

WEST SCRANTON

Michael Reilly Shot and Perhaps Fatally Injured by John Lenahan, of Sugar Notch.

A shooting affray that will, no doubt, and seriously, occurred yesterday morning about 10 o'clock.

John Lenahan, of Sugar Notch, shot and perhaps fatally wounded Michael Reilly, of 1916 Jackson street.

The shooting occurred at the home of Reilly's daughter, Mrs. Edward McTiernan, of 1916 Jackson street.

Lenahan, who is a young man of about 25 years, had been a visitor at the McTiernan home for the past few days, being en route from his home to Chicago.

Yesterday, while conversing with Reilly, who is an aged man, Lenahan drew from his hip pocket a .32-caliber revolver. While handling it the weapon was discharged, and the next moment Reilly was writhing in agony on the floor, with a bullet in his left leg.

The bullet entered slightly above the knee and burst a large artery.

The wound bled profusely, and when a physician arrived, it was learned that the wound was a most dangerous one.

Reilly suffered great pain, and last night was in a most serious condition. Lenahan was arrested by Patrolman McColligan and taken to the West Side station house.

There he stated that the shooting was accidental.

Reilly, the wounded man, refuses to speak of the affair.

Lenahan will be given a hearing this morning before Magistrate Davies.

How Memorial Day Was Spent.

Hyde Park presented a somewhat deserted appearance yesterday, almost everyone having taken advantage of the agreeable weather to journey to distant parts.

St. Leo's excursion to Binghamton took many hundred West Siders to the Parlor city, while the excursion to Lake Lodore also claimed a great many. Others betook themselves to Nay Aug park and other places, and spent Memorial day in a manner most pleasing to themselves.

Jackson Street Baptist Notes.

Next Tuesday evening the Baptist Young People's union will hold their monthly social and entertainment. A debate will take place; topic, "Which stands most prominent in Bible history, Elijah or Isaiah?" Messrs. Thomas and Howell will present Elijah, and Messrs. Jones and Evans will speak on Isaiah.

The Best Family Cough Remedy,
Dufour's French Tar,
For Sale by
GEO. W. JENKINS,
101 S. Main ave.

The Knowing Saturday Bargain Seeker

Will have much to be thankful for today. Needed things for June wear are temptingly beautiful, and so low in price for the last day of the week that one would almost be tempted to think that something was wrong, in quality, perfection of finish or style. That is not so, however, for the truth is that these goods stand for the highest types of perfection in the latest of the season's productions.

Suits That Challenge Competition

J. B. Corsets
Made from fine French coutil, well boned and stayed, straight front, lace and ribbon trimmed, etc. Best $1.00 Corset in America. For Saturday only, in drab and white. Pair.
69c

Ladies' Neckwear
Novelties not yet seen in the fashion plates, because they're too new for that, and all the popular styles in Stocks, Ties, Bows, etc.
Wash Neckwear from 25c to 50c.
Silk Neckwear from 25c to $3.

Hosiery and Underwear
Black and White Hosiery is popular with ladies of quiet tastes. An extra special line in stripes or figures for Saturday only, at the ridiculously low price of, pair.
12 1/2c

Ladies' Summer Vests
Ladies' Summer Vests, low neck and short sleeves, ribbon and lace trimmed; well finished. Regular 25c. goods for 17c

White Shirt Waists
Ladies' Fine White Shirt Waists, various materials, prettily trimmed with lace, tucks, etc. Handsome mode of fashion usually sold for 85c, and $1.00. Choice on Saturday only.
59c

Ladies' Wash Suits
In Linen Brown, Blue or Ox-bled. Waists and skirts trimmed in fashion's latest fancies. A matchless $5.00 suit for $3.98

The meeting will be interesting. All young people are invited.

The young men of Miss Norma Nicholls' Bible class are preparing for the evening of June 10 a weight social. The entertainment will be novel and unique, and will no doubt be attended by a large gathering of young people.

