

NOR-EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Honesdale, June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. George B. Osborne are spending a week with friends at Starrucca, Pa.

It is said that a lady living at Newfoundland, Pa., has a lamp chimney that has been in constant use on a small lamp for thirty years.

Mr. Zenas H. Russell is home from the Hustleton, Pa., school for the summer vacation.

E. H. Hertz, traveling passenger agent of the Erie, spent Tuesday in Honesdale.

The baccalaureate sermon before the Honesdale high school graduates will be delivered in the Methodist church next Sunday evening by Rev. C. L. Percy, pastor of the Baptist church.

A little German band discoursed some excellent music on the streets of Honesdale today.

All who desire to witness the closing exercises of the "Deestrecht Skew" will go to the Baptist church Thursday evening.

Honesdale has a base ball team composed of boys who are ready to meet any team whose members are under sixteen years of age.

The eleventh annual convention of the Wayne county Christian Endeavor union will be held at Lako Ariel Wednesday, June 18. A very interesting programme has been prepared by the committee.

John C. Sterling, of Meshoppen, was a visitor in town on Tuesday.

The funeral of the late Aaron Walters took place at his late residence, Russell Hill on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Reynolds have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of West Pittston, this week, at their home on West Toga street.

William Johnson, of Lathrop, was calling on friends here on Tuesday.

Street Commissioner Wilmot E. Carpenter is busily engaged in repairing and raising the crossing at many of the street corners.

John P. Sierler is having a new porch built on the front of his residence on Bridge street.

Harry Welch, of Sayre, is spending the week with his father at this place.

The Lindsey Brothers, who are engaged in removing the roof and side boards from the bridge, are making considerable headway in the work.

The lumber is being hauled away and piled on a lot just east of town. It is expected that the state officials will take action next week towards preparing the plans for a new bridge across the river at this point.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Factoryville, June 11.—Miss Nina Stark is entertaining her friend, Miss Victoria Sardona, of Forty Fort.

be reopened next Sunday, June 15. Rev. Caterer, of Dalton, will conduct the services at 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. Mrs. Caterer will sing. Every one is cordially invited.

Mrs. Diana Ackerman and Mrs. Ira White, of Justus, spent Wednesday with the former's brother, James Brown.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Forest City, June 11.—A number of prominent strike leaders addressed the men in the opera house, Monday. It was not a public meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Van Wert, who have been here for some time, have returned to their former home in Cambria county.

Work has been begun on the foundation for the Presbyterian manse. It is expected that Contractor Wheeler will begin work on the superstructure next week.

Forest City has turned its attention to base ball, and Friday and Tuesday large crowds assembled on the field to witness games between the business men of the First and Second wards.

Friday's game resulted in a score of 15-0 in favor of the Second ward. On Tuesday four innings were played, on account of the rain, and the First ward was having the best of it. The score was 10-4.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Hophottom, Jan. 11.—Mr. C. Stone started for Harrisburg Monday night to attend the state convention as delegate. He was accompanied by Dr. A. J. Taylor and M. M. Finn.

Miss Polly Ralph and her sister, Mrs. Mahony, of Waverly, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tiffany and Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Bell are attending the state convention of Universalists at Reading this week.

Rev. L. L. Lewis, pastor of the Universalist church, has moved to his new office at 10 m. where a short service was held, after which they marched to the cemetery, headed by the Harford Cornet band, to decorate the graves of their deceased brothers. Then, after adjourning to the lodge rooms for dinner, promptly at 1.30 p. m. they marched to the Congregational church, where Rev. Edgar B. Gregory, cashier at the Harford bakery, West Pittston, was united in marriage this evening to Miss Elizabeth Helen Pettibone, of Wyoming.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, June 11.—The Live Oak lodge memorial day passed off very nicely. It was assisted by Canawacta lodge, of New Milford. The order met at the lodge room at 10 m., where a short service was held, after which they marched to the cemetery, headed by the Harford Cornet band, to decorate the graves of their deceased brothers. Then, after adjourning to the lodge rooms for dinner, promptly at 1.30 p. m. they marched to the Congregational church, where Rev. Edgar B. Gregory, cashier at the Harford bakery, West Pittston, was united in marriage this evening to Miss Elizabeth Helen Pettibone, of Wyoming.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Avoca, Yesterday was day of weddings in St. Mary's church. At 12 o'clock, just as the Angelus was pealing, the marriage of Miss Kate, daughter of Patrick Curley, of the West Side, and David McAndrew, of Cemetery street, were united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride and her attendant, Miss Margaret Tigue, were beautifully gowned in white swiss, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white tulle hats and carried bouquets. The groom was waited upon by her brother, Harry, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Tigue, of Forest City. Upon their return, they will reside on the West Side.

