Local Singers May Participate in the Eisteddfod to Be Given in Brooklyn on Thanksgiving Day.

Immediately after the national eisteddfod, held in the armory on Memorial day, the officers of the Arion Singing society, of Brooklyn, N. Y., announced that their enthusiasm at the Welsh gathering had been so great that they intended to hold a German gathering of a similar nature.

Since then they have matured their plans and announce that the festival will be held during the Thanksgiving week, when prizes aggregating $4,000 will be offered in musical and literary competition.

Inasmuch as so many prizes at the national eisteddfod were won by West Siders, it has been a matter of speculation among the singers whether it would not be a good idea to put some West Scranton choirs and soloists in the field for the German eisteddfod. Surely the West Side has enough talent to carry off some of the following prizes:

Chorus, either German or English, $1,000. Mixed chorus, English, $500.

Male chorus, English, $500.

German male chorus (for Germans only), class A, $500; class B, $300.

Ladies' chorus—English, $300; German, $200.

Mixed solo quartette, $80.

Soprano solo, $50.

Contralto solo, $50.

Tenor solo, $50.

Bass solo, $50.

Composition of English part song, "A Capella," $100.

Novel in English, treating on an event in American history, $100.

Novel in German, treating on an event in American history, $100.

Poem—English, $100; German, $100. Both subjects to be taken from American history.

Jones Is Under Arrest.

W. H. Jones, a much wanted man in police circles, was arrested by Constables Donlin and Jones in the cellar at the home of Mrs. H. C. Kline, of 606 North Sumner avenue, yesterday morning. Jones has been a frequent visitor at the Kline home. Within six weeks three warrants have been sworn out before Alderman Kellow for Jones, as follows:

May 24, Stewart Space, of North Main avenue, appeared before Alderman Kellow and swore out a warrant, charging Jones with cheating him out of $19. On June 6, D. M. Space, of North Main avenue, appeared before Alderman Kellow and wanted a warrant for the arrest of Jones, on the charge of false pretenses. The defendant went to Space on that date and borrowed $25.70, saying that he had a check on a local bank, but was unable to cash it, because of it being after banking hours. He secured the money, kept his check and did the disappearing act.

On June 13, Fannie Pulver, of 430 North Main avenue, appeared before the alderman and swore out a warrant, charging Jones with defrauding her out of a board bill of $19. She claims Jones left the house one evening, and promised to return and settle up, but he failed to show up. At the hearing he was committed in default of $300 bail. The same charge was made against Jones by a smaller amount. The alderman held Jones in jail, as follows: Pulver charge, $300; Stephen Space charge, $200; P. Miller charge, $250. At this writing he is still locked in the West Side police station, while his friends are trying to secure the required $500.

Will Meet Tonight.

At the call of the president, Forbes Eaton, the Alumni Athletic association will meet this evening in the old Steuermann school house. The business which will be brought before the meeting is of much importance, and the presence of every member is desired.

Special efforts are being made by the Alumni to secure a first-class football team for the city. Several members of the old High school team have signified their intention of joining, and if they succeed in securing such men as Rhys Powell, John Vaughn, Sanford Phillips, Eugene Tropp and William Jenkins, the success of the team will not include all members of the Alumni association, yet it will be controlled by them.

Smith Gone to Jail.

John Smith, of Moran court, was arrested and taken before Alderman Noonce on the charge of removing his household goods after they had been levied on. The prosecutor was Mr. Goldsman, of South Washington avenue, who claims that about a month ago, being unable to secure the rent from Smith, he had the goods levied on, but Smith returned home one night soon after and took the goods away.

A warrant was sworn out, but it was not until yesterday that Smith could be found. At the hearing yesterday afternoon he was committed to the county jail in default of $200 bail.

Visited by Burglars.

The home of Mrs. A. M. Dersheimer, on South Main avenue, was visited by burglars on Wednesday. While the family was attending prayer-meeting, some one pried open a window and proceeded to search the place.