Tuesday evening, June 10, is the date set apart for the return of all the titles books. The name of every book-holder will be called, and every one is requested to be present. A few days only remain in which to accomplish our noble endeavor.

Next Sunday evening the pastor will speak upon "Some Echoes of Memorial Day." The orchestra will be present.

Funeral of Thomas May.
Funeral services over the remains of the late Thomas May, of North Ninth street, who passed away Wednesday morning, took place yesterday. A high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Patrick's church by Rev. P. E. Lavelle. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Hanaway, Cooke, Callahan, Murphy, Jordan and Barrett. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

June Weddings.
Miss Evaline Phillips, of North Rebecca avenue, will be united in marriage to C. Brown, of Green Ridge, June 1.

William Hutton, of this side, will be wedded to Miss Edith Martin, of the North End, June 5, at the home of the bride-elect.

Robert Bradley, of Pittston, formerly of this side, will be married to Miss Rose Denä Rosencrans, of that place, at the Pittston Presbyterian church, June 5.

Judson Hutchinson, of Washington, D. C., will be united to Miss Grace R. Beck, of 1123 Price street, June 28.

George DeWilde, of this side, will be wedded to Miss Marion Hutchinson, of Philadelphia, formerly of this side, June 28.

These two weddings will take place at the parsonage of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church.

Miss Eva Davis, of Hampton street, will be married to Evan Davis, of Taylor, in June.

Events of Today and Evening.
Officers of miners' locals on this side are requested to meet in Jone's hall, on Jackson street, this morning at 10 o'clock.

Mothers' Jewels, of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, will meet in the church parlors this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Miss May Jones, of North Hyde Park avenue, will entertain the Ladies' auxiliary of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church at her home this evening.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

No. 32 school team defeated the Breaker boys yesterday on the No. 32 ground, by the score of 19 to 13.

John Richards, the wife-beater, who is held in $200 bail, is still lodging in the station house, he having failed to secure bail.

Chicken thieves entered the henery of P. W. Hayes, at 428 Chestnut street, and stole a number of choice fowls. No clue to the miscreants could be discovered.

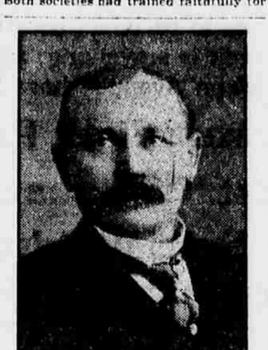

Dog poisoners are operating on this side. The police are on the alert, and it is expected arrests will be made in a few days.

The Rev. William Davies, pastor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, will preach an English sermon tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. He will preach in the Welsh language at 6 o'clock in the evening.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

The Saengerrunde Was One of the Prize Winners at the National Eisteddfod Yesterday.

The Saengerrunde were one of the winners in yesterday's national eisteddfod in the last category. Their opponents were the Junges Maennerchor. Both societies had trained faithfully for the event, and the contest was so close that only a point divided them.

PRESIDENT PHILIP ROBINSON.

Last night a special meeting of the society was held in Athletic hall and their victory was celebrated in appropriate fashion. The president, Philip Robinson, was in charge.

Some time in the near future, after the prize has been received, an open house concert will be given, when the Junges Maennerchor and friends of the society will be invited to participate.

Those who won the prize yesterday are: First Tenors—Gustav Schulz, August Hagen, Berthold Schott, Felix Gard, Charles Schwald, Jacob Schreiber, Emil Eckert, Henry Rempe, Michael Phillips, John Mais.

Second Tenors—Charles Pell, Emil Wilhelm, Eugene Melchor, Bernard Damm, Jacob Guth, John Meissner, Anthony Herberst, Ernest Schott, Fred J. Brecht, John Schroedel.

First Bass—Anton Fisch, Mathias Damm, William Baumgartner, Edward Claus, Eugene Claus, John Schroedel, Charles Wapowski, Fred Otto, Jacob Hess, Max Lindley.

