The Eighth and Twelfth Regiments and Governor's Troop Will Be on Duty at Daybreak.

GENERAL J. P. S. GOBIN IS IN COMMAND

The Town in the Hands of an Infuriated Mob Last Evening—Two Borough Policemen Shot; Merchant Clubbed to Death—A Riot Provoked by the Effort of a Deputy Sheriff to Escort Two Non-Union Miners Through a Line of Pickets. A Desperate Battle Between Strikers and Police Follows, in Which Many Shots Are Fired—The Deputy and One Non-Union Man Escape on an Engine.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Harrisburg, July 30.—Governor Stone has ordered the Eighth and Twelfth regiments and the Governor's troop, of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, in command of General J. P. S. Gobin, to proceed immediately to Shenandoah, to the scene of today's rioting. General Gobin left here shortly after midnight in a special train, and it is expected that all the troops, the combined strength of which is 1,500, will be on the ground by daybreak.

The governor has been kept fully advised of the situation by Private Secretary Gerwig ever since the call for troops by Sheriff Beddall, of Schuylkill county, early this evening. At 6 o'clock the following message was received from the sheriff and immediately repeated to the governor at Paul Smith's in the Adirondack mountains by Mr. Gerwig:

Shenandoah, Pa., July 30, 1902. William A. Stone, Governor, Harrisburg, Pa.

Deputy sheriff and two assistants surrounded and one killed, three of the mob shot by sheriff; three local police officers shot, one possibly fatal. Town is without police protection and local government terrorized, threatened by mob if they sign petition. Feeling running very high. Mine workers admit foreign element beyond their control. Mob is beyond control; situation requires greatest haste. Sheriff powerless for want of sufficient assistance.

S. Rowland Beddall, Sheriff.

Subsequently the following message was received from the sheriff:

Pottsville, Pa., July 30, 1902. William A. Stone, Governor, and Adjutant General Thomas J. Stewart, Harrisburg, Pa.

Blindfolded and riot in this county; property destroyed, citizens killed and injured. Situation beyond my control. Troops should be sent Shenandoah immediately. (Signed) S. Rowland Beddall, Sheriff.

Governor Stone started for Harrisburg at 8 o'clock this evening and expects to reach here in Chicago Limited at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. He is being fully advised of the situation and the movement of the troops by Mr. Gerwig. Arrangements have been made with the telegraph and railroad companies along the route over which the executive is traveling to transmit to him messages received from the Schuylkill county authorities.

The headquarters of the Eighth regiment is at Pottsville. It is commanded by Colonel Theodore F. Hoffman. Colonel Charles M. Clement, of Sunbury, commands the Twelfth regiment. The governor's troop is located at Harrisburg and is commanded by Captain Fred M. Ott. Should the presence of additional troops be needed to quell any further disturbance, one or more additional regiments of the Third brigade will be ordered out.

General Gobin, who will have command of the troops, was in command of the provisional brigade during the riots at Hazleton several years ago, and subsequently at Shenandoah. He will be joined at Shenandoah tomorrow by his staff and he will immediately locate his troops at the place and in the surrounding country.

Mobilizing the Twelfth.

Sunbury, July 31.—At 12:45 this morning, Colonel S. M. Clement of the Twelfth regiment, N. G. P., received orders from Adjutant General Stewart at Harrisburg to mobilize his command accepting the Lock Haven and Danville companies, and proceed to Shenandoah at once. It is expected the soldiers will reach there by 5 a. m.

Williamsport, July 31.—Major Updegraff, of the Second battalion, Twelfth regiment, received orders at 2 o'clock this morning from Colonel Clement, at Sunbury, to leave at 3 a. m. for Shenandoah with the troops that he has assembled.

GOVERNOR STONE EN ROUTE.

Utica, N. Y., July 31.—Governor Stone left Paul Smith's, in the Adirondacks, at 10:25 last night, and is due at Harrisburg at 2:45 this morning, on route to Harrisburg, where he has been summoned as a result of the riots among the strikers.