The second marriage was that of Michael Houston, of School street, and Maria Tigue, daughter of John Tigue, of Lincoln Hill. The bride and her sister, Miss Nellie, were gowned in white chiffon, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white chiffon hats and carried white carnations and maidenhair fern. The groom was waited upon by his brother, John. After the ceremony, supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Houston were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents. They will reside on Main street.

The third party to enter the church was Miss Bridget, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilroy, of Lincoln Hill, and Joseph Saunders, of South Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Mary Hines, of Pittston. Both were prettily designed gowns of white French muslin, with satin and lace trimmings. Their hats were black chiffon and the bouquets were white roses. The groom was waited upon by his brother, Harry. A noticeable feature of the party was their youthfulness, none of them having attained their majority. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will reside on Lincoln Hill.

Patrick Dougher, who was elected councilman in the Third ward last February, will, according to the rulings of court, be ousted out of his seat. Mr. Dougher lives just beyond the borders of the borough line, and is not entitled to the office. Considerable trouble has been caused since the election. The result is that there has been two factions in the council, and it is proposed by the second faction to re-nounce the organization.

Joseph Dommermuth left yesterday to accept a position at Johnstown. Mr. and Mrs. John and Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh have gone to Atlantic City.

Everything about the mines here is quiet, and a more law-abiding town does not exist in the anthracite fields and were it not for a few hideous enigmas strung on the back streets. This degrading work should be quelled at once.

Rev. A. J. Weisley, of Tyrone, is visiting friends in town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Dittston, June 11.—A continuation of the settling of the earth over the abandoned workings of No. 8 colliery which occurred at Hamtown last Monday morning took place last night and late yesterday afternoon. There were two settlements and the homes of Joseph Meyer and Thomas Morris were damaged. The earlier rays of light split the walls of the Morris home and disjoined the kitchen from the main house while the second although damaging the foundations swung the kitchen back into place again. The walls of the Meyer house were badly cracked.

The commencement exercises of the Pittston high school took place last night in Music Hall.

At the regular meeting of the Exeter borough school board this week all of last year's teachers were re-elected with but one exception. A tie is on for the room in No. 2 school house.

Archibald team on the latter's grounds on Tuesday afternoon, in an interesting contest, by the score of 7 to 1.

The Archibald mine local, No. 1649, United Mine Workers of America, will meet this afternoon in the Odd Fellows' hall.

Miss Julia Simons, of Carbondale, who has been the guest of the Davis family, on North Main street, has returned home.

Miss Amelia Caswell and Messrs. Bert Priestwood and Ernest Caswell, of this town, attended the anniversary reception of Robert Caswell, at South Scranton, on Tuesday evening.

On Monday evening will be held the drawing for the benefit of James Dornin, who is blind, the proceeds of the benefit to be used to give him a course of Bible study. The prize will be a cottage organ. Tickets, 25 cents.

The bridge spanning the Lackawanna river which is used to haul coal from the William A. Colliery and Carr's patch washery by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, is being replaced by a new iron structure.

Friday afternoon two very interesting and pleasant entertainments were held in the High school auditorium. One by the small children in the primary rooms and one by the pupils of the graded rooms. This marked the closing of another school year and the teachers may feel proud of the task they have just completed.

The game of ball which was to take place yesterday was postponed till today on account of the rain.

Miss Margaret Coolican was a visitor in Carbondale Tuesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Armelia Battenberg, of South Main street, a daughter.

Mr. C. W. Gerbig and J. B. Horne are fishing at Herrick Centre.

Mrs. Lucien Irwin was a visitor in town yesterday.

