SECOND ARREST IN QUINN CASE. BERT ANDERSON TAKEN INTO CUSTODY. Lives Near Scene of Murder and Was a Former Suitor of Mary Quinn and Quarrelled with Her Recently—Came Home Through Field About Time of Murder and Apparently Sought to Avoid Being Seen—Denies Knowledge of Affair and Keeps His Nerve.

Bert Anderson, of 904 Keyser avenue, was arrested at an early hour yesterday morning by the police on suspicion of being the murderer of Mary Quinn. The police admit that they have no very direct evidence against him, but say there are several things which will require considerable explaining to settle satisfactorily.

Anderson is a tall, slim man, 29 years old, employed as a stone mason by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company. He lives with his mother and sister next door to the saloon of John Quinn, the murdered girl's brother, and within a short distance of the Quinn home.

MISS HARPUR GOES UP TWO. REGAINS LOST GROUND IN THE EDUCATIONAL CONTEST. Other Leaders Remain Unchanged. Kipp Has Good Start for First June Prize—Kellerman, Thompson, Shepherd and Freedman Hold Second, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth Places, Respectively, in Both Tables—Nineteen More Weeks of the Contest.

Standing of Contestants. 1. Charles Burns, Vandling, 300. 2. A. J. Kellerman, Scranton, 289. 3. Wm. T. S. Rodriguez, Scranton, 241. 4. Herbert Thompson, Carbondale, 160. 5. Maxwell Shepherd, Carbondale, 131. 6. Albert Freedman, Bellevue, 118. 7. Fred Gunster, Green Ridge, 117. 8. Oscar H. Kipp, Elmhurst, 102. 9. Wm. Sherwood, Hartford, 69. 10. Harry Madden, Scranton, 58. 11. J. A. Haverstrite, Moscow, 51. 12. L. E. Stanton, Scranton, 49. 13. Homer Kregg, Hyde Park, 48. 14. Grant M. Decker, Hallstead, 37. 15. William Cooper, Priceburg, 34. 16. Lee Culver, Springville, 33. 17. Miss Beatrice Harpur, Thompson, 31. 18. Walter Hallstead, Scranton, 27. 19. Harry Danvers, Providence, 25. 20. Louis McCusker, Park Place, 20. 21. C. J. Clark, Peckville, 18. 22. Frank B. McCreary, Hallstead, 18. 23. Hugh Johnson, Forest City, 15. 24. John Mackie, Providence, 15. 25. Thomas Dempsey, Olyphant, 13. 26. Chas. W. Dorsey, Scranton, 13. 27. Miss Edna Coleman, Scranton, 12. 28. Don C. Caswell, Scranton, 8. 29. Walter Ellis, Hyde Park, 8. 30. Emanuel Bucci, Scranton, 7. 31. Chas. O'Boyle, Scranton, 5. 32. Louis Gere, Brookly, 5. 33. Miss Nellie Avery, Forest City, 4.

Miss Beatrice Harpur, of Thompson, made a decided advance in The Tribune's Educational Contest on Saturday, passing Walter Hallstead, of Scranton, and Harry Danvers, of Providence, and taking seventh place, thus more than regaining lost ground. Miss Harpur is now just half way up the list, with good prospects of going higher. Seven points more would have placed her in fourth place this morning. There were no other changes among the leaders, although Kellerman and Stanton each added points to their scores.

In the table showing the leading contestants for June, Kipp has a good start for the first prize, although he is still in eighth position in the big table. A peculiar feature of this table is that the same contestants which hold second, fourth, fifth and sixth positions in the table also hold the same positions in the larger one, while the contestants in first and third positions in the big table do not appear at all among the six leaders for June.

There are now just seven weeks remaining of the contest and there is still plenty of room for beginners. Three yearly subscribers, counting thirty-six points, would place a new contestant more than half way up the table, and in line for one of the most valuable scholarships. The most successful contestants during the last two years did not start until the contests were much nearer completion. Surely there are plenty of young people in Northampton county who have at least three friends who would subscribe for a year to give them such a good start in this great contest.

Leading Contestants for June. First Prize—$10 in Gold. Second Prize—$5 in Gold. 1. Oscar H. Kipp.....69. 2. A. J. Kellerman.....54. 3. Fred K. Gunster.....51. 4. Herbert Thompson.....41. 5. Maxwell Shepherd.....38. 6. Albert Freedman.....30.
