The above sky-scraper is in New York city, the three lots as shown above are at the corner of Taylor ave, and Linden street, Scranton. They face Linden, and are 40 feet front each. They are large enough for a large office building, but they are not in the right location. These three lots are for sale, if you buy them you can use buy them you can us them for whatever pur them for whatever purpose you please. We would do this with them: On the corner lot erect a store and double dwelling, which would rent for about $800 per year at an outlay of about $1,200, and nearly 20 per cent. On soop per year at an outlay of about $1,200, and this would yield nearly 20 per cent. On the other two lots erect two double or single dwellings which would rent or sell before they are finished, for about $550 per year each. Remember that they are near the Court House, sewered, and not far from the Pennsylvania railroad's immense power houses. Go and look at the ground, study the neighborhood carefully, and if you do not agree with us that Linden street is destined to be the most used street toward Nay Aug we will

For the three lots we will take less than $2,900. They are worth $1,000; $1,000 can

We will treat you well, as any business

SOCOOOOOOOO FIRST ARREST IN QUINN CASE

JOHN MORGAN, COLORED, TAK-EN INTO CUSTODY.

It Is Alleged That He Was at the Scene of the Crime Early Monday Evening and His Description Answers in a General Way That of the Negro Whom Watchman Skellinger Saw in Flight-Another Man Under Suspicion-Testimony Adduced at the Inquest.

The negro suspect in the Quinn murler case, for whom the police were ooking Thursday night, as told in yesterday's Tribune, was captured yester-day morning at Jessup by Lieutenant Davis and Patrolman Peters. He is known as John Morgans, and ived until recently at 316 Raymond court. According to the story of the person who set the police on his trail, Morgan was seen in the vicinity of the Continental, early Monday evening, picking dandelion greens. This person knew Morgan by name and Morgan being well known to the police there was good hopes that he would be taken if he was still in these parts. The fact that his reputation was none the best, and that he had not been seen about his usual haunts, except on Tuesday morning, when a party noticed him darting across Oakford court, and the further fact that he answered in a general way the description of the negro seen fleeing from the vicinity of the crime, led the police to believe that probably he was the man wanted.

After threshing around Oakford and Raymond courts until midnight, Thursday, the police learned that Morgan had gone up to Jessup, where Marshall & Smith, two colored men, keep a hotel. Lieutenant Davis and Patrolman Peters went to Jessup on the 1.35 n. m. Delaware and Hudson train and inquired for Morgan at the hotel. They were told that he had gone over the mountain to Kizer's pond fishing, and would likely come back by way of Jesup. The officers waited and at 10 o'clock yesterday morning were rewarded by seeing their man come down the road and enter the barroom. took him into custody and brought him to this city on the noon train. He was jocked up in the central police station without being told what he was arrested for. When questioned as to his whereabouts Monday night he told of every place he went, but none of his movements took him any where near the place it was reported he had been seen picking dandelion greens.

He was around the central part of the city all evening, he said, with a crowd of colored men who were going up the valley to act as cooks for the watchmen at the various mines. He accompanied them to the Delaware and Hudson station, when they took the 9.15 train, and after that was at a couple of places on Penn avenue until early morning. The police investigated his story and corroborated it in a general way, but not in such a way as would make it absolutely impossible that he was in Keyser Valley between 10 and 11 o'clock p. m., the time of the murder. of his arrest. He did not seem to be disturbed, but rather relieved. He told Superintendent Day he could establish an alibi that would prove without question he could not have been in the neighborhood of the Continental at the time of the murder. He will be given a hearing in police ourt this morning, when the party who laims to have seen him near the Continental early in the evening, and Watchman Skellinger, who saw a negro feeing from the scene of the murder at 11 o'clock Monday night, will be or hand to identify him, if possible,

TOLD THE CAUSE.

Morgan is about 25 years of age and of good physical proportions. About four years ago he was arrested for shooting a young son of George Marshall, but was acquitted on the ground that the shooting was accidental. Morgan was going out hunting, and while standing at the corner of West Lackawanna avenue and Seventh street, was struck by an apple thrown by the Marshall boy. He thereupon shot the boy in the leg, wounding him so severely that it was necessary to imputate the leg. He claimed that he did not shoot at the boy and the shooting was accidental. The case was not very strenuously pressed, as the paries were all friends, and Morgan escaped punishment, Some time later he was caught by Lieutenant of Police Davis with a bag of chickens on his back, which, it developed, he had stolen in Chinchilla. For this he served a term in the county jail,

The police, yesterday, secured another clue which they deem worthy of investigation. Its nature can not be disclosed, at this time, but without danger of interfering with work of the police it can be said that the newest suspect is a white man and not a for-

SCOTT'S TESTIMONY.

Patrick Scott was in Quinn's place when the two men informed them of their discovery. He went with them and upon reaching the scene of the murder, recognized the victim as Mary Quinn. He also testified to having seen a man coming through the field just as he reached there. This was Joseph Vissinski with whom Quinn had some trouble.

The jurors were of the opinion that Vissiniski should be heard, and also the young man who found the club, with which Miss Quinn is supposed to have been struck. They will be called upon to give their testimony before the jury on Monday night.

It is also proposed by the jury to hear testimony from the police and others regarding the theory that the crime was committed by a colored man,

The Medicine That Saves Life and Restores Lost Health.

A merciful Providence still keeps the spark of life in thousands of wasted and feeble bodies. The pitiful flickering spark will burn with decreased power as the hot days of summer approach. There is still hope for even those who are now catching glimpses of the dark valley. The use of Paine's Celery Compound during the month of June will at once arrest the progress of wasting diseases. It will strengthen the weak and inflamed nerves, rid the body of morbid waste material, make the blood pure, and give healthy action to the stomach, liver, and kidneys. Nervousness, sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles quickly vanish when Dr. Phelp's marvelous prescription is used. Mrs. Alice Terry Wood, 515 Highland Street, Helens Mont., says:

"I can say to all that I believe Paine's Celery Compound a great medicine. should have been in my grave if it hadn't been for the wonderful curing virtues of the compound, and I can say to all who are tired and run down, to try it, and they will find relief at once My trouble was general weakness, lack of appetite, and heart trouble.
