On and after next Sunday all the confectionery and ice cream stores in the city will be closed. An order to that effect has been given by Mayor Corcoran at the request of the Clerks association. The confectioners are very much displeased over the order and will ask the mayor to also close the cigar stores and drug stores, which sell cigars and candy.

Another hitch has been met with by the Pittston Opera House company. The company recently asked the city to exchange four feet of ground with them, both having adjoining lots on the Troxell plots, and an ordinance providing for the transfer was introduced in and adopted in select council, but met with opposition in the common branch. The difficulty was finally overcome by sub- this week. stituting a concurrent resolution, which passes on a majority vote of the members at a meeting, in place of the ordinance and the resolution was passed by both councils. The mayor, however, refused to sign and asked the city solicitor for an opinion as to whether or not the transfer could legally be made by resolution. The solicitor's opinion was negative and the mayor will veto the resolution.
