cent national eisteddfod, in the juvenile choir competition, where five choirs competed on the selection entitled "The Night Bells."

His first victory was at the Robert Morris lodge eisteddfod, held in the Lyceum theatre in May, 1897, on the competition entitled "As You Go."

While he does not scold during rehearsals, yet he expects perfect obedience from every member of the choir, and if they cannot obey they are compelled to leave and others chosen who are more tractable, and to those who were present at the armory and saw the perfect attention given to their leader by the members of the Sherman avenue choir it showed good leadership on the part of their conductor.

Mr. Phillips believes in making a good appearance as well as good singing, and at his suggestion every member of the choir was dressed in spotles white, their marching on the platform being vigorously applauded by the

Prof, Damrosch in his adjudication of the competition took occasion to compliment the winners on "the purity of tone, excellence of phrasing and perfect control of the choir by its leader." Under Mr. Phillips' guidance the singing at the Sherman avenue Sunday

A Farewell Party.

The Young People's Society of Chris tian Endeavor of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church met informally last Monday evening at the home of Miss Margaret David, on Boulevard avenue. The purpose of the gathering was to bid farewell to Miss David, who was one of their most faithful members, she being about to leave for Wales. A large number present and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Several piano solos were rendered by Miss Edith Davies. Vocal selections were given by the Misses Annie Jones and Annie Griffiths, and recitations by the Misses Ella Jones and Mary A. Davies, Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, and Mr. Howell, of Pittston, Games also were played.

At a seasonable time, Miss David was presented with a beautiful ring, the gift of her young friends. The presentation speech was given by Taliesin W. Davies. Refreshments were served by the hostess, wife of Rev.Wil-liam Davies, a sister of Miss David's, Arrangements Made to Lend Money on Furniture at Astonishingly Low Rates.

OFFERS GREAT ADVANTAGES TO THE POOR

Anybody Can Get from $10 to $300 on Household Furniture We are glad to learn that Mrs. William Thomas, who has been seriously Two Hours After Application Is Made—Not Even the Borrower's Own Family Need Know of the Loan. Company Will Let You Arrange Payments to Suit Yourself.

There is no longer any need for the jat all. He says, further, that there cash in their pockets. There is no longer any need for you o humiliate yourself by asking your friends to lend you money as an act of charity.

Those who have too much selfespect to let their friends know that they are hard up can now pay all their bills and keep up a good appearance and look prosperous before their neighbors and acquaintances. This is a great advantage to most people, and the beauty of this new plan which makes all this possible is that it costs so little. At 207 Wyoming avenue the Scranton Loan Guarantee company now has offices where anybody can get from $10 to $300 on household furniture. The loan may be had for one month or for a whole year, and those who apply will be told at first exactly what it would cost for any amount for any length of time. Naturally a great many would expect that they would be charged compound interest under these circumstances. But the manager of this new company is particularly anxious that the public should know that no compound interest is charged | street.

people of this city to be without ready are no charges to be paid in advance. and hopes that no one who needs a small temporary loan will hesitate to take advantage of the company's offer because of any fear that the rates might be too high. They have been nade so low that even the poorest can easily afford to get a loan.

The furniture is left with the borower, and there is absolutely no pubicity, for the company realizes that that is just what the public are most inxious to avoid.

As for the payments, each borrower s permitted to say just when it would be most convenient to pay. Most of those who have taken out loans, so far have preferred to pay in small month-ly instalments. Some pay by the week, out in no case is the borrower compelled to pay all at once.

It will be noticed at once how much petter it is to get a loan this way than by pawning things. With this plan you have the use of the goods while

The company intends to make loans anywhere within twenty-five miles of Scranton. All applications should be made to the Scranton Loan Guarantee Co., 207 Wyoming avenue, near Spruce

OBITUARY.

MRS. G. J. CHAMBERLAIN, wife of Dr. Chamberlain, died at her home on Blakely street, Dunmore, yesterday morning at 5 o'clock, after an illness of one week's duration. Her maiden name was Sarah Lewis, coming from one of the oldest families in Schuylkill county, where she was born in 1830. During the past thirty-one years she had been a resident of Dunmore, where by her many lovable traits of character and gentle, kindly nature she had endeared herself to a large circle of friends, who will sincerely mourn her loss. She was a devoted member of the Presbyterian church and for many years took a very active interest in its welfare, both spiritual and temporal.

In her last days of suffering she displayed the true Christian fortitude that comes from perfect faith in future reward for a life well spent. She is
