HONESDALE.

Special to the Scranton Tribune,

Honesdale, July 28.-Rev. James P. Ware, rector of Grace church, will be bsent from his pulpit on his summer vacation during the month of August Two weeks will be spent with his famlly at Beech Lake, the remainder of his vacation being spent at Providence, R. I. The first two Sundays of August, Rev. George C. Hall, a former rector, will conduct services. The remainder of August these will be no services.

Two years ago, eight young men of experience in glass cutting organized the Irving Cut Glass company, of Monesdale. At that time they composed the working force of the shop; now the number is twenty-six and will be further increased as soon as floor space can be secured. They turn out a fine line of cut glass, which finds a ready market. Their plant is one of the growing industries of Honesdale and bids fair to rank with the leading Bhops of the country.

A large crowd witnessed the game between the Taylor Reds and the grounds Saturday. The score:

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

27th inst.

Dundaff, July 28.-Dundaff is not without its exciting scenes, and it proved itself so on Thursday last, when there was a little commotion among the stockholders of the two telephone lines. Telephone No. 1 has been doing business here for some little time, and it seems that some of the stockhold-ers of this company rather think that they with their line can do all the business that is to be done. Consequently, when No. 2 line made its appearance there was blood in the eye of No. 1. No. 2 dld on one of our streets place their poles on the same side of the street as No. 1, and when the time Honesdale teams on the Silk Mill No. 1 made a kick, or at least one of their $20 stockholders did, and said no Taylors ......0 0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 - 2 6 5 1 line.
