> Rev. John Lynott, of West Market street, recently ordained, celebrated his first mass, before a large congregation in the Holy Rosary church, yesterday morning at 10.30 o'clock.

> Father Lynott was celebrant of the mass: deacon, Rev. Peter Lynott, of Wilkes-Barre: sub-deacon, Rev. John J. Holmes; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. V. Moylan; ássistant priest, Rev. N. J. McManus; assistant master of ceremonies, Thomas White; acolytes, John Burke and William Healy. In the sanctuary were Rev. Dr. Whalen, of Baltimore; Rev. J. A. O'Reilly, Rev. D. J. Bustin and Rev. Lalor McLaughlin, of the cathedral; Rev. W. P. O'Don'nell, of Holy Cross, and Rev. Joseph Murphy, of Baltimore. Bottman's mass in F was rendered by the Holy Rosary choir, under the direction of Miss Libbie Neary. The solo parts were sustained by the Misses Margaret Thornton and Margaret Tonery and W. A. Lynott, brother of the new priest. "O Salutaris," from Kares, was rendered by Mr. Lynott at the offertory.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Whalen, of Baltimore, a former teacher of Father Lynott. His topic was "The Dignity of the Priesthood." In opening, the doctor congratulated the young priest, his parents, and the parish, and referred to the large number of priests which the Holy Rosary parish has given to the diocese, Father Lynott being the seventh. "The offering of the Holy Sacrifice is a daily occurrence in the life of the priest," said the speaker, "but this first celebration has the charm of all beginnings. In beholding one whom you have known so intimately and looked upon as one of yourselves standing for the first time on the summit of the Holy Mount, clad in the powers of God, you are more likely to be impressed with the dignity of the priesthood."

He then went on to show the transcendant excellence of the Christian priesthood, as compared with the prophets and priests of the old Law. This excellence he divided, from the fact that the priest in his official capacity s identified with Christ, impersonating Him, the latchet of whose shoe John the Baptist declared himself unworthy to loose. Under the new law, as there is but one acceptable sacrifice, so there is but one fitting priest, Christ, him-Next he showed the solicitude of the

Of Scranton, Pa.

JULY, 8, 1902, FROM 4 TO 7 P. M. In the list of candidates seeking recognition from the Republican party on account of yeoman service performed, probably none are more worthy of the confidence of the public than Mr. Gwilym Jones, who has been favorably mentioned for the office of County Commissioner. Gwilym Jones was born in Tredegar, Wales, on January 11th, 1869. He was brought to this country while yet an infant by his parents, who settled on the West Side the same year, and has grown up with the leading young residents of the Electric City. His father was well known throughout the valley as T. ab Dewi. The elder Mr. Jones followed the occupation of mining, and was a member of the executive board of the miners' committee in the trying times of 1877. For eighteen years Gwilym Jones worked in and about the mines on the West Side, and for two years was employed in the moulding shops. He was a resident of the Fifteenth ward for twelve years, and has always been prominent as a party worker, and has a political record that is unassailable, Mr. Jones has always been a true friend of the miners and a strong supporter of their cause in every instance.

Gwilym Jones is not only fortunate in the enjoyment of a pure record, but also possesses a pleasing personality. There is no more delightful man to He has a genuinely fine mind; is frank, friendly, and wins the admiration of all acquaintances by his modest and unassuming ways. At all times his manners are unaffected and cordial. Popular with all; with malice toward none; straightforward, energetic and enthusiastic, Gwilym Jones can certainly lay claim to recognition as an ideal candidate of the best Republican blood of the city of industry.

In seeking the nomination for the office of County Commissioner on the Republican ticket he does so with the knowledge that he can render efficient service to the people in the conduct of the affairs of the county, all of which come under the direct control of the Commissioners' office. Some years of service on the Board of Assessors for the City of Scranton, has qualified him especially in the knowledge of assessed valuations of property, not alone within the city, but throughout the country, and in this special branch alone, wherewith the County Commissioners' office has a very great deal to do, he can serve the people well. From childhood he has lived in Scranton, and since reaching manhood has been loyal in the support of the Republican party and the principles which have made it strong in the hearts of the people.
