NEWS NOTES.

It is rumored that the Erie will a once reduce the number of its train crews. Retrenchment will be the order of the day until the coal miners' strike is settled.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Michael J. Hoban, the Scranton cathedral, today confirmed a large number of children in St. John's Catholic church. The services were largely attended and of a deeply interesting nature. Susquehanna will celebrate the gl rious Fourth, under the auspices of the Hook and Chemical company. The programme will include a parade of the fire department, two games of ball between the Susquehanna team and a Lackawanna county club, and a picnic The school directors have decided not to elect a principal of the schools until more candidates materialize. Follow ing are the aspirants up to date: Prof. L. L. Twilley, the present encumbent; Principal C. L. Thorpe, of the Forest City schools; Principal W. M. Dennison, of the Lanesboro schools. The salary is $1,200 per annum, and nine
