REV. EDWARD BURKE OFFERS FIRST MASS

Sung in St. Rose Church Before a Crowded Congregation of His Sermon by Rev. J. J. Griffin.

Rev. Edward Burke, who was ordained to the priesthood by Rt. Rev. Bishop Hoban on Thursday last, celebrated his first mass in St. Rose church at,10,30 o'clock yesterday morning. The beautiful edifice was crowded with a congregation made up largely of those who grew up in this city with the young priest, and who rejoiced in the opportunity of assisting at his first work in the sacred calling to which he has offered himself; and to join in the prayers that were offered for his perseverance in the work of the sanctuary. In the large congregation were numerous visitors from surrounding towns. Rev. Father Burke was assisted by

Very Rev. T. F. Coffey, V. G., who was his sponsor at the ordination, as archpriest: Rev. John Dunne, of West Scranton: Rev. Philip Finley, of Rochester, N. Y., sub-deacon: Rev. Bernard- O'Byrne, of Scranton, a former Carbondalian, master of cere-monies. In the sanctuary were Very Rev. J. R. Teafy, president of St. Michael's college, Toronto, Canada; Rev. George Dixon and Rev. Walter

The speaker was Rev. John J. Griffin, of Scranton, chancellor of the diocese, formerly assistant priest at St. Rose, vho delivered a most happily appropriite sermon. He bespoke for the young priest the prayers of the congregation and his friends, that he be blessed with the qualities of pity and sympathy, the qualities that were most conspicuous in the character of Christ when on earth. Never was Christ's anger displayed when among His people; always were His pity, His sympathy, His love, His affection. It was sympathy for His friends at the wedding in Canaan, when they were embarrassed by the wine giving out at the wedding feast. that led Christ to perform His first miracle. He cured the blind and the leprous through pity, and so throughout His life it was His pity and His sympathy that moved Him.

Rev. Father Griffin asked that the young priest be so blessed that he would be rightly guided in his circumstances and position in his ministrations. He concluded by assuring Rev. Father Burke and his family that the young priest was leaving a loving home, going away from an earnest, devoted family he was entering another family-the family of priests in this diocese-second in intellect and nobleness of mind and spirit to any other little band in this or any other land. Among the visitors at the first mass were: Rev. M. J. O'Rourke, Rev. John W. Holmes, Rev. M. E. Loftus, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Loftus, Miss May O'Boyle, Kitty and John Godwin, Mr. R. Bourke, of Scranton: Mrs. Ellen Mahon, Mrs. J. W. Cummings, of Olyphant; Rose and Agnes Martin, of Niagara, N. Y.; Kathryn Finley, of Binghamton; Kerin Moran, of Susquehanna; James Fagan, of Herkimer, N. Y .: Conrad McHugh. of Hazleton, Pa.; Leo Atleton, Baltimore, Md.; James Hogan, Binghamton,

AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS.

Rev. David Spencer, D. D., Who Dedicated the Berean Baptist

The cordial welcome extended to Rev. or. Spencer yesterday by the Berean Baptist congregation was understood by all who know the relations of this well-known minister to Baptist interests in this city.

The acquaintance of the Baptist people of this city with Dr. Spencer began more than twenty years ago, and when the present beautiful edifice was opened for public worship, Dr. Spencer was invited to preach the sermon. That he has held the esteem of the congregation throughout these long years of acquaintance was fully shown by the large and attentive congregation that gathered to hear him yesterday morn

His sermon was a most able and helpful one and was delivered with all the force and enthusiasm of the doctor's earlier years. His many friends rejoice in the continued officiency of his ministry, shown in his pastoral care of the Blakely Baptist

WILL ELECT TEACHERS.

Will Be Only One Change in Next Year's Corps.

The meeting of the school board tonight will be an important one, for the election of the teachers for the coming ear will be disposed of.

There will be no changes, it can be predicted, but one; all of the old teachers will be re-elected, with the exception of Miss Lucy Joslin, who, it will be recalled, resigned at the end of the school year just closed, because of the frail health of her aged mother, who required her care and presence.

It is doubtful if Miss Joslin's place will be filled at tonight's meeting. There are applicants for the vacancy caused by her resignation, but as some changes would likely have to be made in filling her place, it would probably be too much for the board to dispos of at this meeting, which at its shortest

His Dast Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.) In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards his camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bed he expected to die. One day one of his neighbors brought him one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this Mrs. Patrick Early, Misses Elizabeth item. After being on my feet for fourteen or fifteen hours a day the pain was so intense that I could scarcely bear it. I tried different remedies, but never got anything that brought relief until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. I only used them a short time before I was entirely rid of the pain, and it is months since I had any symptoms of my former trouble.