Miss Edna Kiles, of Scranton, is visiting relatives in town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, June 11.—The Live Oak lodge memorial day passed off very nicely. It was assisted by Canawacta lodge, of New Milford. The order met at the lodge room at 10 m., where a short service was held, after which they marched to the cemetery, headed by the Harford Cornet band, to decorate the graves of their deceased brothers. Then, after adjourning to the lodge rooms for dinner, promptly at 1.30 p. m. they marched to the Congregational church, where Rev. Edgar B. Gregory, cashier at the Harford bakery, West Pittston, was united in marriage this evening to Miss Elizabeth Helen Pettibone, of Wyoming.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Avoca, Yesterday was day of weddings in St. Mary's church. At 12 o'clock, just as the Angelus was pealing, the marriage of Miss Kate, daughter of Patrick Curley, of the West Side, and David McAndrew, of Cemetery street, were united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride and her attendant, Miss Margaret Tigue, were beautifully gowned in white swiss, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white tulle hats and carried bouquets. The groom was waited upon by her brother, Harry, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Tigue, of Forest City. Upon their return, they will reside on the West Side.

The second marriage was that of Michael Houston, of School street, and Maria Tigue, daughter of John Tigue, of Lincoln Hill. The bride and her sister, Miss Nellie, were gowned in white chiffon, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white chiffon hats and carried white carnations and maidenhair fern. The groom was waited upon by his brother, John. After the ceremony, supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Houston were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents. They will reside on Main street.

The third party to enter the church was Miss Bridget, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilroy, of Lincoln Hill, and Joseph Saunders, of South Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Mary Hines, of Pittston. Both were prettily designed gowns of white French muslin, with satin and lace trimmings. Their hats were black chiffon and the bouquets were white roses. The groom was waited upon by his brother, Harry. A noticeable feature of the party was their youthfulness, none of them having attained their majority. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will reside on Lincoln Hill.

Patrick Dougher, who was elected councilman in the Third ward last February, will, according to the rulings of court, be ousted out of his seat. Mr. Dougher lives just beyond the borders of the borough line, and is not entitled to the office. Considerable trouble has been caused since the election. The result is that there has been two factions in the council, and it is proposed by the second faction to re-nounce the organization.

Joseph Dommermuth left yesterday to accept a position at Johnstown. Mr. and Mrs. John and Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh have gone to Atlantic City.

Everything about the mines here is quiet, and a more law-abiding town does not exist in the anthracite fields and were it not for a few hideous enigmas strung on the back streets. This degrading work should be quelled at once.

Rev. A. J. Weisley, of Tyrone, is visiting friends in town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Dittston, June 11.—A continuation of the settling of the earth over the abandoned workings of No. 8 colliery which occurred at Hamtown last Monday morning took place last night and late yesterday afternoon. There were two settlements and the homes of Joseph Meyer and Thomas Morris were damaged. The earlier rays of light split the walls of the Morris home and disjoined the kitchen from the main house while the second although damaging the foundations swung the kitchen back into place again. The walls of the Meyer house were badly cracked.

RELIEF AT HAND.

Scores of Scranton People Finding It Out.

Relief is at hand in Scranton. For scores of rheumatic sufferers, For hundreds of bad backs, For urinary disorders—diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills relieve and cure. Are endorsed by Scranton citizens.

Mr. Isaac Smith of 1160 Sadie Place, Hyde Park, employed by the D. L. & W. at the Archbald mines as a miner says: "I had a dull pain in the small of my back. If I turned about quickly a stitch-like pain caught me across my loins. In looking over the paper I had my attention called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I read a statement of a person living in Scranton who was troubled just as I was. I got a box of them at Matthews' Bros' drug store, and they proved to be just what I needed, and before I had taken the whole box the pain left me, and I have been free from it ever since."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name "Doan's" and take no substitute.

Archibald team on the latter's grounds on Tuesday afternoon, in an interesting contest, by the score of 7 to 1.

The Archibald mine local, No. 1649, United Mine Workers of America, will meet this afternoon in the Odd Fellows' hall.

Miss Julia Simons, of Carbondale, who has been the guest of the Davis family, on North Main street, has returned home.

Miss Amelia Caswell and Messrs. Bert Priestwood and Ernest Caswell, of this town, attended the anniversary reception of Robert Caswell, at South Scranton, on Tuesday evening.

On Monday evening will be held the drawing for the benefit of James Dornin, who is blind, the proceeds of the benefit to be used to give him a course of Bible study. The prize will be a cottage organ. Tickets, 25 cents.

The bridge spanning the Lackawanna river which is used to haul coal from the William A. Colliery and Carr's patch washery by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, is being replaced by a new iron structure.

