ACCUSED OF STABBING A WOMAN

George Banker Charged with Slashing Mrs. Sarah Stiles with a Razor During a Dispute-Banker Ar-

George Banker, of Belmont street, was arrested last night and placed in the city jall on the charge of cutting with a razor, Mrs. Sarah Stiles, with whom he boarded.

The arrest was made by Patrolman Carden, on Dundaff street, as Banker was coming from visiting his mother, who is dangerously sick.

The alleged circumstances of the case are that Banker got into a dispute with Mrs. Stiles. This led to a quarrel, ending in the accused pulling a razor and cutting the Stiles woman in four places, the deepest wound being just under the chin. The wounds are of no great consequence, as Mrs. Stiles was able to be out last night.

Banker, in his cell last night, disavowed any connection with a cutting affray. He had no knowledge of having used a razer on Mrs. Stiles or even having had a quarrel. He admitted be had been drinking, though not heavily. He will be arraigned this morning.

COUNCILS WILL ACT.

Joint Meeting Tonight to Deal with the Smallpox Situation - No Change in Patients.

As indicated in The Tribune yesterlay, there will be a special joint meeting of councils this evening.

The meeting has been called by Mayor O'Neill for the purpose of dealing with the smalipox situation. All that requires attention will be given at this meeting.

The probable action of councils will be the appointment of a committee by the chairman of the joint session, who will act with Sanitary Policeman Moffitt in the same capacity if possible as the Board of Health.

There were no developments yesterday in the two cases at the Thompson home. The older brother, the first patient, is quite comfortable and continues progress towards recovery. The brother who is seriously sick shows no change. The other members continue jured with pernicious matter written by

WHO RENTED THE ROOM?

Question That Stirred Common Council at Last Night's Meeting.

The chief topic at last night's meeting of common council was to discover who rented the basement of the city building without the knowledge or the sanction of the building committee.

the basement had been rented to the Pennsylvania Telephone company, at a rental of $2.50 per month. In order to accommodate the new tenant, a partition was to be built, or had been built by the city at a cost of $15 or thereabouts. Mr. Whitfield said that four of and going out to enjoy the day. But, let the six members of the joint building | me ask, how many of those who use this committee declared they knew nothing about the renting of the cellar. The matter was brought up, Mr. Whitfield said, because he "wanted councils to know how things were being run."

DANGER SIGNALS.

No engineer would be mad enough to run by the flag which signaled danger. What the danger was he might not under-stand, but he would take no chances. It is different with the average man or woman. They attempt constantly to run by the danger signals of Nature and that Nature and that attempt costs thousands of lives every year. When the specific becomes irregular or entitlely gives out, when sleep is troubled and broken, when there is a loss of flesh, when there is a constant feelthere is a constant feel-ang of dullness and lanquor, Nature is hoisting the danger signal. The stomach and its allied organs are failing in their work and the body is losing the nutrition on which its strength depends.

Such a condition calls for the prompt use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures dis-other organs of digestion and nutrition, purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the body with sound, solid flesh.

Gardner, Leon Bly, of this city and

Clifford Walker of Syracuse, The services were held at twilight on Sunday at the home of Dr. C. T. Meaker, uncle of the deceased. Rev. A. F. Chaffee officiated, Rev. Charles Lee also aking part in the services. The faculty and classes of '01 and '02 of the High chool were present. A quartette composed of W. D. Evans, tenor; Mrs. H. F. Clark, soprano; Miss Jennie Butler, ito and H. F. Clark, bass, sang "Abide With Me," and "He's Gone."

The floral offerings were profuse. The lass of '01's remembrance was a crescent worked in the class colors. The S. S. S. fraternity of the High school presented a lyre with one broken string and this year's class a handsome wreath. There were other pretty designs, the gifts of dear friends.

THE SUNDAY SHEET.

The Most Pernicious of Sabbath Evils, Says Rev. Dr. Whalen, in

Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen, in his disussion of the observance of the Sabbath, the topic of Sunday night's scrmon, had this to say about Sunday

There are so many pernicious ways of Sunday pleasure now that one must be very watchful. There are the gathering of great masses on picule grounds, Sun-day excursions, open theaters, the selling of fiquor—a multitude of things that do not benefit physically, intellectually nor morally. But I believe the most per-nicious thing today, one which is sapping religion from the bearts of a great mass of the people, is the Sunday sheet found in only too many homes. There are men nd women in this city who are positively and women in this city who are positively slaves to the Sunday sheet. There are men who get up bright and carly to get the Sunday paper. You may see them pouring over it at 7 o'clock in the morning and yet at noon, and pass by their homes at 4 o'clock and still you will find them absorbed in the Sunday paperssheets filled with filth and wickedness that are poured into your homes on Sunday morning. It is no mystery that we believe they are suppling the spiritual life of every man and woman that reads.

* * * Is it strange in view of these facts that the Christian spirit of our people is being weakened day by day? Above all let your goal be fed with a stranger. let your soul be fed with something written by the inspired pen of Paul, Mathew. Luke, Mark, St. John or some other moral writer. Do not let your soul be inhand of unknown disreputables and which feeds only the baser things in our nature. The spiritual life of our city will rise higher and higher when our people give to the word of God half as much as they do to the pernicious stuff hawked about our streets on Sunday morning. Speaking of Sunday pleasures, Dr Whalen said:

Another thing in which there is great description of the Sabbath is the mat-ter of Sunday pleasure. Few questions are now perplexing to ministers. If I were It was Mr. Whitfield who asked the asked what pleasures one is allowed to question. He stated that a portion of indulge in without breaking the Sabbath law I would answer that a man should indulge in no pleasure which disturbs his conscience. He should indulge in no pleasure which causes him to ask if it is right or wrong. It may be argued that when a man is shut up all week what harm is there in his taking his family argument spend the Sabbath in that way The hours of labor are growing less in almost every line of business. There is a vast amount of time at the disposal of ers never knew, with the multiplied holidays, Saturday balf holidays and short hours there is an abundant opportunity for men to have sultable and sufficient recreation for themselves and their fami-lies. If the necessity for more time exists a man might better take a day from himself than from God. He might bet-ter take one out of the six days of labor than to take the one set aside for the upbuilding of his spiritual being.