Second Bass—Loris Hetrick, Adam Frantz, Albert Kuhn, Joseph Albrecht, Lorenz Haberstroh, John Garn, William Grambo, Adam Killian, Charles Krayer, George Miller.

NUBS OF NEWS.

Fred Schell, of Cedar avenue, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Henry Ziegler, of Cedar avenue, is seriously ill.

Dr. Schley's Lung Healing Balsam is guaranteed to cure all coughs. "No cure, no pay" is the motto of all dealers.

The Young Women's Christian association will hold a gospel meeting at 3:45 Sunday afternoon lead by Miss Meredith, the secretary.

Born—Wednesday, May 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Tisdell, of 342 Birch street, a daughter.

The Junges Maennerchor will take part in the "Kommers" to be given at Music hall this evening in honor of the Arlon society, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

August Hahn, of Neptune place, was hurt at the Cliff works yesterday. His injuries were treated by Dr. A. Kolb.

Mrs. Rorick, of Orchard street, is seriously ill.

HONORED MEMORY OF NATION'S HEROES

[Concluded from Page 6.]

Bristley, Ice water was served to the veterans during the march of the parade by Mrs. M. J. Corbett of Washington avenue.

Smith B. Mott was the chairman of the committee which arranged for the Memorial day celebration. Associated with him were the following comrades: P. J. McAndrew, E. W. Pearce, John H. Hobbay, M. K. Bishop, George Geary, George Shultz, B. B. Atherton, John T. Howe, Levi Geiz, P. S. Hamlin, William S. Jones, Marshall Prestou, H. E. Paine, H. W. Loftus and Adam T. Miller.

A memorial concert was given last night in Memorial hall, under the auspices of Ezra Griffin post, No. 139. A very large audience was in attendance, and a splendid programme, which had been arranged by a special committee, was given.

Miss Beatrice Morris, one of the most versatile and charming recitationists in the city, provoked hearty laughter with her clever rendition of "Aunt Elinore's Hero," an old "vet" who was frightened almost to death by a slip of a girl, who tells the story. Miss Maud Weatherhaug, of North Scranton, also pleased with her recitation of a patriotic ode. Prof. Flavian Vanderveken, a violinist of rare ability, played to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. E. E. Wilson, and rendered a violin obbligato to a soprano solo sung by Miss Edith Benson.

Harry Tyler, a pianist, possessing great technical skill, played with wonderful spirit the rollicking "Soldier's Chorus" from Gounod's "Faust," and Miss Jennie Kaufman sang two soprano solos.

LADIES CAN WEAR SHOES

one size smaller after Allen's Foot-Powder is put to it. It makes tight shoes feel easy, gives instant relief to corns and bunions. It's the greatest discovery of the age. Cures and prevents swollen feet, blisters, callous and sore spots. Allen's Foot-Powder is a certain cure for sweating feet, itching feet. At all druggists and shoe stores. Don't accept any substitute. Retail package price 25c. Wholesale Allen & Greenleaf, Lancaster, N. Y.

NORTH SCRANTON

CORONATION OF STATUE AT HOLY ROSARY CHURCH.

Interesting and Impressive Exercises That Were Conducted Last Night on the Lawn—Miss Pearl Henry, of Green Street, Tendered a Surprise Party by a Number of Her Friends.

"Lynwood" Produced at the Auditorium by the Crystal Literary and Dramatic Club.

The coronation of the statue of the Blessed Virgin with a wreath of flowers, a beautiful custom which is observed annually by the sisters in charge of the Holy Rosary academy, was conducted last night in the presence of a large gathering.

The exercises were conducted on the spacious lawn surrounding the church. Colored incandescent lights strung from tree to tree and a profusion of American flags rendered the scene a beautiful one. Over the head of the statue of the Virgin Mother was fastened a wreath of electric lights.

The exercises were participated in by all the children of the school. The girls wore white dresses and every boy had a white waist. They sang with remarkable skill and took an eager and enthusiastic delight in the exercises.

