FUNERAL OF MRS. B. E. FISTER

Services were conducted at the Residence, Green Ridge Street. The funeral services of Mrs. B. E. Fister were held yesterday afternoon from her late residence on Green Ridge street. Seldom have such rites been held under more pathetic circumstances. The bride of a year, gowned in her wedding dress, laid in the parlor of the pretty little home of which she had been the soul and the light. Upstairs a motherless baby and a desolate husband waited. The two young people had lived but a short time in that community but there were many kind friends to be present with their sympathy. One of the flowers lay at the young wife in the gray casket. Among these was a massive spray of roses from Mr. Fister's associates in the Tribune office.

Rev. Dr. J. Lancing, pastor of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, made the beautiful address. He spoke of the fact that he had just left the house from which an old lady of eighty years was carried to the grave, after a saintly life, her children and grandchildren about her, and her long work done. Why this other one, young and beautiful, good, prophetic, hopeful and so needed should be thus taken was hard to understand. The minister could not tell why it was so, but God's ways were in love, not wrath and He knows, Dr. Lancing said, impressively, in closing his remarks, could offer sympathy in grief, we could do still more in the kind words and the tenderness we can give to the living while yet they are with us.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

They Are Being Made Along the Line of the N. Y., O. & W. Railroad—Better Train Service.

The New York, Ontario and Western summer time-table on its Scranton division, as well as main line, will go into effect Sunday, June 15. Trains will arrive at Scranton at 7:25 a. m., 10:40 a. m., 4:30 p. m., leaving Scranton at 10:30 a. m., 4 p. m., and 6:10 p. m. The train arriving at Scranton at 7:25 a. m. will make close connections with the Central Railroad of New Jersey Quaker City express solid vestibuled train with parlor car attached, arriving at Philadelphia at 12 o'clock noon, and Atlantic City at 3:20 p. m. This train will also make close connections for Baltimore and Washington, also all prominent Pennsylvania state points. This is quite an advantage to Carbondale and points intermediate to Scranton, enabling such passengers to buy tickets and check their baggage through to destination, besides saving a tedious all-day ride. The train arriving at Scranton at 10:40 a. m. this year will open up about fifty miles more than last year of an agricultural district, known as their New Berlin branch.

It will also start from Norwich this year instead of Sidney, as heretofore, thus bringing the city of Scranton, with its large department stores, various industries and other advantages, in closer proximity with a certain part of New York state that has not heretofore been reached in a direct way.

The company is also opening up a stretch of country about twenty-five miles across from Ellenville to Kingsbury, N. Y., where they will connect with the Western and Delaware road. The latter road controls the summer business to the Catskill mountains. The tract of land being opened up is a rich valley, having well-developed farms, from which the Ontario and Western company expect to in time develop into a summer resort, as well as giving them a direct route across to Kingston.

It will also be remembered this company a short time ago decided to begin laying double track from Cornwall, its connection with the West Shore railroad, to Cadonia, N. Y., its junction with the Scranton division, the heavy business, especially during the summer time, necessitating such a move.

The company have likewise begun to give some attention to the mountains of Delaware and Wayne, located along the Scranton division, of which mention of healthfulness is unnecessary to Scranton people. Their summer business has increased to such an extent on their main line that a great many New York and Brooklyn people are each year found upon the mountains of Wayne and Delaware counties.

This year a number of summer hotels at Pleasant Mount, Poyntelle, Winwood, Lake Como, Preston Park and Hancock, as well as other cottages, have been listed in the summer home pamphlet. This little book is complete with information, even to the minutest detail, and has some excellent cuts of points of interest along the Scranton branch.

