

SOUTH SCRANTON

CELEBRATED TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF WEDDING.

Large Party Entertained at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, 529 Maple Street—Number of Interesting Cases Heard Before Alderman John Lentz—Funeral of the Late Mrs. Armbrust Took Place Yesterday Afternoon from the Home of Her Son.

A very pleasant party was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, of 529 Maple street, when their numerous friends gathered to congratulate the happy couple on their ten wedding anniversary, they having been joined in wedlock on July 7, 1892.

After a reception, and congratulations, the host and hostess invited the visitors to partake of a well prepared supper. After which the cigars were passed. Music was afterwards furnished for dancing and an evening of thorough enjoyment was closed in the early morning hours. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William Fritch, Mr. and Mrs. August Hagon, Mr. and Mrs. David Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hannin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mottor, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geiger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nye, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Griggs, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ruidmiller, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. George Mirtz, Misses Tillie Hamm, Lorene Phillips, Agnes Hamm, Cora and Clara Brown, Marie Hamm, Florence Hamm, Nettie and Anna Phillips, Anna Justice.

Aldermanic Doings.

Yesterday was Alderman Lentz's busy day and he had no less than six cases. The first was a case of larceny, malicious mischief, and assault and battery, the charges being preferred by Michael Rose, against John Troy. Rose, it appears, is a watchman for the Rapid Transit company, and is allowed to collect and keep the old tickets and the tickets and when remonstrated with, gave Rose a thrashing. He admitted striking the prosecutor, and entered bail for court in $500.

Jacob Heinz, of Beech street, became so boisterous and abusive on July 4, that he was arrested at the instance of Jacob Hopmeister for threats and disorderly conduct. On the latter charge he paid a fine of $2 and for using threats was held for court in $200. Marie, the 17-year-old daughter of Fred Guse, was brought before the magistrate by her parents for disobedience and misbehavior. She is inclined to be wayward and is out too much at night to suit her parents. The alderman gave her a sound lecture and allowed her to go with the warning that another complaint would be sufficient cause to send her to the house of correction.

Anna Hirshler, a fourteen-year-old girl, was brought in on the same charge by her parents and according to the evidence is utterly incorrigible. She will be given another chance. Julius Woelkers, charged James Downey, of Prospect avenue, with the larceny of a cow. Woelkers learned that his bovine was in Downey's barn, and demanded his property which was refused. He secured a search warrant, but on arriving home found the cow in her stall. As he had no case, Woelkers had to pay the costs.

Laid at Rest. The funeral of the late Mrs. Armbrust took place from the home of her son, Charles, at 1107 Cedar avenue, yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended.

For County Commissioner Of Lackawanna County Charles F. Wagner Of Scranton, Pa.

Subject to the decision of the Republican Voters of Lackawanna County at the Primary Election, Tuesday, July 8, 1902, from 4 to 7 p. m.

CHARLES F. WAGNER comes before the Republicans of Lackawanna County an aspirant for nomination to the office of County Commissioner. To the people who have had transactions with the County Commissioners' office prior to 1900 he needs no introduction. For twelve years he was employed in that office, the last six years as Chief Clerk. By reason of his office training, he is fully equipped for the kind of work demanded by this important place in the public service. It is the office that is in closest touch with individual interests, the place where the people have a right to look for courteous treatment and careful management. Charley is always affable, and thoroughly reliable as an accountant. No one ever questioned his integrity, and the public business would be carefully looked after under his direction.

Mr. Wagner is the only German among our citizens who seeks place on the county ticket, and that element in the citizenship of Lackawanna County have been modest in their claims for public office. Aside from claims of nationality or location, the people who know Mr. Wagner personally recognize his fitness for this place, and his candidacy gives an opportunity to endorse a man of ability and integrity, who can be relied upon to do his duty at all times.

Vote for Him at the Primaries.

Services were held by pastor Galenkamp of the Zion church on Franklin avenue, and interment was made in the Pittston avenue cemetery.