The programme carried out was as follows: Litany of the Blessed Virgin School Rosary, Recitation Little Joyce Lady of Grace, Recitation. Miss Margaret Joyce Lady of Grace, Hymn School Lady of the Lamp, Recitation. Little Girls' Consecration to Mary, Hymn School Immaculate Conception, Boys' Catholic Psalm, Recitation Seniors Bawline a Crown, Hymn School Coronation.

Act of Consecration Seniors Te Deum Chorus

Pleasant Surprises.
Miss Pearl Henry was pleasantly surprised at her home on Green street, last evening, by a few of her friends.

The evening was enjoyably spent with games and singing. The guests were entertained with recitations by Miss Lulu Constantine and piano selections by Miss Pearl Henry. The usual party diversions were indulged in until a seasonable hour when refreshments were served. Present on this pleasant occasion were: Misses George Cure, Mary Guel, Lulu Constantine, Cora Snyder, Sophia Herr, Jennie Doty, Pearl Henry, Margaret Noone, Helen Dunbar, Maud White, Grace Marion, Edith White, Amy Henry and Messrs. Daniel Hartzell, William Bright, Jr., Clarence McAllister, James Sand, Clarence Henry, Henry Twining, Edgar Sanders, Samuel Weston, Bert Evans, John Jones, and Howard Rathmore.

"Lynwood" Last Evening.
The Crystal Literary and Dramatic club last evening produced before a fair sized audience at the auditorium the beautiful four act melo-drama "Lynwood," which deals with an incident during the Civil War.

P. J. McGuire, Victor Blanchard and Fred McGee, of the club, formed the excellent company of this kind. Both the Saengerrunde and Junges Maennerchor were highly complimented for their singing and Professor Homberger gave an ovation when he stepped to the stage to receive the prize.

Among the out-of-town visitors were William M. Thomas, Llewellyn Morgan and John Evans, of Wilkes-Barre; G. M. Williams, William LeMay, John Pugh, Kingston; Reese G. Davis, of Edwardsdale.

A noticeable feature in the competition was the large number of strange pianists, and the absence of the old stereotyped compositions.

Dr. D. E. Richards, of Stratton, Pa., was the winner of the Welsh novel prize, is an old established and native American, and was heartily congratulated on his success. His novel is entitled "Mrs. Grey's" and his companion, "George Washington." Evan R. Evans, is a native of Carnarvon, Wales.

Professor J. D. Daniel, leader of the chorale choir of the Cecilia's, of Utica, the mixed and ladies' parties, which sang at the evening session. The chorus numbered in all 188 voices. Professor Daniel was the adjudicator at the West Scranton eisteddfod two years ago, and at North Scranton last Thanksgiving day.

Walter Dammrosch, of Paterson, N. J., and J. Powell Jones, the adjudicators, gave excellent satisfaction. Their decisions were brief, pointed and instructive. Dammrosch made a splendid impression and as accompanist to Gwilym Miles in one of his own compositions, heightened the opinion held of him as a musician and composer. Miles' playing and Jones' too well known among the Welsh people to need any special praise as to their ability.

G. H. Humphries, of Utica, N. Y., one of the literary adjudicators of the day, is one of the most scholarly Welshmen in America. His style is not very robust, but his diction is exceedingly pleasing to listen to, and his adjudications were given in Welsh and English. He is also a German scholar and speaker of recognized ability.

It is seldom, if ever, that a mother, her daughter and two sons comprise a quartette and win a prize in the eisteddfod. Yet this happened yesterday when Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins, and three grown-up children, Edith, Gwilym and Arthur Watkins, of Harrisburg, proved to be the most quartette of the day.

W. J. Jones, of the Pittsburg Bank for Savings, Joseph D. Jones, Walter Evans, J. Harry Jones and John D. Jones.

David Owens, Philip Warren and Tom Stephens sang German songs with the Liederkreis, and sang well.

