Funeral of Late Charles W. Carpenter.

Sermon Notes of West Side Preachers.
Personal Paragraphs and Notes.

The funeral of the late Charles W. Carpenter took place yesterday afternoon from the family residence, Rev. B. F. Mathews had charge of the services.

There was not a dry eye in the home when the quartette from the First Baptist church, with low, sweet voices sang the two favorite hymns of the deceased, "Some Day We'll Understand," and "Saved by Grace." At the close of the services, the last sad farewell of the face and form so dear were taken.

A broken wheel, from the Electric City Wheelmen; a pillow, with the word "Brother" on it, from the family; a set piece of roses, covering the entire top of the casket, from his young lady and gentlemen friends, and numerous casket bouquets, were some of the floral tributes.

The funeral cortege moved to the Washburn street cemetery, where, with the solemn words, "Oh grave, where is thy victory? Oh death, where is thy sting?" the flower-laden casket slowly sank from view. The funeral was one of the largest that has entered the cemetery, and at the home the house and spacious lawn were crowded with friends.

The flower-bearers were John Davis, John Lewis, Edward E. Lord and William Butt; the pall-bearers were Reese Jenkins, Rhys Powell, Edward Beavers, Herman Fruehan, Fred G. Peters and Eugene Powell. The quartette which composed of Mrs. Thomas James, Miss Ruth E. Beddoe, E. E. Lord, sr., Charles Penney, and Mrs. B. G. Beddoe, accompanied.

The Electric City Wheelmen and class 22, of the First Baptist church, attended in a body.

Rev. James Benninger, pastor of the Embury Methodist Episcopal church, had charge of both services at the Plymouth Congregational church yesterday. His sermons were bright and interesting.

Rev. Edward Howells occupied the pulpit of the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday, and delivered two very interesting sermons upon topics of the day.

Rev. Henry A. Parsons had charge of the regular church services at the Embury Methodist Episcopal church yesterday, both morning and evening. His sermons, as usual, were much enjoyed.

"The Value of Example," and "Responsibility for Spiritual Blessings," respectively, were the subjects of thought by the pastor, Rev. A. L. Kramer, Ph.D., at St. Mark's church yesterday.

At the morning service of the First Baptist church the pastor, Rev. S. F. Mathews, preached from the text, "He Will Be Our Guide, Even Unto Death." This sermon was clear and to the point, and showed a depth of reasoning that won great commendation. In the evening he delivered a discourse on the text, "Ye Are the Temple of the Living God."

The Christian Endeavor society of the Bellevue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church had charge of the service yesterday evening. The young people led the service in a bright, interesting way.

Barney Benjamin and John Battle Back from Three Years' Active Service—Brought Back a Number of Interesting Relics—Stars Defeated by Senators—Joint Picnic of Sunday Schools at Nay Aug Park Tomorrow—Other News Notes and Personal Paragraphs.

Barney Benjamin, of Ferdinand street, and John Battle, of West Market street, have returned home after serving three years in the regular army in the Philippines. They have seen active service throughout the island and have been participants in several skirmishes. Both young men speak highly of conditions across the water. The Filipinos, they state, are treacherous by nature, but the onward march of the American invasion is rapidly making them more civilized.

Benjamin and Battle were at one time active members of the Thirteenth regiment. During the early part of this month, both of their enlistments expired and they were honorably discharged from the service. They brought home a number of relics from the different cities and towns in the Philippines.

Stars Defeated by Senators.

The North End Stars were defeated Saturday afternoon at West Scranton in an exciting game with the Senators of that place.

The North Scranton boys put up a stiff game at the beginning, but towards the end they ran the bases slowly and amateurishly. Lou Schultz did great work for the home team, striking out eighteen men during the game, but he was not given proper support. The final score was 5-8.

Thomas Harding, of the opposing team, did some clever work at short stop, having a large number of hits charged to his credit. David J. Thomas, the ex-college fielder, did the crack playing for the Stars, a feature of the game being that he carried the heavy players and not sore over their defeat, but their manager, Billy Davis, will arrange another game with the Senators during this week. Wednesday they will combat with the strong Taylor Orioles, on Von Storch's grounds.

Will Go to Heart Lake.

Backache

Is the periodic bane of many a young woman. She not only suffers pain and distress of body, but dreads the recurring period when she cannot enjoy social pleasures and must forego active exercise.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures backache, headache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, and other conditions commonly resulting from womanly ailments. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Your Favorite Prescription is certainly a wonderful medicine for the ills of women," writes Miss Edith Austin (Sec'y Woodmen's Circle, Kansas City), residing at 606 North Sixth St., Kansas City, Kans. "I have heard it spoken of in highest praise by many, and so I am sure that my experience has only been that of one of many and certainly deserves a good word. About a year ago I began to have severe pains across my back brought on by a cold at the critical time, and each month afterward I was in pain and distress until I dreaded its approach. Your remedy was prescribed and the way it acted on my system was almost too good to be true. I certainly have regained my health and strength, and no longer have any pains nor that extreme lassitude. Am restored to perfect health."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is commended for the use of young women. It contains no alcohol, and is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and other narcotics. It is purely vegetable and cannot disagree with the weakest constitution.

If you are led to the purchase of "Favorite Prescription" because of its cures of other women, do not accept a substitute which has none of these cures to its credit.

YOUNG WOMEN will find Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser a safe guide to healthful living. This great work is sent FREE on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing ONLY. Send 31 one-cent stamps for the cloth-bound volume, or only 21 stamps for the book in paper covers.

The deciding game was played Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large number of spectators, all of whom take an active interest in the game, and applauded the many excellent plays. The contest was close and exciting, up to the beginning of the ninth inning, after which Fitcher Rolfe of the Hickories, lost his nerve and allowed several hits, which produced a like number of runs.
