A SPLENDID RECITAL.

Rare Evening of Music Provided by Pupils of Miss Alice Bridgett at Her Home on Darte Avenue.

An evening of rare entertainment for the patrons and a source of happy satisfaction to the pupils and their conscientious instructor, was the result of the recital so splendidly conducted by Miss Alice Bridgett at her home on Darte avenue last evening.

It was a successful evening from every standpoint. The programme was so well selected by Miss Bridgett that her pupils realized the most for the Interested friends who had so many opportunities to approve the young people's work, and, incidentally bestow appreciation on the earnest and efficient instructor of the promising planists. Summed up, the evening was highly enjoyable and profitable for all whose sympathies and interest were in the successful enterprise. The programme was as follows: PART FIRST. Andante Raymond Tiffany. Margaret Inch. Little Boy Blue Selma Frieder. Valse Opus 183 (Six hands).....Streablog

HITTLE RED DEVILS. Mind Makes Peculiar Things.

Coffee almost kills some people be fore they are willing to admit that coffee is really the cause of the trouble. providing Postum Coffee, well bolled, is served in its place. A lady says: "After coffee drinking bad become a habit with me I experteffect a sense of faintness in the stomch with lassitude and dullness of the mind. This was accompanied with seere pains in the region of my liver.

Bradually my health failed and I besouthia see in and I suffered for four emy. wars such torments as those who have been through the experience know of. Af night I would grow so nervous over the continual distress in my stomach that I would imagine hundreds of little red devils had strings attached to the back of my stomach and were trying o pull it out. I was compelled, at imes, to take laudanum to relieve the fistress and cramps, This condition lasted with some varintion for about three years. I tried various physicians and finally was ad-Sed to try leaving off coffee; this I hought could not be done. I was fiostum and I began to get well. When I recovered and thought I was well enough to go back to coffee again bried it, but after using it a short the old stomach trouble came free in the stove. There has never seen a grain of the old fashoned cofe as long as I am running it.

stum Coffee is delicious when made ecording to directions and served hot vith good cream and some augar. The whole family use it and enjoy it great-y. I have raised to pounds in the last year and my nerves are fast becoming thing of the past. I sleep perfectly il night and am a well woman, thanks Name given by Postum or, Battle Creek, Mich.

May Gaughan. HONOR FOR MISS JONES.

Her Brilliant Achievement in Ora-

torical Contest at Blair Hall. Carbondale was well honored this week at the commencement exercises of Blair hall, Blairstown, N. J., by the daughters. Miss Eleanor Jones, daughter of Hon, S. S. Jones and Mrs. Jones Word was received here yesterday that Miss Jones ended her brilliant career at the school by taking the chief honor in the oratorical contest. The contest took place Wednesday night and was for the prize provided for each year by the late John I. Blair, the founder of Blair hall. The number of contestants was five, being cut down this year by a series of examinations. Heretofore, all of the students, male and female, were eligible to the contest, Miss Jones' oration, which brought her the much-coveted honor and won her such distinction among the students, was an original composition on "The Last Days of Pompeli." She consumed fifteen minutes in her vigorous and finished delivery.

Among the other achievements of Miss Jones was her success in the fraternity contest on Founders' day, and being the only first year student ever elected of the girls' Greek society of Blair hall. Miss Jones' success will be the occasion of numerous felicitations on her return home next week.

A SMOKER THIS EVENING.

HIS SNAKESHIP SURVIVES.

The Lively Reptile on Canaan Street Viewed by Numerous Persons.

The black snake which caused such lively time on Canaan street on Satrday, throwing the otherwise quiet residents into a ferment, still survives and is on exhibition in a glass-covered box at the Proctor home on upper Canaan street.

The reptile's six feet or more seems to lie comfortably in its narrow quarters and is certainly not discomfited by the many curious ones who visit the Proctor residence daily and marvel at his long, slender black body. His snakeship's appetite has not failed since his confinement, for yesterday he stowed away a meat and vegetable course; he devoured three turnips and a frog, besides a copious supply of Young Harry Proctor is the faithful attendant of the black wonder