Friday afternoon two very interesting and pleasant entertainments were held in the High school auditorium. One by the small children in the primary rooms and one by the pupils of the graded rooms. This marked the closing of another school year and the teachers may feel proud of the task they have just completed.

The game of ball which was to take place yesterday was postponed till today on account of the rain.

Miss Margaret Coolican was a visitor in Carbondale Tuesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Armelia Battenberg, of South Main street, a daughter.

Mr. C. W. Gerbig and J. B. Horne are fishing at Herrick Centre.

Mrs. Lucien Irwin was a visitor in town yesterday.

Miss Edna Kiles, of Scranton, is visiting relatives in town.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, June 11.—The Live Oak lodge memorial day passed off very nicely. It was assisted by Canawacta lodge, of New Milford. The order met at the lodge room at 10 m., where a short service was held, after which they marched to the cemetery, headed by the Harford Cornet band, to decorate the graves of their deceased brothers. Then, after adjourning to the lodge rooms for dinner, promptly at 1.30 p. m. they marched to the Congregational church, where Rev. Edgar B. Gregory, cashier at the Harford bakery, West Pittston, was united in marriage this evening to Miss Elizabeth Helen Pettibone, of Wyoming.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Avoca, Yesterday was day of weddings in St. Mary's church. At 12 o'clock, just as the Angelus was pealing, the marriage of Miss Kate, daughter of Patrick Curley, of the West Side, and David McAndrew, of Cemetery street, were united in marriage by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride and her attendant, Miss Margaret Tigue, were beautifully gowned in white swiss, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white tulle hats and carried bouquets. The groom was waited upon by her brother, Harry, and the bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Tigue, of Forest City. Upon their return, they will reside on the West Side.

The second marriage was that of Michael Houston, of School street, and Maria Tigue, daughter of John Tigue, of Lincoln Hill. The bride and her sister, Miss Nellie, were gowned in white chiffon, with lace and satin trimmings. Both wore white chiffon hats and carried white carnations and maidenhair fern. The groom was waited upon by his brother, John. After the ceremony, supper was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Houston were the recipients of many useful and handsome presents. They will reside on Main street.

The third party to enter the church was Miss Bridget, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilroy, of Lincoln Hill, and Joseph Saunders, of South Main street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. F. Crane. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Mary Hines, of Pittston. Both were prettily designed gowns of white French muslin, with satin and lace trimmings. Their hats were black chiffon and the bouquets were white roses. The groom was waited upon by his brother, Harry. A noticeable feature of the party was their youthfulness, none of them having attained their majority. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the friends at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will reside on Lincoln Hill.

Patrick Dougher, who was elected councilman in the Third ward last February, will, according to the rulings of court, be ousted out of his seat. Mr. Dougher lives just beyond the borders of the borough line, and is not entitled to the office. Considerable trouble has been caused since the election. The result is that there has been two factions in the council, and it is proposed by the second faction to re-nounce the organization.

Joseph Dommermuth left yesterday to accept a position at Johnstown. Mr. and Mrs. John and Mr. and Mrs. James Cavanaugh have gone to Atlantic City.

Everything about the mines here is quiet, and a more law-abiding town does not exist in the anthracite fields and were it not for a few hideous enigmas strung on the back streets. This degrading work should be quelled at once.

THE TRIBUNE'S "WANT" DIRECTORY.

4 Lines 10 Cents

More Than Four Lines, 3 Cents for Each Extra Line.

SITUATIONS WANTED FREE.

3 Insertions 25 Cents

More Than Four Lines, 6 Cents for Each Extra Line.

For Rent. FOR RENT—Furnished flat, four rooms, splendidly located; suitable for house-keeping for two people. Address T. W. E. in this office.

If you have any property to rent and can't rent them call and see J. C. Zurlind, 517 Lackawanna avenue.

BARN FOR RENT—412 April 1st, three box and three single stalls and wash rack, rent $24 Madison avenue. Inquiries at 24 Madison avenue.

Furnished Rooms for Rent. FOR RENT—One furnished room, with improvements; also one on third floor, cheap. 627 Adams avenue.

FURNISHED ROOMS for rent, modern improvements; private family gentlemen preferred, at 37 Adams avenue.

FOR RENT—Furnished room; heat and bath, 625 Linden street.

