Closing Exercises of St. Mary's German Catholic School-James Connell Lodge Anniversary.

The entertainment by the children of St. Mary's Parochial schools, which vas given in St. Mary's hall last evening, was excellent in every respect, and reflects much credit on the sisters and Professors Ackerman and Mengelkamp.

The hall, which wsa crowded to the doors, despite the inclement weather. was prettily draped with vari-colored bunting, while ribbons of red, white and blue were caught up in the center, giving the auditorium a charming and artistic appearance.

The exercises marking the close of the schools were principally in Ger-man, and the young folks delighted the hearts of their elders by the portrayal of the various parts. The programme, as published on Monday, was rendered entire, and consisted of vocal and instrumental music, piano, zither and violin selections, and a series of short sketches, in character and costume. The performance will be repeated this evening. Those who participated were: Masters H. Kraemer, C. Kirst, C. Ackerman, Otto Epp. G. Lutz; the Misses M. Kraemer, G. Kirst, T. Helfrich, A. Wagner, A. Merkel, M. Kraft, A. Heintz, M. Kieffer, E. Kornacher, C. Schneider, L. Wetzel, M. Kuhn, M. Noll, R. Lutz, A. Schiel, M. Rehner, E. Winter, E. Waller, J. Trapper, N. Storr and Miss Stella Kolb.