BURIAL OF MRS. PECK

Services Held at the Late Residence, on Delaware Street.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah L. Peck took place yesterday afternoon from her late residence, 929 Delaware street, and was such a one of saintly life in the Methodist church would have been considered. Rev. Dr. Austin Griffin, presiding elder of the Wyoming district, was in charge of the services. He was assisted by prominent clergymen, friends of the deceased. They were: Her pastor, Rev. G. A. Cure, of the Providence Methodist church; Rev. C. A. Benjamin, of Ashbury church; Rev. Dr. A. J. Van Cleef, of Dalton; Rev. Dr. M. D. Fuller, of Jermyn, and Rev. A. F. Chaffee, of Carbondale. The services were most impressive. The singing was by the two surviving members of the Wyoming conference trio, Rev. J. B. Sumner and Rev. J. C. Leacock. They sang dear and familiar hymns from the Methodist hymnal.

The pall-bearers were J. T. Nyhart and Clinton Benjamin, of the Providence church; J. S. Miller and E. S. Pratt, from Ashbury, and C. R. Kinsley and G. A. Clearwater, neighbors of the deceased. Among the out-of-town relatives present were: Wells M. Butler, of Campbell, N. Y., the only surviving brother of Mrs. Peck, a veteran of the Civil war and a cavalryman under Custer; Mrs. May Peck Arnold and daughter, of Kenia, O.; George Peck, of Forty Fort; Mrs. J. W. Nicholson, of Waverly, N. Y., and Rev. G. A. Place, of Honesdale, all of whom were near relatives.

NURSES FROM TWO TRAINING SCHOOLS

Eight Young Women Eighth Annual Exercises at the Scranton Private Hospital School. Receive Their Diplomas from Lackawanna Hospital.

Eight young women who had completed a two years' course of study at the training school for nurses connected with the Lackawanna hospital, were last night graduated with appropriate exercises, conducted in St. Luke's parish house. The members of the graduating class occupied seats just in front of the stage and seated near them were the other nurses from the hospital. All were attired in the soft, cool-looking blue and white gowns which hospital nurses wear, and all wore dainty lace caps. The large and fashionable audience almost completely filled the pretty auditorium.

President James P. Dickson, of the board of directors, presided at the exercises, which were opened with a prayer by Rev. Dr. Rogers Israel, rector of St. Luke's church. President Dickson announced that Judge H. M. Edwards, who was to have made the address to the graduates, had been unexpectedly called out of the city, and that he would endeavor to fill his place to a certain extent. Mr. Dickson made a very brief address, in which he said that the work accomplished at the hospital during the past year has been the largest in its history. There is a possibility, he said, that now that the institution is controlled and maintained by the state, a new hospital building worthy of the city and worthy of the work being accomplished, may be erected. "There are applicants enough," said he, "to fill a hospital twice the size of the Lackawanna."

The impression has gone abroad, he said, since the hospital became a state institution, that there is no need for any more private contributions. This, he declared to be a mistaken impression. The hospital does need contributions of money and clothing and the use can be found for all that may be sent. Dr. W. G. Fulton, who had been called upon at 7 o'clock to address the graduates, spoke briefly. The good nurse, he said, must possess tact and the ability to adapt herself to peculiar circumstances. He dwelt upon the necessity of the nurse being frank and truthful with the physician at all times and closed with an expression of his hearty good will.

Dr. A. J. Connell, the chief of staff, offered a few words of congratulation, on behalf of the physicians, and then the diploma and report were presented to the graduates by President Dickson. A distribution of flowers followed, each of the young ladies receiving a number of floral offerings. A magnificent bouquet of dark red roses was presented to Miss Elizabeth Kramer, the superintendent. An informal reception followed the regular exercises, and refreshments were served in the parlors of the parish house. Dancing to music furnished by a detached orchestra from Prof. Bauer's corps of musicians, followed. The names of the nurses who graduated are as follows: Miss Alice M. Breece, of Oneida; Miss Esther Browning, of Pittston; Miss Blanche K. Ferguson, of North Carolina; Miss Lulu Hanes, of Blightman; Miss Charlotte Williams, of Mayfield; Miss Florence E. Boyd, of North Carolina; Miss Louise M. Voligt, of Wilkes-Barre; and Miss Nellie Stewart, of Scranton.