FURNISHED ROOMS FOR RENT, with heat and bath, gentlemen preferred, at 529 Adams avenue.

For Sale. FOR SALE—One new factory wagon, one one-gallon ice cream freezer. J. M. Purdy, Dalton, Pa.

MILLS FOR SALE—The Uniondale Flour and Feed Mill, also Planing Mill and Lumber Yard, located late S. S. Hubbard. The feed mill is a large three-story building, with good bin capacity, and is equipped with new up-to-date machinery, capable of doing all kinds of custom grinding. For particulars, inquire of W. Sumner, guardian, Uniondale, Pa., on or before June 23, 1902.

Real Estate. FOR SALE—Elegant sites for homes in Upper Green Ridge; choice neighborhood; most desirable locality for home building. J. A. Marvino, 1236 Sanderson avenue.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE RAILROADS. A Huge Success. The hourly trains between New York and Philadelphia via the New Jersey Central have not only proven a great success, but have met the demands of the traveling public in every instance.

Hourly trains were indeed an up-to-date move, and when the schedule is first started, few and the time so convenient to remember, (a train every hour and on the hour) there is no wonder at the hit they made. The New Jersey Central is trap rock ballasted, the rails are new and heavy, the trains are the latest models, lighted by gas, the aisles carpeted, the attendants courteous, hard coal is used exclusively, hence no dust, cinders or smoke. Every Philadelphia train has a modern Pullman attached, and such conveniences served to make the New Jersey Central the model railroad of the world.

If you want finer tables or other information, write to C. M. Burt, general passenger agent, New York.

A Summer-Like Reminder. The New Jersey coast is one of the most popular of summer abiding places and its wide-spread favor is greatly enhanced by the exceptional train service and accommodations provided by the New Jersey Central. Its lines reach Seabright, Monmouth, Normanville, Red Bank, Long Branch, West End, Eliberon, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Avon, Spring Lake, Belmar, Beach Haven, Atlantic City, Ocean City and Cape May, and each of these places has an admirable hotel and boarding houses. The New Jersey Central has prepared a hotel book, which gives complete information regarding the hotels on its lines and this booklet is sent free upon application to general passenger agent, New Jersey Central, New York.

National Delegation Association, Minneapolis, Minn., July 7th-11th. For the above occasion the Lackawanna Railroad will sell special excursion tickets to Minneapolis, good July 4th, 5th, and 6th, at $35.50 for round trip, and to be available for return passage leaving Minneapolis not earlier than July 8th, or later than July 14th, except by departing tickets with Joint Agent at Minneapolis not later than July 14th, and upon payment of a fee of 50 cents at the time of deposit, an extension of the limit of leaving Minneapolis to and including Sept. 1.

Delegates will please bear in mind the fact that by leaving Scranton on the Lackawanna Railroad, only one change of cars, Chicago, is necessary. A popular time is leaving Scranton at 6:50 p. m., arriving Minneapolis 7:45 the second morning.

Low Rate of Fare to Denver, Colorado. On account of the Sunday School International association triennial convention to be held at Denver, Col., June 25 to July 2, special round-trip first-class tickets may be purchased of the Lackawanna railroad ticket office at one-way fare for the round trip, $45.25. Tickets will be sold and good going June 21, 22, 23 and 24.

On the return trip, the payment of 25 cents to the joint agent, same will be validated for return passage to August 31, 1902.

First Church Christ Scientist, Boston, Mass., June 15-18. On account of the above meeting, ticket agents of the Lackawanna Railroad will sell special excursion tickets to Boston at rate of one way fare, plus $1.00, for the round trip. Dates of sale going, June 12, 13, 14, 15 and 17, return limit to leave Boston not later than June 25.

The New Jersey Central has on sale at its stations reduced rate tickets to Boston for the meeting of the First Church of Christ Scientists, to be held June 12 to 17, tickets good returning to and including June 15. Boston is the Cradle of Liberty and it teems with revolutionary interests. Its suburbs are delightful and one who takes advantage of this opportunity will be more than repaid.

PECKVILLE. The funeral of the late Sidney Davis, of Grassy, will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services will be held at the Peckville Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. E. Gendall officiating. Interment in Prospect cemetery. All members of Warren's tribe, No. 211, Improved Order of Red Men, are requested to meet at the men's house at

Branch WANT OFFICES.

