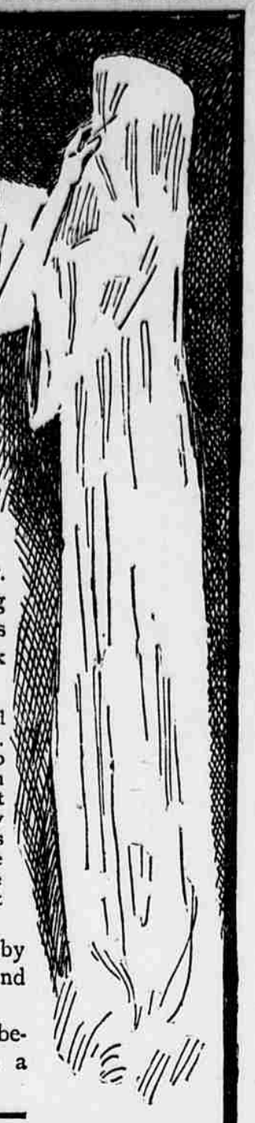
GHOSTS



Science who is the true Jack the Giant Killer plays also a more important role as Jack the Ghost Killer. Year after year science lays a certain number of ghosts which of old time have haunted the paths of life and gibbered warnings of disaster which have paled healthy cheeks and chilled warm blood. Has not the young woman seen that hollow-eyed, sunken-cheeked ghost of broken-down womanhood who walks seeking her oldtime health and beauty, and moans perpetually, "lost! lost!"

Science has laid that ghost forever. It used to be a part of a woman's creed that she was born to suffering; that womanly diseases must in general be accepted as a curse laid upon her, and that walking in the very path which nature ordained, she must perforce sacrifice health and beauty to love and duty. Science in the form of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long ago disproved such a theory, by curing the womanly diseases which undermine the general health and which make the cheek hollow and the body thin.

"I had been a sufferer from inflammation of ovaries for six years, and doctored with good physicians, receiving only temporary relief," writes Mrs. B. W. Starkweather, of Despatch, Monroe Co., N. Y. "For nearly two years of that time I had falling of uterus and general female weakness. In December last I was obliged to go to bed, and suffered everything for about ten weeks. The doctor said the only help for me was an operation, so my husband wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce for advice. He advised my taking his 'Favorite Prescription.' I did so and could see a change after taking three doses. In about three days I was sitting up in bed, and in a week's time I had my clothes on. Am getting better all the time, and I have not felt so well in years—thanks to Dr. Pierce."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its remarkable cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

COMMON SENSE Is the key note of Dr. Pierce's famous work, the Common Sense Medical Adviser. The book contains more than one thousand large pages and is sent FREE in cloth binding for 31 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. For paper covered book send only 21 stamps.

MONTROSE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Montrose, July 8.—Shortly after midnight last night, the large barn belonging to Henry F. Turrell, on his residence lot on Lake avenue, was discovered on fire and an alarm was quickly given, which brought to the scene the entire fire department, but the fire had started in a quantity of straw bedding in the rear portion of the building, and was caused by a stroke of lightning, and the flames had made such headway that, upon the arrival of the fire companies, it was deemed entirely useless to attempt to save the building, and all that was done was to protect adjacent buildings. The barn was a large, old-fashioned structure, and had seen many years of service; but it had been extensively and thoroughly renovated and repaired in 1886, and was in prime condition yesterday. The fire was first discovered by Harry Roberts, of West Pittston, a brother of Mrs. W. H. Turrell, who had just arrived for a visit. The flames lighted up his chamber and awakened him, and he listened; hearing the snapping of the timbers, Mr. Roberts called his brother-in-law and the two were soon at the barn. As they opened the door, they were greeted with such an outburst of smoke as to make an entrance to the barn impossible. They listened for some sign of distress from Dandy, a horse, fifteen years of age and a great favorite of its owner, W. H. Turrel. Not a sound from the animal was heard, and it is the belief that Dandy did not live to suffer the tortures of death from the flames but was struck by the lightning, or at least was so stunned by it as to become helpless and unconscious. At any rate, Dandy was consumed, with the contents of the barn, which included a fine cutter, several carriages, harness, saddles, etc., and everything pertaining to a gentleman's stable. The insurance on the building and contents was $350, and the loss is estimated to have been several hundred dollars in excess of the insurance. The first was attended by an immense crowd of Montrose residents, who tarried until the fire had become quiescent.

A large attendance was at the ball ground yesterday, and the close and interesting game played by the Binghamton Central High school nine and the Montrose nine amply repaid the people for their generous patronage. Montrose took a good lead early in the game, but our boys soon displayed a spirit of "over confidence," which resulted in a careless playing on the part of Montrose, which, together with several unwarranted but also unintentional decisions by the umpire, a Montrose man, combined to tie the score and finally gave the game to the visitors by a score of 12 to 11. The reasons advanced for the result are numerous and conflicting, but the above was the unanimous view of the grandstand, though it should be added that County Treasurer Leander Scott advances the opinion that had he been "in the game" Montrose would have won. The umpire was a new one, and his youth and inexperience in the position furnished abundant excuse for his regrettable but wholly unintentional errors. The pitching of young Frank Shafer won continued favor from Montrose partizans and his present work certainly gives bright promise of a very brilliant and successful future. The most exciting and brilliant work done with the bat during the game was accomplished for Montrose by their expert catcher and everybody's friend, Christie Curran, of Rush, one of whose strikes sent the ball clear over the field, againset the fence and enabled its fleet-footed author to make a home-run with magnificent spectacular effect. Verily, behind home base is not the only place where Christie can play ball. Montrose gave additional evidence of her ability to play ball of the highest quality and our nine is doing in full its share towards making every game intensely interesting and a credit to this old town.

