EVERYBODY GOES TO LODORE TODAY

A Big Delegation of Rooters to Accompany Our "Pets" Over the Mountain to the Game with Port Jervis—Miller, Our Colored Friend, to Pitch—Train Leaves at 1 O'Clock—Other Ball Chat.

The cry of the rooters is changed from "Everybody goes to Honesdale," to "Everybody goes to Lodore." Our "Pets" play the Port Jervis team at Lake today, and they will be encouraged by an immense crowd of loyal rooters, whose motto is: "May our team always win; but win or lose, our team!" This will be the slogan of the crowd, and if the Crescents put up the game, as is expected, that they put up against the South Scranton team, 'twill be another victory.

Ever since the twelve-inning game of this week, when our lads came out on top with the purple and white flying over Abe Sahm's new backdrop, a new spell of enthusiasm has seized the cranks. Even the "Crescents" are being forced into line by our "Pets," splendid work and some of them will be on the excursion today. All the loyal supporters are expected to be on hand at the city station in time for the 1 o'clock train. The megaropes will be in evidence. Everybody goes to help our boys to victory. As "Pat" Gillespie, of the old New York Giants, the greatest fielder that ever chased a ball, said yesterday: "Everything fair goes in base ball, and noise and rooting help to win many a game. It's whoop or up tomorrow, boys, and success to you." If expectations are fulfilled, there will be almost as many on today's trip as went to Honesdale. Many who could not go to Honesdale and sincerely regretted it since, are going with the crowd today, regardless of the sacrifice. Again we shout: "Everybody goes to Lodore today."

An additional attraction of today's game is the circumstance that Miller, "the con prof from Port," will be in the box against us. Carbondallians will be glad of this, and will greet him with a hearty greeting, as his base ball capacity is fully respected in this town and there is nothing but the highest opinions of him as a good ball player, and, of more importance, a fair one. Our team would sooner play ten Millers than three Chestnuts. There has been considerable confusion in the publication of the leaving time of the special to the lake today. It will depart from the city station at precisely 1 o'clock, not 1:15 nor 1:30, as has been erroneously announced in the advertisements. The special train will leave the lake on Monday at 6 o'clock; but the regular train will leave at 6:01, arriving here at 6:47. The fare for the round trip will be 50 cents. The excursion is being run under the auspices of Neversink division, Brotherhood of Railway men of Port Jervis.

The battling order of the Crescents will be: Murray, 3b.; Boland, 2b.; Cuff, 1b.; Emmett, c. f.; Hart, r. f.; Loftus, c.; McHale, s. f.; Roster, l. f.; McAndrew, p.

Comment from Susquehanna. The Susquehanna Transcript of Saturday contains the following comments on the game that was to have been played in that place, but was stopped by rain:

"Our Pets," of Carbondale, scheduled to cross bats with the home team at Beebe's park this afternoon, are accompanied by fifty "rooters," who upon their arrival were met, welcomed and accorded the fresting of this city."

"The mere mention of a ball game between Carbondale and Susquehanna, seems sufficient to bring rain."

"Michael Kilrow, Great Bend's handsome base ball player, who is filling an engagement with the Susquehanna team, notwithstanding the unexpected rain, was contentedly 'picking his teeth' on the Cascade house porch this afternoon."

Susquehanna has two paid men from out of town, this year. They are Schmalz, of Pittston, one of the four Pittston brothers, who is catcher, and Kilrow, of Great Bend, who is a fielder. O'Garra, formerly of Carbondale, is still pitching, notwithstanding the stories to the contrary that Schmalz was to go in the box.

Susquehanna will play in this city with the Crescents the first week of August.

A Breeze from Archbald. Carbondale and Honesdale have come to blows on account of their base ball teams. In fact, they've been at it in the newspapers for several weeks and are not yet exhausted. Keep it up, neighbors, we enjoy it, and remember, when you get a chance to breathe, that Archbald will accommodate the victors with a first-class game of ball without blows, whenever it is wanted—Archbald Citizen.

Manager Tappan will accommodate Archbald soon; perhaps within a couple of weeks.

EYE PAINFULLY INJURED.

Distressing Accident of Robert McMillan, at Carbondale Machine Company's Shops.

While at work in the Carbondale Machine company's shops, Robert McMillan, of Church street, met with a painful and dangerous accident. While he was operating an emery wheel, several pieces flew and lodged in his right eye. A fellow-workman came to his assistance and removed, as he thought, all of them.

Mr. McMillan kept at his work until Monday morning, when he had to cease, on account of the severe pains in his eye. He hurried to Dr. Fletcher, who advised an operation. It was performed Monday afternoon and resulted in finding some pieces of emery, which had not been removed when he was thought, all of them.

Mr. McMillan's eye is now improving and it is hoped that his sight will be preserved.

GETTING TAXES IN.

Attorney Butler's Report in the Clifford Case. The only recent development in the matter of the collection of the taxes in the hands of Collector Clifford, was the letter of Attorney H. C. Butler, of the school board, which was read at the meeting Monday night. Mr. Butler stated that the collection of the taxes was progressing as rapidly as possible and that he hoped to render a complete report at the next meeting of the board.

The Fidelity Trust company, which was originally Collector Clifford's bondsmen, has had representatives in the city the past few days getting an accounting of the uncollected duplicate and the taxes already collected. The belief is that the sum for which three bondsmen will be liable will reach higher than the figures made public. Collector Clifford, who has been out of the city for several days, returned to this city Monday night.