Want Advertisements Will Be Received at Any of the Following Drug Stores Until 10 P. M.

Central City—ALBERT SCHULTZ, corner Mulberry street and Third avenue. GUSTAV PICHEL, 650 Adams avenue.

West Side—GEO. W. JENKINS, 164 South Main avenue.

South Scranton—FRED L. TERPPE, 723 Cedar avenue.

North Scranton—GEO. W. DAVIS, corner North Main avenue and Market street.

Green Ridge—CHARLES P. JONES, 1537 Dick-son street. F. J. JOHNS, 929 Green Ridge street. C. ORENZ, corner Washington and Marion street.

Petersburg—W. H. KNEFFEL, 1017 Irving avenue.

Dunmore—J. G. BONE & SON.

Help Wanted—Male. WANTED—A tutor in mathematics. Address B. J. C., 62 Madison avenue.

WANTED—Bricklayers at Butler, New Jersey, on and after June 15. Good wages will be paid good men. O'Donnell & McManiman, Contractors.

MEN, NOT under 25 years, to call on old and new customers. No delinquent position. Remained to the night party. Pay weekly. Glen Brothers, Rochester, N. Y.

Help Wanted—Female. WANTED—Good German girl for general housework; 4 in family; references. Wilson, Tribune.

CUSTOM SHIRT OPERATORS wanted at once. Rooms 4 and 46 Burr building. H. W. Sykes & Co.

Recruits Wanted. WANTED FOR U. S. ARMY—Able-bodied unmarried men between ages of 21 and 35; citizens of United States, of good character and temperate habits, who can speak, read and write English. For information apply to Recruiting Officer, No. 123 Broadway avenue, Scranton, Pa.

Situations Wanted. SITUATION WANTED by a young lady to do general housework. Address Kate Berry, rear 321 Birch street.

SITUATION WANTED—By a woman to go out washing or work by the day. 153 Broad street, Dunmore.

SITUATION WANTED—By a lady to take care of the sick and to do general housework. Can give the best reference. Address G. E., Tribune office.

SITUATION WANTED—By a young girl at any kind of work to go out of town. Address, Mary O'Hara, 481 Theodore street.

Wanted. WANTED—Stock to pasture, special pasture for horses. C. E. Green, Dalton, Pa.

Business Opportunity. COUNTRY hardware, tin and plumbing business for sale. Has been in operation 25 years; about $3,000. Rare chance. Hawley & Butler, Springfield, Mass.

STOCK AND WHEAT TRADERS without delay. Write for our special market letter. Free on application. E. H. Hilbard & Co., members N. Y. Consolidated and Stock Exchange, 44 and 46 Broadway, New York. Established 1861. Long Distance Phone 338 Broad.

Money to Loan. ANY AMOUNT OF MONEY TO LOAN—Quick, straight loans on Building and Loan. 4% from 4 to 6 per cent. Call on N. W. Walker, 314-32 Colliery building.

Wanted—To Rent. WANTED—Furnished house of four or five rooms for housekeeping. Address A. G. E., Tribune office.

Board and Rooms. BOARDERS—Double parlors, two large front rooms, other nice rooms, all conveniences; table board, 235 Jefferson avenue.

VERY DESIRABLE suite of rooms with first class table board, can be obtained at 333 Jefferson avenue.

Summer Board. SUMMER BOARD—Rooms re-leased on account of illness in family; by one engaged for July and August. Address, with reference, Bliss Villa, Waverly, Pa.

Lost—Strayed—Stolen. LOST—Between La Plume and Lake Sheridan, June 3rd, lady's coat; light brown in color. Finder please return to Mrs. S. W. Spencer, Fleetville, Pa.

LOST—A ladies' gold watch; a liberal reward will be given if returned to Hotel Terrace.

Rheumatism. RHEUMATISM—All parties that wish can be speedily and permanently cured of all varieties of Rheumatism by a vegetable compound; cures guaranteed. Inquire at address of J. E. Taylor, Scranton.

Miscellaneous. SHIRTS CUT and made to order. Rooms 44 and 46 Burr building. H. W. Sykes & Co.

SEALED PROPOSALS. NOTICE—Sealed proposals will be received by the County of Lackawanna for repairs to a twenty-foot span stone arch bridge in North Abington township near the house of Jere. B. Snidley until 12 o'clock noon on Saturday, June 11, 1