REIGN OF TERROR AT SHENANDOAH.

The Town in the Hands of an Infuriated Mob.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Shenandoah, July 30.—A reign of terror, compared with which the scenes enacted during the riots of 1900 seem almost a peaceful day, is being enacted in this town tonight. Centre street, which is one of the principal streets of the town, was in the hands of an infuriated mob. Two of the borough policemen were shot, one perhaps fatally. Joseph Beddall, a leading merchant and cousin of Sheriff Beddall, was brutally clubbed to death and upwards of a score of strikers whose names at this writing could not be ascertained, were shot by policemen, and it is expected that many deaths will result. Sheriff Beddall arrived from Pottsville at 7:45 o'clock tonight, and he has taken up his headquarters at the Ferguson hotel. To an Associated Press reporter he admitted that he has asked Governor Stone to send the militia. The governor wired that if the citizens of the town petition for troops, he will be glad to send them. He has also indicated for the purpose now. It is almost certain that the troops will be here tomorrow.

The trouble started about 6 o'clock this evening, when Deputy Sheriff Thomas Beddall attempted to escort two non-union miners through the strikers' line of pickets. The workmen were dressed in their street clothes, but one of them carried a bundle under his arm, and this aroused the suspicion of the strikers. The bundle was torn from him and when it was found to contain a pistol and a revolver, the mob rushed upon the deputy and beat almost to death.

In the meantime Beddall opened fire on the mob, which had gathered by this time, and emptied his revolver. Two of the shots took effect, one man being shot in the leg and the other in the foot. The deputy and the other non-union man were now compelled to fly for their lives and took refuge in the Philadelphia and Reading railroad depot. The depot was soon surrounded by an angry mob of 5,000, which became more threatening and demonstrative every moment. Joseph Beddall, a hardware merchant and brother of the deputy sheriff, was seen making his way through the crowd in an effort to reach his brother, and the mob, thinking that he was carrying ammunition to those inside the depot, seized him and beat him with clubs and billes into insensibility. He died en route to the miners' hospital.

An Escape on an Engine.

Shortly after this, the entire borough police force arrived on the scene and escorted the deputy sheriff and his man to an engine which had been backed into the depot for that purpose. When the mob realized that their prey was about to escape, they surrounded the engine and the engineer was afraid to move. In a few moments, however, the police fired a volley, dispersing the crowd for a brief period, and the engineer turned on full steam and got away with his men. Stones were now thrown thick and fast about the heads of the police, whereupon Chief John Fry gave the order to fire. At the first volley the mob fell back, and several were seen to fall. Their retreat, however, was but momentary. They turned, and with revolvers, stones, and even a few shotguns, they charged on the little band of policemen and made them fly for their lives. The policemen turned in their flight at short intervals and fired volley after volley at their merciless pursuers, but the mob seemed thoroughly infuriated and smoking revolvers seemed to have no terrors for them. When the Lehigh railroad crossing was reached, a passing freight train blocked the progress of the police, two of whom were caught and brutally beaten. One of them, Stiney Yacovsky, will die.

The doctors of the town dressed the wounds of nearly forty strikers, all of whom were foreigners whose names could not be ascertained. It is known at midnight that four out of the six policemen were shot. Chief Fry received a slight wound in the hand; Yacovsky was shot in the hand and back and may die; Rinheiser was shot

SITUATION VIEWED AT STRIKE HEADQUARTERS

President Mitchell Refuses to Discuss the Shenandoah Trouble. Want Engineers to Return.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Wilkes-Barre, July 30.—President Mitchell was shown an Associated Press dispatch from Shenandoah tonight, giving news of a serious riot there. Mr. Mitchell said it was too bad, but in the absence of full particulars from the district officers of the miners' union, he did not care to express an opinion. It has been known, however, that ever since Monday Mr. Mitchell has been in communication with the district leaders of the miners' union in the Schuylkill region, and as he has always favored peace, it is presumed he warned his subordinates to keep their followers in control. It was Mr. Mitchell's intention to visit the Schuylkill region this week, but press of business so far has kept him at headquarters. All the coal operators here are watching developments tonight. They are anxious to know if the governor will send troops to the riot region. At the office of one of the coal companies, private information was received to the effect that the governor would not order out the troops unless a majority of the business men and property owners of Shenandoah signed a petition saying life and property was not safe.