Jenkin Jones, of the Poochontas district, Virginia, was an interested spectator.

The voice of Conductor Williams could be easily heard anywhere in the great building and many times proved a thorn in the side of the other adjudicators.

Thomas Williams, of Pittston, soloist of the Dr. Mason Glee club, was easily the best of them all in the male party competition, and fairly lifted the people from their seats with his superb rendition of "The Britons' solo."

The attendance at the morning session was roughly estimated at 400, the afternoon 600, and the evening 800 people.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill to amend the constitution of that state, which was passed by a vote of 10 to 9.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill to amend the constitution of that state, which was passed by a vote of 10 to 9.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill to amend the constitution of that state, which was passed by a vote of 10 to 9.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill

DR. B. C. HOPKINS, AT HIS HOME ON DRINKER STREET.

James G. Cullen, a student in the University of Pennsylvania, is at home for the summer vacation at the home of Mrs. Wilson, of Forest City, spent yesterday with his parents in town.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Wilson and family, of Minersville, are guests at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Matthews, of North Blakely street.

Miss Allie Taft, of North Blakely street, is visiting friends in Hawley.

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., of Blakely, will preside at the Dudley Street Baptist church on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

THE NATIONAL EISTEDDFOD

[Concluded from Page 9.]

was also the winner of the contraalto prize at the Allentown eisteddfod. Her singing received marked attention and unstinted praise.

As usual, Mrs. D. B. Thomas was in demand as an accompanist, and her presence always gives any competitor confidence and courage.

The competition for tenor and bass, on "Go, Baffled Coward, Go," at the morning session, was not up to the standard, but owing to the fact that there were but two parties entered, both were allowed to go on the stage.

"Dyich" and "The Cambrian," of Utica, N. Y., were also represented by D. C. Powell, of Scranton, and Rees Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre.

The juvenile competition, in which children whose ages range from 5 to 15 years, were the participants, was without question the best competition of its kind ever heard in an American eisteddfod.

William Dammrosch, of Paterson, N. J., and George A. Edwards, of the Wilkes-Barre Times, were among the visitors who were present for the day.

The "other" conductor, T. P. Williams, of Newcastle, Pa., made a hit with the people of the eisteddfod, the moment he introduced "The Hero of the Army" for such an immense crowd as the Arlons, and can command the attention of all without much effort.

The custom of preventing applause before a competition was strictly adhered to by the conductors, and proved to be of much help to the competitors who are generally embarrassed by their friends before they go on the stage.

Garfield Davis, the talented young accompanist of the Sherman Avenue Juvenile choir, was especially complimented for his playing, and for his playing in the competition at the morning session.

Richard Phillips, the leader of the winning juvenile choir, was also complimented for his ability and leadership.

Conductor Williams, of the morning session, injected much humor into his playing, and his playing was received with much pleasure and applause. Next to Judge Edwards, he is a top notcher in the eisteddfod world, and his presence in Scranton, was a great pleasure to the people of the day.

Rev. Thomas Jenkins, of Madison, N. Y., was among the interested spectators at the eisteddfod.

The three unsuccessful juvenile choirs were each given special prizes for their excellent renditions. This is done to encourage competitors of this kind.

Both the Saengerrunde and Junges Maennerchor were highly complimented for their singing and Professor Homberger gave an ovation when he stepped to the stage to receive the prize.

Among the out-of-town visitors were William M. Thomas, Llewellyn Morgan and John Evans, of Wilkes-Barre; G. M. Williams, William LeMay, John Pugh, Kingston; Reese G. Davis, of Edwardsdale.

A noticeable feature in the competition was the large number of strange pianists, and the absence of the old stereotyped compositions.

Dr. D. E. Richards, of Stratton, Pa., was the winner of the Welsh novel prize, is an old established and native American, and was heartily congratulated on his success. His novel is entitled "Mrs. Grey's" and his companion, "George Washington." Evan R. Evans, is a native of Carnarvon, Wales.

