrs. Joseph and Miss Simpson. They are accompanied by the Perseverance band, of Lebanon, one of the best at the convocation. The commandery is quartered at Hotel Cooper.

St. Omar commandery, No. 19, of Elmira, N. Y., is represented by Past Eminent Commander Guy Shueemaker and H. B. Rutledge, and Sir Knights W. T. Schroeder and Fred Fox.

Past Grand Commander T. Lee Smith, of Pittsburg, is a past grand standard bearer of the grand encampment.

Sir George F. Jackson, of Mt. Olive commandery, No. 10, of Altoona, is a prominent citizen of the Mountain City. He is engaged in the furniture business, is an active member of the board of trade, has served several terms on the school board and is a veteran of the Civil War.

Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, appears in full Templar uniform. He is a knight of the grand encampment.

St. Andrew commandery, No. 76, of Susquehanna, was yesterday in a special Pullman car and will remain in the city for the convocation. Its officers are: Eminent commander, Adelbert P. French; Generalissimo, Clark Evans; captain, general, Henry J. Persons; treasurer, Charles A. Miller; recorder, John G. Brewer. The commandery has sixty members and is the largest in the state in the grand commandery. It also numbers in its ranks the oldest living treasurer of a blue lodge in Pennsylvania, Sir Charles A. Miller.

Baldwin II commandery, No. 22, of Williamsport, is recognized as one of the crack commanderies of the state. Its eminent commander, Sir C. La Rue Munson, is one of the leading corporation lawyers of the state, a prominent member of the Pennsylvania Bar association, who lectures annually before the Yale Law school and the author of a number of legal works. He is largely interested in the industrial development of Williamsport, and is president of the Williamsport Iron and Nail company, and of the National bank; director of a dozen other corporations, the Pennsylvania Telephone company, operating in this city, being among the number. He is of staunch old New England ancestry, and is a member of the Society of Colonial Wars. Mr. Munson is an enthusiastic knight templar, possesses a pleasing and striking personality, is one of Williamsport's best known citizens and a leader in every sense. He enjoys an extended acquaintance in Scranton.

Warrior commandery, No. 31, of Altoona City, has the following delegation here: Augustus Weber, Charles W. Dieter, William Stein, Harry J. Krebs, George W. Portz, M. P. Fowler and wife; Thomas L. Thoms, wife and mother; John Thomas and wife, Livingston V. Rausch and wife, William G. Gregory, James F. Magrady, Miss Carrie F. Hess, Frank Schmidt and wife, Mrs. William Newlander.

R. E. Sir John Vallerchamp, of Harrisburg, is the oldest past grand commander of Pennsylvania in attendance at the convocation. He has the possibly unique distinction of having become a third-third degree mason at the age of 33.

Home talent was entirely employed in the ball. Marvin & Malt furnished the floral and Pullman the other decorations.

The St. Mary "Greeting," the interesting and tastefully arranged eight-page publication distributed by Mary commandery, No. 28, of Philadelphia, was gotten out by one of its members, Sir Knight William W. Meios, of the editorial staff of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

E. Sir Lewis E. Beller, chairman of the convocation committee of Pilgrim commandery, No. 11, of Harrisburg, is deputy secretary of the commonwealth, and in the last administration was private secretary to Governor Daniel H. Hastings. He is one of the best-known men in Pennsylvania, and has close personal friends in every corner of the state. Mr. Beller is accompanied by his wife. During their stay they are being entertained at the home of Colonel and Mrs. E. H. Hipple.

Mary commandery, No. 28, of Philadelphia, has more members of her own than any of the jurisdictions of Alabama, Arkansas, Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Indian Territory, Mississippi, Montana, Oregon, North Dakota, South Dakota, North Carolina, Washington or Wyoming, all of which are ruling grand commanderies of their own.

Sir Wilson A. Turner, of Mt. Olive commandery, is the son of ex-Mayor Turner, of Altoona, who was a grand commander of the grand commandery of Pennsylvania.

Sir James N. McKee, recorder of Oriental commandery, No. 6, of Johnstown, is at the head of the Cambria Paint and Color company, one of the largest institutions of its kind in the country, and well

"Six years ago I little expected I should ever enjoy life, much less such perfect health as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has brought me. Suffered from prostrations, and endured agonies which can be little understood until really experienced. Life seemed one long, endless suffering, and my home work a drag and a burden. Your 'Favorite Prescription' was brought to my notice through an advertisement, and nine bottles made life new and full of beauty to me. Words can but poorly express my gratitude, but gladly do I give you this testimonial, although it is sent unasked, hoping that it may reach the eyes of some other suffering mother."

Vice-President West End Mother's Club,
No. 185 West 88th Street, New York City, N. Y.

ANY THOUGHTFUL WOMAN who will read the two letters printed in this connection, must conclude that if these statements are truthful Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a truly wonderful medicine for the cure of diseases peculiarly womanly. But the "if" in the case. If these statements are true. Is there a woman who will question the truth of such statements for a moment? Statements made by modest women who put aside all personal feeling in the desire to be of help to the suffering of their sex. Look at this question of testimony from another point of view. Suppose you knew a woman who had been cruelly injured, brutally beaten, let us say. You knew the person guilty of the outrage and when the injured woman sought reparation, her redress depended on whether you would take the witness stand. Would you do it? Would you sit silent in the face of her suffering just to spare yourself the publicity of a court room? Never! No true woman would do that. Now reverse the case. Here are women who have been helped, not injured. They know that thousands of women are in the same condition of disease from which they suffered before being cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. What would we say of women working for the good of their sex, if they kept the fact of the cure secret and to avoid publicity, sat silent while it was in their power to give new life and strength to a thousand suffering women, by proclaiming how their diseases had been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? Should we not say such women are heartless? It is heart sympathy with the suffering of their sex which moves such good women to put all personal feeling aside and point to the means by which womanly diseases are cured. Hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women bear testimony to the fact that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It cures headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness and other consequences of womanly diseases. It is a superior tonic and nerve for weak, worn-out, run-down women, restoring them to sound health. There is no excuse for womanly suffering in view of the cures of womanly diseases effected by the use of "Favorite Prescription." In ninety-eight cases out of every hundred it perfectly and permanently cures the womanly diseases for which it is prescribed if it is only given a fair and faithful trial. Even in the rare cases where a perfect cure is impossible it is of great benefit, alleviating pain, reducing suffering and giving increased strength. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All letters are held as strictly private and the written confidences of women are guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce and his staff in personal consultations with weak and sick women at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce's offer of free consultation by letter should not be confused with offers of "free medical advice," made by persons who are not physicians, and are not qualified to practise medicine. In a little more than thirty years, Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., assisted by his staff of nearly a score of physicians, has treated and cured hundreds of thousands of weak and sick women. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Whatever virtue there is in other medicines I know by experience there is nothing so good for worn-out women as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I have used it myself with perfect satisfaction, and have recommended it to hundreds of weak, worn-out women suffering from female weakness. If you get health restored you will feel well, think well and act well, and I know your medicine is a great help to reach this state for women."
