PIANO-FORTE RECITAL.

Given by Pupils of Hayden Evans in Guernsey Hall.

A very creditable piano forte recital was given last night in Guernsey hall by the pupils of Hayden Evans, assisted by Mrs. Lizzie Hughes-Burdage, soprano; Miss Via Jones, contralto and Frank Doyle, violinist. The latter is a talented pupil of Miss Nellie Hollister. Mrs. Burdage sang Caravan's "The Better Land," and Miss Jones sang "Hope On." These are the selections the rendition of which won them prizes at the recent big eisteddfod. They also sang Arthur's beautiful song, "Harp of the Winds."

The playing of the pupils especially that of the younger ones, revealed Mr. Evans' thorough abilities as a teacher. Those who assisted in the programme were: Lillian and Katherine Burr, Minnie Herberts, Laura Egan, Jessie Eynon, Frances Guyer, Harriet Jackson, Eva Price, Arthur Vail and A. Gross.

Opposition to Butler.

Weddings

German Catholic church at 8 o'clock yesterday morning by Rev. Frederick A. Fricker. The church was prettily decorated for the event.

The bridesmaids were Frances Fasold, a niece of the groom, and Tillie Smith, a sister of the bride. The groomsmen were August Smith, a brother of the bride, and Gus Geiger, a brother of the groom.

The bride wore a cream silk dress, draped with silk mull and carried a white prayer book. The bridesmaids carried pink roses. Following the wedding and reception, a wedding dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Geiger left for New York. Upon their return they will reside in a newly furnished home at 312 South Ninth street.

M'KEAGE-WILLIAMS.

A very simple, but pretty wedding occurred at the Washburn street Presbyterian church yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, when Dr. Robert Burns McKeage and Miss Mary Ella Williams, both of North Main avenue, were happily united by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt, D. D.

The wedding march was played by the bridegroom, Miss George Boyle, of Pittston, who wore a gown of white chiffon, over white taffeta and carried a bouquet of Marcella Niel roses. The groom was attended by Rupert Thomas. The ushers were: William J. Hanaway, William Callahan and John Boyle, of Pittston.

After the ceremony an elaborate wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride and a reception followed. The couple left at 11 o'clock for Pittsburg, where they will spend their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents. They will also visit Cleveland, O., before their return to this city. They will be at home in July at the Dunmore on Linden street.

The bridegroom was a valued employee of the International Text Book company, having held a responsible position in the mechanical department. She is possessed of many attainments, being an elocutionist of rare ability and a musician. Her husband is a live progressive young man employed in the International Text Book company.

NEWCOMB-HINMAN.

The wedding of Charles W. Newcomb, of 1412 Fordham street, and Miss Grace Hinman was solemnized at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. H. C. Hinman, 424 Tenth street, in the presence of many friends and relatives.

The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. A. W. Cooper of Montrose, a former pastor of the Hampton street Methodist Episcopal church. The couple were attended by two little flower girls, Nellie Reichard and Mary Lord, cousins of the bride, and J. C. Hinman, of Dunmore.

The church was beautifully adorned with palms and plants. The bridal party entered the church as the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Elizabeth Owens, pealed forth. The bride was attended by Miss Mary Buckley and bridesmaid Miss Emma Silsby maid of honor, while the groom was attended by Roy Brinck.

The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of white chiffon, trimmed with Parisian lace and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. Her attendants were similarly attired. Mr. and Mrs. Holly were recipients of many useful and costly presents.

At the marriage, the bridal party was driven to the bride's home, where a wedding repast was served. The newly married couple will take up their residence in a beautifully furnished home at 1309 Short street.

FARRY-M'CORMICK.

In Holy Trinity church, North Scranton, yesterday, Miss Bridget McNamee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McNamee, was joined in wedlock with Edward Farry, of Court street. The ceremony was performed at 5:30 by the pastor, Rev. Albert Hatcher Smith. The church was decorated with the palms and plants of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Zerbe. The church was beautified with the church of the bride, and the bride presided at the piano.

The ceremony was performed in the front parlor, which was decorated with palm trees and flags. The bride wore a becoming gown of navy blue cloth, trimmed with cream silk and applique bands. The reception and wedding supper followed and Mr. and Mrs. Newcomb left at 1:15 for Elmira, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Canada, and will be at home to their friends after July 1 at 424 Tenth street.

Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Ayres and children, of Falls; Mr. and Mrs. John Shemrock and child, of Falls; Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister and children, of West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Courtright, Mrs. Jenkins Evans and son, William C. Courtright, and Miss Theta Adams, of Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bligh, of Dunmore; Mrs. Stephen Gummow, of Aldenville; Miss Clara Wilmuth, of Aldenville; Miss Lola Mekens, of Springfield; Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Coopertown, of Montrose; Miss Tessie Snover, of Elmira; Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Hinkley, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Newcomb, of Nicholson.

RIEHL-FRITZ.

Fred Riehl, of 1016 Jackson street, a carpenter in the D. L. & W. shops, and Miss Ruth Fritz, of 1020 Jackson street, were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Fritz. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bohlin, pastor of the German Methodist Episcopal church.

The bride was given away by her brother, George Fritz, of New York. Two little nieces of the bride, Esther and Cora Smith, acted as flower girls, and the wedding march was played by Miss Augusta Fritz, also a niece of the bride. The house was decorated with laurels and palms, and the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends.

A reception and supper was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Schmidt, a few doors away, where the festivities were continued until midnight, when Mr. and Mrs. Riehl left on a wedding trip. On their return they will reside on Jackson street.

FINNEY-M'CARTHY.

James Finney, of Sixteenth street, and Miss Eleanor McCarthy, of Washington street, were married at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning at St. Patrick's Catholic church by Rev. J. Dunn, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives.

They were attended by Miss Anna McCarthy, a sister of the bride, and Timothy McCarthy. The bride wore a gown of mousseline de sole over white silk and carried bridal roses. Her sister was dressed in Persian lawn, and Miss Emma Rempe, of Eynon street, was gowned in Persian cloth satin. William Smith, a life long friend of the young couple, acted as best man.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the happy couple were warmly congratulated