Professor J. D. Daniel, leader of the chorale choir of the Cecilia's, of Utica, the mixed and ladies' parties, which sang at the evening session. The chorus numbered in all 188 voices. Professor Daniel was the adjudicator at the West Scranton eisteddfod two years ago, and at North Scranton last Thanksgiving day.

Walter Dammrosch, of Paterson, N. J., and J. Powell Jones, the adjudicators, gave excellent satisfaction. Their decisions were brief, pointed and instructive. Dammrosch made a splendid impression and as accompanist to Gwilym Miles in one of his own compositions, heightened the opinion held of him as a musician and composer. Miles' playing and Jones' too well known among the Welsh people to need any special praise as to their ability.

G. H. Humphries, of Utica, N. Y., one of the literary adjudicators of the day, is one of the most scholarly Welshmen in America. His style is not very robust, but his diction is exceedingly pleasing to listen to, and his adjudications were given in Welsh and English. He is also a German scholar and speaker of recognized ability.

It is seldom, if ever, that a mother, her daughter and two sons comprise a quartette and win a prize in the eisteddfod. Yet this happened yesterday when Mrs. Elizabeth Watkins, and three grown-up children, Edith, Gwilym and Arthur Watkins, of Harrisburg, proved to be the most quartette of the day.

W. J. Jones, of the Pittsburg Bank for Savings, Joseph D. Jones, Walter Evans, J. Harry Jones and John D. Jones.

David Owens, Philip Warren and Tom Stephens sang German songs with the Liederkreis, and sang well.

Jenkin Jones, of the Poochontas district, Virginia, was an interested spectator.

The voice of Conductor Williams could be easily heard anywhere in the great building and many times proved a thorn in the side of the other adjudicators.

Thomas Williams, of Pittston, soloist of the Dr. Mason Glee club, was easily the best of them all in the male party competition, and fairly lifted the people from their seats with his superb rendition of "The Britons' solo."

The attendance at the morning session was roughly estimated at 400, the afternoon 600, and the evening 800 people.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill to amend the constitution of that state, which was passed by a vote of 10 to 9.

When the Arlons attempted to leave the stage after their first selection at the evening session, Judge Edwards would not listen to it, and they formed again and sang a lullaby arranged by Professor Arthur Classen, their leader. His complete mastery of the hundred voices under him showed conclusively why the Arlons are in a class by themselves.

An electrical effect, introduced by Conductor Williams at the evening session had the proper effect in having the ladies remove their hats. It was a story about the Ohio legislature passing a bill to amend the constitution of that state, which was passed by a vote of 10 to 9.

THE PLAIN FACTS ABOUT OUR BUSINESS

THERE are always some persons who do not believe what is said in an advertisement, no matter how careful the advertiser may be to say absolutely nothing that would not stand the strictest investigation. This is because the reader does not take the trouble to find out just why a company like this, for instance, should make offers to the public which are such an advantage to them when compared with the offers made by its competitors.

This is a new company started here in Scranton. We thought that by doing away with several of the more expensive and insignificant features of the old-fashioned concerns, we should be able to lend money on household furniture at such moderate rates that even the very poorest people could easily afford to get a small loan to help them over some financial difficulty.

MONEY TO LOAN ON HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.

THIS company asks for your patronage on the distinct understanding that our new methods give you a positive advantage. Every word here is absolutely true. You will notice that we do not print tricky sentences—words which say one thing and really mean something else.

Here are the reasons why you should come here if you are in debt and need a loan—if you want new clothes or anything else and need ready cash to get them in order to keep up a good appearance before your friends.

There can be no publicity with this plan of ours. Even your own family need not know. Our expenses are less per loan. Therefore, our terms can be more liberal, and are so.

You pay in small, easy instalments, whenever you can spare the money easiest. We do not keep you waiting for the loan.

We do not charge compound interest at all.

We charge no interest on the paid-up principal.