The Spirit of Unrest Breaks Out in Earnest at . Two Places-Attempts to Destroy Company Property at Stanton Colliery Greeted by Bullets-Rioters Set Fire to Fences About the Murray Colliery, Also, and Hamper the Firemen in the Work of Extinguishing the

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Wilkes-Barre, June 5 .- The spirit of unrest that has been manifesting itself more or less in this city and vicinity during the last few days broke out in earnest at two places in this city tonight and as a result a boy was dangerously, if not fatally shot by a guard at the Stanton colliery, and a considerable portion of the fence around the Murray colliery was destroyed by fire There has been considerable trouble around the Stanton colliery, which is operated by the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal company, controlled by the Central Railroad of New Jersey. The colliery is located in the southern part of the city. Several nights ago a part burned and also a small frame building on the culm bank. Since then other attempts were made to fire the fence. The guards as a result kept a close Tonight while Charles McCann, aged 13 years, was walking along the Later that night Dr. Johnson was call-field outside the fence, it is said, a ed to No. 8 to attend one of the depuguard on the inside fired a revolver or rific at him. The chief of the Wilkes-Barre police, with a squad of men, went to the colliery to arrest the guard and after some trouble the chief and his the water supply. The town is furmen gained an entrance. They got their nished with water from the Erie comman, but the crowd on the outside was At a late hour tonight, the crowd was still hanging around the colliery.

Crowd Seeks Vengeance.

Shortly after the shooting the crowd sought vengeance on the company's property and some one set fire to a trestle work. The fire department was summoned and with considerable difficulty put out the blaze. The crowd hampered the firemen in every way. When the chief of police reached the colliery he with the assistance of the chief of the coul and iron police on the ground, made an investigation and finally placed the blame for the shooting on four coal and iron policemen who were located near the place where the shooting occurred. They were taken from the colliery by a circuitous route and landed in the lockup at midnight. The men say boys were tearing down the fence and that they shot into the air to scare them, and did not know that any one had been injured until told of it later. Three of the men fired one shot each and one fired two. They also claim that some one on the outside fired at them. There were fourteen policemen on the inside of the operations.

Each had a 38-calibre revolver and besides there were five Winchesters ready for use. The men came from Philadelphia today and were placed on duty at 5.30 this afternoon. Their names as given to the police are: John Narr, Edward H. Evans, Thomas O'Brien and William Shinnick,

The Fire at Murray Colliery.

At the Murray colliery, also operated by the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre, in the eastern part of the city, a crowd of boys succeeded in burning about 400 feet of a high board fence that surrounds the company's property. The trouble at that place began at about 6 o'clock when a foreigner was arrested for disorderly conduct and throwing stones. A big crowd gathered and the were threatened. Shortly afterward a number of boys set the rence on fire but the fire department extinguished the blaze. No sooner had the firemen left the scene than the fence was again set on fire. The dry boards burned rapidly and made quite a blaze which had the effect of drawing several thousand perto the place. The crowd, growing bolder started to tear down the boards which drew the fire of several guards inside. Some one in the crowd fired back, but all the bullets went wild. The crowd was composed mostly if boys and young men, the older men and hundreds of women watching the affair at a safe distance on a hill top. After the fire had been burning about an hour the department was again summoned and the flames put out. While the firemen were busy at the fire a handful of small boys with slungshots peppered the horses with small stones.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN AT PITTSTON

Strikers in an Ugly Mood at No. 8 Colliery-Burgess Hunt Prevents Bloodshed.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, June 5 .- An unsuccessful attempt was made at Hughestown this morning to wreck a special train on the Eric rallroad near No. 8 colliery, Every morning since the inauguration of the firemen and pumpmen's strike some of the non-union men have been quartered at No. 7 junction and are brought back and forth in the special train which runs directly into the colliery property. For several days there have been large crowds gathered near the colliery every morning and evening but nothing of a very serious nature had occurred before this. During last night huge rocks and telephone poles were rolled to the track but were discovered before the train approached and the special was notified of the blockade.

Tuesday evening a clash almost occurred between the duputies at this colliery and a crowd of strikers. The of the fence surrounding the place was latter threw stones and desisted only at the request of Burgess Hunt who arrived just as Colonel Keck, who has charge of the deputies, notified them that if another stone was thrown a volley would be shot into the crowd. ties who had been overcome by the

UNREST AT TAMAQUA.

