In and About The City

Superintendent Day on Vacation.
Superintendent of Police, Lt. Col. Day, with his wife and child, are spending a few days at Long Branch. Captain Thomas L. Williams is in charge of the department during Superintendent Day's absence.

Sold Without a License.
Thomas Handy, a huckster, was arrested on Saturday by Patrolman David J. Davis, for violating a city ordinance by selling without a license. He was sentenced to thirty days in jail, or $1 fine.
He paid the fine.

Board Meets Tonight.

A meeting of the board of control will be held tonight, and those that representatives of the companies which recently bid on the bonds issued by the school district will be present and given a hearing by the members.

Will Parade This Evening.

The members of the Scranton Bartenders' union will parade this evening, advertising their excursion to Mountain Park tomorrow. A meeting was held in Raub's hall yesterday afternoon to complete the arrangements.

Girl Without a Home.

Mary Huddy, aged 17 years, was found huddled about the streets of North Scranton early Saturday morning by agent Palmer. She was without a home, and was given in charge of Mrs.
Duggan, agent of the Board of Associated Charities.

Released from Penitentiary.

Patrick Battle, who has served six years in the Eastern penitentiary for killing Frank Stravenski with a stone in the old White House, at Penn avenue and Center street, in 1896, has been released. His term was shortened by good behavior.

Struck by Pitched Ball.

A young man named Toolo, who lives on Linden street, was struck by a pitched base ball yesterday afternoon while playing base ball near the Scranton Railway company's power house on the Providence road. Dr. J. F. Sultry was summoned and found Toolo suffering from a contusion of the scalp, the ball having struck him in the left temple. After a few minutes' attention, the young man ran to himself and was able to walk to his home, little the worse for his accident.

ACCUSED OF STEALING.

Two Minooka Men Arrested on Charge of Larceny.

John Moran and John McCarthy, both of Minooka, were arrested by Patrolmen James Thomas and William Morgan at the Delaware and Hudson station Saturday evening for being drunk and taking a pair of shoes and a satchel belonging to S. A. Faulkner.
They were arraigned in police court yesterday morning, when the prosecutor appeared against them, and each was fined $10. They paid their fines and were released.
