DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Quiet Conditions Have Prevailed in Most Branches of Business.

New York, July 4.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say: Quiet conditions have prevailed in most branches of business, especially in those markets already affected by labor disputes. In the iron and steel districts there have been no developments of importance. Leather is dull and hides weak. In the textile markets cotton goods sold freely at recent concessions and the tone was steady while woolen mills are more actively engaged, and buyers are in the eastern markets for raw material. Quotations of wool made a further slight advance and firmness is expected at the London auction sale next Tuesday.