Armed Strikers Force Pumpmen to Quit Work-Cowardly Assault on a Watchman.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Tamaqua, Pa., June 5.-The fact that the Lehigh Coal and Navigation company is running all its pumps in the Panther Creek Valley is causing a great deal of unrest among the striking miners. Last evening the intensity of the feeling was shown when a crowd of about five hundred strikers hung Christ Metzgar, a pumpman, who remained at work, in effigy in front of his residence on one of the principal streets of this city and then fired a number of shots at the dummy as it hung swinging from the arm of an electric light pole. Later on, a committee of the strikers escorted Metzgar to the office of the company, where he resigned his position

At the No. 12 mine a number of armed strikers visited the pump house and forced several pumpmen and steam men to stop work. Shortly afterward the same men, reinforced by about 200 strikers, hung a pumpman in effigy at Coaldale. Early last evening two men. supposed to be strikers, visited the Spring Tunnel boller house and asked the watchman for a drink of water. When he turned to fill a cup for them one of the men struck him on the head with a large rock and he fell to the floor unconscious. Today the coal companies are swearing in more deputies and tonight a heavy cordon of police was stretched about every colliery.

SLAVS WELCOME HARCUR. The Pardoned Rioter Is Given a Rousing Reception at Oneida.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Hazleton, Pa., June 5 .- Eleven imported men, stationed at Yorktown, were persuaded by a miners' committee this evening to return to Philadelphia. They were not provided with transportation and will find their way home the best way they can. Sheriff Albert Jacobs was notified tonight of trouble at Miners Mills, near Wilkes-Barre, and was asked to go there. The sheriff has a representative there and will not eave for the scene of disturbances un-

This is the first importation of foreigners to the anthracite coal regions to fill the places of strikers. The officials at the Van Wickle office would neither confirm nor deny that the new arrivals are to be employed by this company.

SOFT COAL STRIKE NEXT

Anthracite Miners Successful in Creating Unrest in the Bituminous Regions.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Roanoke, Va., June 5 .- From present ndications it is believed here that the general strike among the soft coal miners of Virginia and West Virginia, which has been scheduled for next Saturday, will go into effect and that practically all the fields will be tied up on that day. W. R. Sheets, purchasing agent of the Turkey Gap Coal and Coke company, of West Virginia, who has been engaged in the fields for more than ten years, says a strike cannot be everted. He says the trouble is being brought about by men from the anthracite regions, who wish to tie up the soft coal mines and hasten the end of the anthracite strike.

The mine operators are anxious nov that the strike shall take place, as they believe that this is the only solution of the trouble. New laborers already have been employed by some of them to take the place of strikers, and guards have been employed to protect those who wish to work. Supplies have been provided against a tie-up and the men have been notified that they can either work or quit, but that if they choose the latter course they must immediately get off the mine servations.

A special from Bluefield, W. Va. says that there is considerable alarm felt there on account of the strike situation, and that it is feared trouble may result.

Many miners, both union and nonunion, are leaving the coal fields. The strike will occur either tomorrow or

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Huntingdon, Pa., June 5.-The stu dents at the Juniata college here are in revolt over the dismissal of three of their number, Fred Simpson, of Mill Creek: W. Martin Baker, of Gettysburg, and Harry Bradford, of Lewistown, who were found guilty of hazing. Humphrey Deibert, of Bedford, who had incurred the displeasure of the students for revealing secrets, was seized by forty students and given a heroic application of the "water cure," Today about thirty students left the institution out of sympathy for their expelled comrades, and it is said more will follow. The female students are seriously considering whether they, too shall voluntarily leave the institution. The faculty and trustees are considering what measures shall be adopted to stop the uprising of the students.

A Despondent Resident of Pittston End His Troubles with a Bullet.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Pittston, June 5 .- Martin Tougher, residing on South Main street, committed suicide in an out building at als home the afternoon about 3 o'clock. Tougher had been ill for the past few days and unable to work, and it is thought this lead to despondency. This afternoon he went to an out-house at the rear end of his property and upon his non-return an hour later, his family went in search of him. He was dead when found, however, and the place was covered with blood, which poured from a bullet hole in his head. The revolver with which he had taken

STOCK YARDS

The Fury of the Meat Teamsters' Strike Has Been Exhausted at Last.