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT.

Given by Catholic Choral Club at the Lyceum Last Night.

One of the best choruses organized in this city is the Catholic Choral club, which gave a concert last night at the Lyceum for the benefit of the Catholic Young Women's club. In its membership are many of the best voices of the city and valley, every member is a trained singer, the pick of the Catholic church choirs, and under the tutelage of John T. Watkins it has thoroughly mastered a number of the best choral selections.

The soloists are Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, Mrs. T. C. Walsh, Miss Kate Mongan, Miss Mary Niland, John T. Watkins, William A. Kelly, David Stephens and Edward Walsh.

The club rendered the "Soldiers' Chorus" from Faust; "Daybreak," by Fanning; Lacome's "Students' Chorus," and Rossini's "Inflammatus," the solo part being admirably sustained by Miss Mongan. The C. Whitney Combs' "Ave Maria" was sung in an excellent tenor voice by Edward Walsh, with violin obligato by Prof. Robert Bauer. Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, David Stephens and W. A. Kelly sang as only threeable number, singers could sing, "The Mariners," by Randegger. It was the most delightful selection of the evening.

Mr. Watkins was heard in the Banderolo song, and, as is usual whenever he appears, he did to give a second number. Miss Mary Niland, one of Mr. Watkins' most promising pupils, sang sweetly and with good expression the soprano solo, "I Will Extol Thee," from the oratorio "Eli." A duet, "It Was a Lover and His Love," by Mrs. O'Brien and Mr. Watkins, proved a very enjoyable number. Another number which was received with much favor and accorded a hearty encore, was the baritone solo, "The Brigands," by William A. Kelly, who is accompanied by Mrs. Kelly, who is a most accomplished pianist.

Mrs. Thomas C. Walsh, the soprano soloist at St. Peter's cathedral, was heard in the Baglioni "Laudamus Te," and sang with her wonted beauty of voice and expression. Bishop Hoban occupied a box, and at the conclusion of the programme, went on the stage and warmly complimented the singers for their work, thanked Mr. Watkins and the members of the chorus in the name of the Catholic Young Women's club.

It was decided to make the club a permanent organization, and officers were selected as follows: President, Joseph Keller; vice-president, William A. Kelly; corresponding secretary, Miss Loreto Jennings; financial secretary, Miss Kate Mongan; treasurer, P. F. Hanley; director, John T. Watkins; accompanist, Miss Lizzie Neary.

MASS MEETING TONIGHT.

Candidacy of Col. L. A. Watres to Be Boomed at Lyceum.

The candidacy of Colonel L. A. Watres for governor will be endorsed tonight at a mass meeting, to be held in the Lyceum theater. A number of prominent speakers will be in attendance, and Bauer's band will play a number of selections. This will be the only opportunity that Scrantonians will have of expressing their esteem of the colonel before the state convention, which is to be held on June 11.

Dr. Lindabury, Surgeon, diseases of women a specialty, 215 Connell building. Hours: 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.; 7 to 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. L. A. Harris, a Prominent Member of a Chicago Woman's Political Club, tells how Ovarian Troubles may be Cured without a Surgical Operation. She says:

"Doctors have a perfect craze for operations. The minute there is any trouble, nothing but an operation will do them; one hundred dollars and costs, and included in the costs are pain, and agony, and often death.

"I suffered for eight years with ovarian troubles; spent hundreds of dollars for relief, until two doctors agreed that an operation was my only chance of life. My sister had been using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for her troubles, and been cured, and she strongly urged me to let the doctors go and try the Compound. I did so as a last resort; used it faithfully with the Sanative Wash for five months, and was rejoiced to find that my troubles were over and my health restored. If women would only try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first, fewer surgical operations would occur."—Mrs. L. A. HARRIS, 278 East 81st St., Chicago, Ill.