Mrs. E. P. Mahady, of Scranton, was the guest of friends in Montrose today.

W. D. B. Ainey is in Binghamton today, attending to legal business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rose and niece Hattie Frink, and their little [illegible] of Susquehanna, have been visiting relatives and friends in this place and vicinity.

Wilber S. Benjamin, of New York city, is visiting his siter, Mrs. Jennie B. Beach, at her home on Lake avenue.

Miss Sarah Gordon, of Binghamton, formerly of this place, is spending a brief vacation as the guest of Montrose relatives and friends.

Seth R. Wright, of Forest Lake, was a visitor in town on Monday.

HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, July 8.—Walter W. Wood, of Philadelphia, is spending a few days at his Honesdale home.

O. B. Hadsell, of Flushing, L. I., who spent the past week with Honesdale friends, returned home yesterday, accompanied by his wife and child, who have spent several weeks in Honesdale.

The first meeting of the Consumers' Water company, of Honesdale, a newly chartered corporation, was held at the Allen house on Saturday. An organization was effected by the election of M. B. Allen, president; G. W. Decker, secretary, and W. A. Gaylord, treasurer. The directors are the charter members of the corporation, namely, C. M. Betz, W. A. Gaylord, G. W. Decker, M. B. Allen and F. W. Powell.

Russell Dimmick, of Scranton, has been at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Dimmick, for a few days.

The various kind of berry bushes along the country roadside give evidence of an abundant crop of the uncultivated berry. The heavily ladened bushes of ripening fruit are certainly tempting. The apple crop also—throughout Wayne county—bids fair to be unusually large.

The state authorities have passed favorably on all of the Wayne county bridges destroyed by the floods last winter. The engineers are expected here soon to arrange for the commencement of work on the Main street bridge over the Lackawaxen river.

The most exciting game of ball of the season was played on the Honesdale grounds by the Port Jervis and Honesdale teams. The game commenced with the Port Jervis boys at the bat. Honesdale started well, making two runs. Then the Port Jervis boys secured five runs. Not until the ninth inning did Honesdale rally, making three runs. The game ended with a score of 6 to 5 in favor of Port Jervis. Honesdale was handicapped by the absence of their catcher.

Another meeting of the Susquehanna-Wayne senatorial conferees will be held to straighten out the muddle that is causing so much trouble.

A delightful song service by the Presbyterian choir took the place of the Sunday evening sermon. The choir was assisted by Miss Grace Whitney.

NICHOLSON.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Nicholson, July 8.—The funeral service of Miss Nellie Shields was held at her late home yesterday afternoon. Many friends gathered at the hour with saddened hearts. She was an accomplished and estimable young lady, loved by all who knew her. The parents and family have the sympathy of the whole community in their great loss and bereavement.

E. L. Sloat is giving his house a coat of paint.

Galusha Rought and G. L. Hungerford have the contract for building the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Pratt are visiting friends in New York.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Tunkhannock, July 7.—Miss Dana, of Paterson, N. J., who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley W. Lewis, on West Tioga street, returned home on Saturday.

Miss Gertrude Luckenbell, of East Mauch Chunk, is visiting her parents at this place.

W. H. Gulick, of Phoenixville, Chester county, the engineer appointed by the state board of public grounds and buildings to prepare plans and specifications for the bridges to be erected at Tunkhannock and Dixon, arrived here on Monday and is busily engaged in making the necessary survey to obtain the data for his work. None of the old stone work now standing will be used in the new structures.

Charles A. Little, esq., who recently sustained a fracture of the shoulder blade while getting off a train at the station here, is progressing as favorably as could be expected, and was able to visit his office on Monday.

Commissioners' Clerk George N. Doyle spent Sunday at West Nicholson.

Albert Lee and family spent Sunday at Lake Winola.

Mrs. Charles Carlisle, of Wilkes-Barre, is the guest of friends at this place.

Miss Sarah Hoadley, of the International Correspondence school at Scranton, has been visiting her mother at this place.

A change in time took place on the Lehigh Valley railroad on Monday, but only two east bound trains are affected. The first morning train, which formerly reached here at 8.56, now arrives at 8.11, and train No. 4, which formerly arrived here at 2.04 p. m. is now two minutes earlier. Several persons missed the south bound train on Monday morning by reason of not having heard of the change.

Harry Sickler, who is in the employ of the Cudahy Beef company, as salesman with headquarters at Braddock, Pa., is visiting his father at this place.

Frank Ace, who is employed at the stone mill at Nicholson, has been visiting several days with his family at this place.

There will be a regular meeting of J. W. Reynolds' Women's Relief Corps this Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

ARCHBALD.

Mrs. William Van Doren was a Scranton visitor Monday.

Miss Margaret Colvin visited in Carbondale yesterday.

Miss Myra Hills, of Jermyn, was a caller in town yesterday.

Mrs. J. Roberts, of Jermyn, visited relatives in town yesterday.

Mrs. William Van Doren spent Monday with relatives in Carbondale.

Miss Lizzie Barrett, of Hill street, is ill.