The burglars would probably have succeeded in making a good haul but for the fact that Mrs. Dersheimer returned home too soon for them.

Upon entering the house she found burned matches in many of the rooms, and a search revealed the loss of a coat belonging to her son.

Got a Bicycle Cheap.

Antonio Caluski, of Jackson street, was arrested on a warrant sworn out before Alderman Davis, at the instance of Richard Davis, charging him with false pretenses. Davis claimed that Caluski bought a bicycle of him and in payment agreed to make him a pair of pants and a vest, but soon after the vest was made the defendant went to Buffalo.

On the other hand, Caluski claims that he intended to make the pants and vest, but was unable to do so on account of the fact that Lynch, the tailor, for whom he worked, was called out of town in the middle of the night and took his stock with him. Caluski says that he went to Buffalo to get Lynch to pay him, so he could pay for the wheel, but becoming stranded was compelled to sell the wheel to get home. Alderman Davis committed him to the county jail in default of $500.

Newsboys, Attention.

On Wednesday morning the West Scranton newsboys will assemble in front of T. E. Price's newsstand and, preceded by a band, will march to the central city, where they will unite with the other pleniters.

The newsboys are making great preparation for that day and several base ball teams have been formed. A large number of the boys are training for the various races.

Funeral of John Quinn.

Yesterday afternoon the funeral of the late John Quinn, held at St. Patrick's church, the church being filled with the sorrowing friends of the deceased.

Rev. P. E. Lavelle had charge of the services, while Rev. Father Walsh, of Jessup, was present in the sanctuary.

The pall-bearers were Michael Flynn, Stephen Durkin, Michael Durkin, William Davis, Patrick Scott and Thomas Walsh. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

Other Funerals.

The funeral of the two-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, of 2011 Price street, was held yesterday afternoon. After short services, the little one was laid at rest in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence, of North Bromley avenue, was held yesterday afternoon. The remains were interred in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of the late George Mack, of Eynon street, was held yesterday afternoon from St. Patrick's church. Rev. P. E. Lavelle had charge of the services. The church was well filled with the sorrowing friends of the young man, who came to pay their last tribute to the dead. The pall-bearers were selected from among the most intimate friends of the deceased, and interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of Patrick, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. McHale, of the Continental mine, was held yesterday afternoon. After brief services, the remains were laid at rest in the Cathedral cemetery.

The funeral of John, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chimp, of Price street, was held yesterday afternoon. After short services, the little one was taken to the Cathedral cemetery, where interment was made.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The sum of $7.04 in a pocketbook was the find of Officer John McColligan, while patrolling South Main avenue on Saturday evening. The owner was found in the person of a very much worried young woman.

Edward Cooper, of Smith place, was accidentally shot through the hand yesterday. The bullet was a son of the late John S. Cooper, was looking over some of his father's things and among them found a .22-caliber revolver which he handled rather carelessly, not thinking it was loaded. The revolver was discharged, the ball penetrating the left hand. Dr. J. G. Berlinghoff was called and dressed the wound and no serious results are apprehended.

Fred H. Emery, of Sunderland avenue, will sail August 1 for England, where he will spend a three months' vacation.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Social Session of the Members of St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic Association—Officers Installed.

St. Mary's Glee and Dramatic association, which is composed of musically inclined members of St. Mary's church on River street, met in social session last evening, and during the rendition of a meritorious program of refreshments were served. The society has a membership of a hundred and nearly all were present when the meeting was called to order. The opening address and welcome was made by President Isidore Miller, who introduced the talent as follows: Overture—Merrily Goes Our Bark; Opening Address—G. J. Robling; Selection—Phonograph; Solo—Henry Kempe; Address—Rev. Peter Christ; Selection—Phonograph; Buck and Wing Dance—G. Schneider; Selection—Phonograph; "Hab Oit im Kreise der Lieben"; Glee Club Chorus; Address—Rev. Frank Straub; Song, "I Wonder if She's Waiting"; Address—Rudolph Weber; President I. Miller; Boxing—Jansen and Sporer; Selection—Phonograph; Song, "I've Come to Take You Home"; Johnny Lee—Merrily Goes Our Bark.