It is reported that the Raub Coal company, of Luzerne borough, has offered to take back all its own engineers, pumpmen and firemen and give them an eight-hour day, if they will return to work at once. It is said the company has had more or less trouble in keeping its mine free from water with the new men it employed when the old hands quit work. The application of the company has been referred to the district board of United Mine Workers. It is not believed the old men will be allowed to return to work. The ruling of the board in the past has been that having refused the demands of the engineers, firemen and pumpmen when it was first made, the strikers cannot return to their old positions unless all the employees are taken back.

New York, July 30.—The funeral of the late Chief Rabbi Jacob Joseph, head of the Orthodox Hebrews of the United States, which was held here today, was the occasion of one of the most remarkable demonstrations ever witnessed in this city. A vast procession of Hebrews, Jews and Christians, gathered in the streets between the masses of Jewish mourners and the police. The streets were packed with thousands of Hebrews, the stores were generally closed and every point of vantage along the route taken by the funeral procession to the different synagogues was crowded. After the service at the house the body was taken to each of the six synagogues on the East Side, where brief services were held.

When the procession was passing the printing press factory of R. Hoe & Co., on Grand street, on its way to the cemetery, a crowd of several hundred employees of the factory emptied pails of water from the windows of an upper floor onto the spectators massed upon the sidewalk. Pail after pail, it was said, was emptied on the throng, which shouted and struggled and stampeded in vain to escape. The water, and a clothing soaked in water came down from above, and even tools, scraps of steel, bolts and a dead cat.

The angry populace, most of whom were Hebrews, retaliated by throwing back into the factory windows the missiles that fell upon them. They gathered up stones and sticks, and in a few minutes there was scarcely a whole pane of glass on the Grand street side of the factory.

Then some in the factory turned on a hose and played it indiscriminately all over the throng. The water, and a clothing soaked in water came down from above, and even tools, scraps of steel, bolts and a dead cat.

DRIVER LEWIS KILLED; MANY ARE INJURED

A Vehicle Conveying the Ball Team to Suburban Park Is Struck by an Erie Train Running 70 Miles an Hour—Charles H. Lewis, a Colored Driver, Is Instantly Killed—Nearly Every Member of the Club Injured. The Horses Killed and Dragged 200 Feet.

By Exclusive Wire from The Associated Press.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 30.—The band wagon which was conveying the Ilion base ball team to Suburban park today was struck at the Broad street crossing in Lestershire by Erie train No. 2, and the driver instantly killed and six others injured, one seriously. Both horses were also instantly killed. The dead and injured are:

The other occupants of the wagon were badly shaken up and bruised. The view of the track west of the crossing is shut off by the station and a high bluff, and the occupants of the wagon claim that the engineer of the train, John De Lancy, failed to blow his whistle or ring the bell. It is claimed by passengers that the train, which was forty minutes late, was running seventy miles an hour.

The band wagon was descending the hill toward the crossing slowly, the brake being on. The players were laughing and joking and the horses were almost on the crossing when a young boy, Harry Wheeler, of Lestershire, jumped on the wagon and tried to warn them. The driver, without thought of himself, turned to the others in the wagon and yelled to them to jump. He had plenty of time to save himself, but remained at his post, and when the train struck the horses he was thrown head foremost against a freight car and instantly killed. Catcher Shea, of the Ilion team, attempted to save the Signor boy on the front seat, but he was unsuccessful.

Pitcher Hess, and his father, who had come here today to see his son play, were on the rear of the wagon when the train struck and were hurled twenty-five feet, landing on the tracks. The wagon was turned completely around and badly damaged. The horses were dragged 250 feet. The train was half a mile before it could be stopped.