There are ways of harmless Sunday re-creation but no man should interfere with his duty to God. A Christian can so combine recreation and works of mercy as to find favor with God. If he wants to get out into the country, why not organize a Sunday school there. It may be composed of a few families only, but it would be doing the work of the Master and yet give the wished for recreation. How many places there are about the city where Sunday schools could be opened during the summer. But seeking pleasure on Sunday merely for pleasure's sake is undoubtedly contrary to God's command. Can pleasure not be found in God's work? There are indeed, a multi-tude of ways in which recreation and good work can be linked.

BIGGEST BASS OF SEASON.

Three Pounder Landed by Mrs. Linderman of Archbald at Poyntelle.

The biggest catch of black bass at Poyntelle this year, where some big felows have been decoyed during the past veek, since the season opened, was nade yesterday, when a game lively ne was pulled into a boat und made delectable meal in the evening. The pass was a fine specimen and weighed three pounds. The one that came next to this was caught last week and veighed 21/2 pounds.

The most interesting part of yesterday's prize catch was that it was the trophy of a fisherman, Mrs. H. C. Linderman, of Archbald. Gallantry would suggest that it be said that it was due to the circumstance that there was a fair one wielding the rod that big Mr. Fish decided to leave home, and be-come a willing captive. At any rate Mrs. Linderman acquitted herself as a true disciple of Isaac Walton and opened the eyes of the guests at the Poyntelle house as she came up the hotel walk proudly displaying the big bass. This big catch was the chief topic of discussion about the hotel and lake during the day.

A DAY AT LAKE ARIEL.

A BLESSED WORK.

W. C. T. U. Women Brighten Many Places Yesterday with Beautiful Flowers.

There is scarcely anything more cheering to the sick than the radiance and glory of a boquet of roses snatched from nature's paradise that blesses up during the month of June. Through the agency of the thoughtful members of the flower mission of the Women's Christian Temperance union many a one in Carbondale was cheered yesterday in this manner. Many a one, who has been shut in since nature in all the glory of these summer days has been cheering and brightening us, was given "a glimpse of June day beauties and glories by having a beautiful bouquet of bright roses left beside him by one of the women devoted to this blessed work. The unfortunate sick who shared in this kind, thoughtful work were not lacking in appreciation, meet ing the acts of the women with prayers of gratitude,

After the visit among the sick, there were a few bouquets left. These were distributed among those who have aided in the work of the women. Among the places thus remembered was The Tribune office, where a collection of beautiful roses of deep red, laden with sweetest fragrance, were deposited on the manager's desk as a token of appre ciation of what service The Tribune's were in disseminating information about the work of the flower

BOOKING GOOD SHOWS.

Manager D. P. Byrne Securing Attractions-Strike Interferes Some-

Manager Dan P. Byrne, of the Grand, who has been in New York city for about two weeks looking after attractions for next season, is meeting with good results, considering that the strike situation has fearfully hampered the bookings, causing managers to halt about closing contracts.

Among the shows which Manager Byrne has contracted for the coming season are Mildred Holland, who will be here in her new play, "The Prince and the Lily," which will be presented in December next, about the same date as last year. "Floradora," the great musical hit of last season, will be heard by the patrons of the Grand, though it is an exceptionally high priced attraction. "Nathan Hale," Clyde Fitch's story of the great revolutionary hero, which was one of the most enjoyable of last year's plays, will be seen again next

THE STRIPLINGS AGAIN.

This Time They're Ambitious and Address the Cycle Club.

Flushed with victory, the Curbstone Striplings are reaching out for mightier things than conquering such as the Swiftwinds. They are after all the glory that's in sight and some that's hidden. With this in mind, and firmly fixed there, with the searchlight of ambition turned on to keep it bright, they have lighted on the Cycle club as the easiest possible chance of winning the aforesaid giory. The Strip-lings want to play the Cycle men; they want to defeat them, and they are practicing right smart to do it, as Detective Lafe Smith would say. Devanney and Loftus are the Striplings' battery, which means that there will be something doing in the pitching and catching department and nothing doing among the Cycle club batters.

GRADUATES ENTERTAINED. Class of '02 Guests at Dance Given by Junior Class.

Following a pleasing custom, which has become an established law, as it were, the junior class of the Carbon dale High school last night entertained the members of the class of '02 at a dance in the Burke building.

It was a delightful affair, and was a happy close of the school days here of this year's graduates. A big factor in the evening's thorough enjoyment was the music which was provided by the Mozart orchestra.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

A number of untrue reports have been a circulation within the past few days to the effect that the small-pex was spread-ing which has called forth the following from the secretary of the board of health: To the Public: "There is not, nor has there been (to my knowledge) but one case of small-pox in Jermyn during the present outbreak, that being the case of Archie Lewis, of Ashland, as before reported. Should other cases develop the public will be immediately informed by the board of health official in charge, through the public print, of the fact. Stories circulated by irreonsible or malicious persons that this or that person has been taken with the disease should not be believed by any one."