The affair came to a close at midnight. The committee of arrangements consisted of George J. Robling, W. A. Albrecht and Edward Sporer.

NUBS OF NEWS.

At a well attended session of Camp 420, Patriotic Order Sons of America, officers for the ensuing term were installed as follows: Past president, Peter Haas; president, John Lewert; vice president, Charles A. Behr; master of forms, Frank T. Hessinger; conductor, John Brown; inspector, Fred Kellerman; outer guard, George Lewert; trustee, William Kirchoff.

The Star Social club presented their treasurer, Peter Phillips, with a massive gold signet ring, during their outing at Lily Lake last Sunday.

NORTH SCRANTON

MISS BESSIE HOFFMAN ENTERTAINED FRIENDS.

Prof. Henry L. Clements, of New York City, was a guest at the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage over Sunday and took part in the services in the Church Sunday Night—Little Thomas Hatton Injured While Getting Off a Trolley Car—Short Notes.

Miss Bessie Hoffman, of West Market street, entertained her Sunday school class, of the Providence Methodist church, at her home last evening. Edward Sanders made his first public appearance as a violinist and was warmly applauded. Before the guests dispersed, refreshments were served.

Among those present were: Misses Anna and May Holleran, of Buffalo; Julius Touhill, of Pittston; George Cure, Ethel Vipond, Lulu Constantine, Clara Snyder, Pearl Henry, Ruth Snyder, Grace Marion, Mrs. E. P. Hoffman, Mrs. W. F. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hoffman, Raymond Robinson, Clarence McAllister, Edward Hunt, Edward Sanders, James Laird, Jesse Sicker, Robert Snyder, Myron Keator, William Bright and George Wheeler.

Visit by Prof. Clements.

Prof. Henry L. Clements, of New York City, and Mrs. W. F. Clements, of Moscow, Pa., were guests over Sunday at the Methodist parsonage. Prof. Clements is a graduate of Wyoming seminary and Wesleyan university, and is a composer of recognized merit, as well as organist for one of the largest New York city churches.

The congregation Sunday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church was charmed with his performance on the organ. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Cure, gave up the service entirely to music. Miss Belle Green, the regular organist of the church, with Prof. J. H. Cousins and the choir and orchestra, splendidly rendered their part of the programme, and Miss Mary Davis, who is home on her vacation, contributed an excellent solo.

Thomas Hatton Injured.

Thomas Hatton, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatton, of Summit avenue, was injured about the face by falling off a moving trolley car, Sunday afternoon. Young Hatton, accompanied by two other small boys, was playing on Avenue A, when a car stopped he sat down on the step. When the car started the boy tried to get off and, in doing so, fell.

He received several bruises about the face, and was removed to his home, where his injuries were dressed.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

There will be a meeting of all locals of United Mine Workers of America Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, in St. Mary's hall.

The Outing club will hold a meeting this evening at the Young Woman's Christian association parlors, to arrange for a social and ice cream sale, which they expect to conduct in the near future.

Harry Hatton, of Summit avenue, is undergoing an operation at Buffalo. Captain Valentine Birtley, of Hose company No. 1, starts on his vacation today.

An important meeting of the North Scranton Glee club is called for Wednesday evening. The election of officers for the ensuing year and the proposition to fill a five weeks' engagement at Atlantic City is to be considered.

Misses Anna and Margaret Reese, of Plymouth, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. David Gabriel, of William street.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry, of Parker street, has been brightened by the arrival of a baby girl.

Misses Esther and Edie Jones, of Mary street, left yesterday to spend their vacations with Mrs. W. F. Davis and daughter, Mary, who are staying at Asbury Park.

The Missionary societies of the Providence Presbyterian church will hold a picnic at Nay Aug park Tuesday afternoon. The special car will leave Weston place at 4 o'clock.
