CHURCH'S GOOD YEAR.

Gratifying Reports Received at the Annual Meeting of Berean Baptist Congregation.

The annual meeting of the Berean Baptist church on Monday evening was quite as satisfactory as the most hopeful and zealous of the congregation might expect.

REV. H. J. WILLEN, L. D. D. Whose flock of Berean Church is celebrating over past year's work.

of the church workers. During the year which closed July 1, the mortgage indebtedness was reduced to $1,400, six hundred dollars having been paid thereon during the year.

The following trustees were elected for the current year: E. H. Stone, A. P. Trautwein, J. F. Robinson, G. A. Davis, W. E. Bennett, E. J. Bly and O. L. Utley, all of whom served on the board of last year, except Mr. Utley.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds" was sung by the congregation, apropos of the delightful harmony of the meeting.

The pastor, Rev. Dr. H. J. Whalen, must feel well pleased with the work of the year and can derive a good deal of satisfaction from the several reports, for all of the devoted members of the congregation gladly testify to his potent influence in the results which were so happily disclosed at this, the annual meeting.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Happy Marriage Celebration at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kennedy.

A rare, felicitous event was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kennedy at their home, on South Main street, on Sunday, when they observed the fortieth anniversary of their marriage.

It was a happy gathering that assembled about the well-laden table when the dinner was served. Many delightful incidents marked the day of felicitations, which proved a happy ending to the four decades of married life which Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy have so happily spent.

The members of the family whose happiness filled the day, were Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, their sons, J. J. Kennedy and family, of New York city; Henry A. and P. A. Kennedy, of Scranton; M. P. Kennedy and Misses Kathryn and Bridget Kennedy, of this city.

An Alarm, but No Fire.

About 12:30 yesterday morning, an alarm of fire from Box 21, Main street and Salem avenue, brought out the companies to the smoke-house of H. E. May's meat market, on Lincoln avenue. There was no work, however, for the apparatus; the smoke-house was merely smoking, a heap of wood smoldering within. A few buckets of water quenched the embers.

Unclaimed Letters.

A list of letters remaining in the Carbondale postoffice, July 9, 1902, for persons unknown: C. Coning, care of J. Komes; John Henwood, Levi Gleason, Walter Lane, Thomas Murray, Alexander Rounds, Lewis Thomas, C. Tilsforth, Louis J. Walters, R. E. Wells, Mrs. H. B. Briggs, Mrs. Gus E. Robinson, Mrs. Do You Know Your Neighbors?

Do You Know Your Neighbors? A man may not know his neighbor. It is quite different in the country. In some sections a man may know every man, woman and child in the county and be able to give the family history of all his neighbors for three generations back. In such a community a man who sees a neighbor in trouble is quick to help him out. In a city, however, a man who sees a neighbor in trouble is quick to let him alone. This is the case in Carbondale. A man who sees a neighbor in trouble is quick to let him alone. This is the case in Carbondale. A man who sees a neighbor in trouble is quick to let him alone. This is the case in Carbondale.

BURGLARY ATTEMPTED AT FINLAN HOME

Burst Open Window and Door in West Side Residence, but Are Frightened Away—Chicken Robbers.

The outbreak of lawlessness, such as robberies, hold-ups and the like, which has disturbed the city the past two weeks, showed itself again yesterday morning, when an attempt was made by burglars to enter the home of Hugh Finlan, which is situated in the West Side, just beyond the Fairbrook creek, towards the Brooklyn section.

The visitors, however, were not successful in their mission. Their noise awoke the family, whose response frightened them away. The presence of the supposed burglars was made known some time during the early morning by the noise of breaking glass. Mr. Finlan, thinking that perhaps it was a neighbor who was seeking entrance, or perhaps some wayfarer who was in distress, shouted for the person to cease his efforts, not to break in the house, and he would let him in. When Mr. Finlan got down stairs he found no one, but the glass panel in the door and a window broken.

Nothing was taken, as entrance had not been effected. Chicken thieves were reported in the Dundaff section, where several were stolen from the Mahady residence.