THE TROUBLE SETTLED MEN WILL WORK TODAY

Rumor That Meat Packers Will Take Back Only Men Who Were Not Active in Mischief-The Terms of Peace Ratified in an Enthusiastic Meeting in Corcoran Hall.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Chicago, June 5.-Quiet reigned in the turbulent stockyards district today, as a result of the settlement of the meat teamsters' strike, but the happiness of the men was marred somewhat by a report that the packers will refuse to reemploy leaders among the striking teamsters. The report caused much uneasiness among the men, and there were mutterings that if those who have been active in the recent disturbances shall be forced into idleness because of their conduct during the strike, there will be further trouble at the stock yards. The teamsters are to return to work tomorrow morning. A few were given teams today, but the majority was told to report tomorrow. Soon after the agreement, which is a compromise, was ratifled by the men, a re port coming from some untraceable source spread that the packers had de termined to take back only teamster who had not been active in the strike That the companies would exercise choice in taking back their former teamsters, seemed not to have occurred to the men before and on investigation it was found that several workmen employed in the yards had recently been discharged. These men declare that they have been singled out because they were strong union men and strike sym-pathizers. This is denied by the packers, but the statements of the discharged men are being carefully investigated. Five hundred teamsters assembled at Corcoran hall, near the stockyards, at noon and ratified unanimously the agreement made between their representatives and the packers at 4 o'clock this morning. The document was signed by Albert Young, president of the National Teamsters' union, and by John Myer, president of the local union It was then taken by President Job, of the state arbitration board, to the several packers for their signatures. The utmost harmony prevailed, the occasion assuming the character of a jollification over the settlement of the strike The men decided to return to work to-

The meeting lasted over two hours much of the time being taken up in waiting for laggards to arrive. As was noticeable among the police, there were numerous bandages and plasters on faces otherwise peaceful.

morrow morning.

The agreement was read to them and was greeted with cheers. The concessions made to the packers were explained and the explanation was applauded. The concessions made by the packers were likewise dilated on and there were more cheers. It was obvious that the men were extremely content with their fight and happy that the worst riots in Chicago since 1894 had passed into history.

John Myer, president of the local union, who read the agreement and did much of the explaining, called for an aye and nay vote. The chorus of ayes was deafening.

The men stood on chairs, threw their hats into the air and brought ponderous fists down on each other's backs. Only a few of the men returned to the yards to resume work. The great ma jority of them, worn out with much fighting and long hours on picket duty. declared their intentions of putting in about eighteen hours of sleep before again taking up the reins.

As the men passed out of the hall, huge van carrying meat and driven by a clerk rumbled past. The men cheered again-cheering a man who yesterday would have found a far different recepswered with a wave of the hand, and the truck lumbered on, typical of the peace of a city where but twenty-four hours ago before there had been riot and bloodshed.

The Americans were met at the entrance of the vatican by Monsignor Bisleti, the papal chamberlain, and were conducted to the pope's private

While talking with the pope, Governor Taft reviewed, in a summary way. the questions in the Philippines which of the state administration. require settlement. He pointed out to his holiness that the readjustment of the relations of church and state in the gates and select the temporary officers islands was not an indication of hostility of the United States to the Catholic church, but declared that such readjustment was merely a necessity under the American constitution. Governor Taft referred to the prosperity and the freedom of the Roman Catholic church in the United States and cited these conditions as an assurance that the vatican had nothing to fear from the extension of the authority of the United States over the Philippine islands.

Replying to Judge Taft, the pontiff expressed the greatest pride in the Roman Catholic church in the United States and intense interest in the great republic. He said he earnestly desired to help the American administration in the Philippines in every possible way and he assured Governor Taft that the vatican would approach all questions raised in the broadest and most conciliatory spirit. The pope said also that matters of de-tall, in connection with the questions to be decided, would be referred to a committee of cardinals, where they would be considered at length, and that all the issues would be treated with the sole aim of reaching a settlement satisfactory to all parties concerned.

The pope appeared to be in excellent health during his interview with Governor Taft and was of vivacious humor He referred pleasantly to Archbishop Ireland in what he had to say concerning the Roman Catholic church in the United States.

PREPARING FOR THE STATE CONVENTION

Harrisburg Already Presents a Holiday Appearance-Hotels and Public Buildings Decorated.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Harrisburg, June 5.-Hotels and public buildings all over the city are being decorated for the Republican state convention to be held in the Grand Opera house next Wednesday for the nomination of candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of nternal affairs. By reason of the spirited contest for governor between Judge Pennypacker, of Philadelphia; Attorney General Elkin, of Indiana, and ex-Lieutenant Governor Watres, of Scranton, the indications are that the attendance will be unusually large.

Headquarters have already been opened by the Pennypacker and Elkin managers and it is expected that Col. Watres will be here on Monday to take personal direction of his forces. Judge Pennypacker's interests will be in charge of United States Senators Quay and Penrose and Insurance Commissioner Durham, of Philadelphia. General Elkin will direct his own campaign with the aid of Secretary of the Commonwealth Griest and other members

The state committee will meet of the state convention.

Senator Quay will be a candidate for state chairman if Pennypacker is nominated. Should Elkin be Bank Commissioner Reeder will again be a candidate for chairman. All of the party leaders and many of the delegates will be on the ground on Monday.

DECLARATION AGAINST ANARCHY DEMANDED

Those Who Plot Treason and Advocate Murder Should Find the Land Enriched by Blood of the Patriots Too Small-The Patriotism of Our Nation Demands That Congress Legislate So That in Future the Mosts and Goldmans Can not Escape Punishment.

ly Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press. Washington, June 5 .- The general debate on the anti-anarchy bill was completed today, except for two speeches, which will be made tomorrow. Mr. Littlefield, of Maine, will make the closing argument in support of the measure. The debate today, like that of yesterday, was devoted to legal arguments, the speakers today being Messrs. Sibley, of Pennsylvania; De Armond, of Missouri; Williams, of Mississippi; Wooten, of Texas; Mc-Dermott, of New Jersey; Loud, of Callfornia; Crumpacker, of Indiana; Maddox, of Georgie; Ball, of Texas, and Clark, of Missouri.

In the course of his remarks favoring the passage of the anti-anarchy bill, Mr. Sibley, of Pennsylvania, said: "When loving hands consigned to mother earth the mortal remains of William Mckinley, the sense of justice which is so predominant in American character demanded in unmistakable tones that there should be made the clear and distinct declaration that those who plotted treason to the government and advocated murder of rulers should find that a land enriched by the blood of patriots and martyrs too small to hold those who should conspire for its overthrow. The patriotism of our nation believed that almost the first act of the American congress would be so to legislate that in the future, neither a Johann Most nor an Emma Goldman, the more responsible authors of such crime, should escape punishment. "Notwithstanding the fact that the first recommendation made by the president in his annual message to congress dealt with the subject, six months have rolled around, and for the first time this is a topic of discussion n this body."

In closing, he said: "In the strength of our purpose and endowed with the courage of our convictions, we will send to anarchy and all her brood the message that Garfield once delivered, when, upon the death of Lincoln, this nation was plunged in panie and despair, God reigns and the government at Washington still lives."

Mr. Sibley was warmly applauded when he concluded. Mr. Grow. of Pennsylvania, advocated the passage of the bill. The killing of the president, he said, should he stamped as the greatest crime on the statute books. Representative Ruppert, one of the Democratic members from New York, today introduced a resolution authorizing the adjournment of congress at 3 p. m. on June 28. important pending measures of legis-

In further consideration of the isthmian canal question, the senate heard two speeches today. Mr. Hanna, of Ohlo, spoke in favor of the Spooner amendment, conferring on the president authority to purchase the rights of the Panama Canal company if a valid title could be obtained, otherwise he shall decide upon the Nicaragua route. Mr. Mitchell supported the Hepburn bill for the construction of the canal by the Nicaragua route. Seldom has a senator been accorded a more attentive hearing than that given Mr. Hanna. The Panama route he considered much to be preferred to the Nicaragua route, as it provided an inter-oceanic waterway much shorter, and one that could be traversed at less expense than the Nicaragua route. He maintained that the United States was to build the canal to accommodate the ommerce of the world, and said that fact must be taken into account.

Mr. Mitchell insisted that the Nicaragua route was entirely feasible and practicable, while the Panama route involved difficulties which were scarcely to be surmounted.

The senate passed the military academy appropriation bill, providing for extensive improvements at West Point.
