FEARFUL EXPERIENCE ON THE MOOSICS

Party of Huckleberry Pickers from Honesdale Undergo the Fright and Peril of a Lightning Storm Near the Clouds.

The Wayne Independent of yesterday contained the following story of the terrifying experience of a party of huckleberry pickers, who were caught in a storm cloud on the top of the Moosics, a few days ago:

"A number of Honesdale people went huckleberrying on the top of the mountain about a mile from Farview, where they had an experience up among the clouds in an electrical storm that will long be remembered by them.

present at the time, about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. Constable Neary, who has been suffering from a severe cold for several days, was not well enough to go to 'Squire Williams' office, which accounts for the ball pieces not being brought to him, which would have disposed of the cases before him.

This disposal of the cases before 'Squire Williams.

Now as to the cases before Alderman Jones: They were separate and apart from the others, growing not out of the morning attack on Butler, but the one made on him in the evening. Some of the accused parties, however, were the same, which might lead 'Squire Williams to the erroneous belief he has that the cases before Alderman Jones were the same that he was supposed to try.

SUSQUEHANNA COMMENT.

What Brother Whitney Says of the Carbondale Crowd and the Megaphones—The Press Club—Other Interesting Gossip.

This is how the Susquehanna people saw the Carbondale delegation that accompanied the Crescents to that town on Tuesday.

Brother Whitney, in his usually bright and spicy letter, spreads bouquets, as follows:

THE STRIKE ARRESTS.

A Refutation of 'Squire Williams' Statements of Yesterday.

A communication appeared from 'Squire Williams, of No. 4, in the Leader of last evening, in which he was in error according to those who are on the other side.

HELD FOR LARCENY.

A Double-Headed Case Disposed of by 'Squire Mendelssohn.

A. T. Matthews, of Jermyn, was held in ball to answer at court, by 'Squire Mendelssohn, on a charge of larceny, preferred by Michael Senyock, of the same borough. Senyock's story was that Matthews swiped his Sunday trousers.

Immediately afterwards, Senyock was arrested on complaint of Matthews. Matthews swore that Senyock was indulging in sea breezes when he said the former got away with his trousers; in other words, he was some relation to Ananias.

NOT SO HERE.

A Fight Grows Out of a Jermyn Ball Game.

Justice of the Peace Isaac Mendelssohn, of Mayfield, dwelt with the climax of the ball game that happily, is never seen in Carbondale, notwithstanding the exciting contests we have here often than once in awhile.

KIND WORDS FROM MAPLE CITY.

Herbert Thompson, Tribune Contest Worker, in Honesdale.

The Wayne Independent has the following encouraging words in yesterday's issue for Herbert Thompson, of this city, one of the hustlers in The Tribune's educational contest. The Independent says:

YOUNG PEOPLE DANCE.

An Enjoyable Evening, Despite the Warm Night.

Old Humidity tried hard to roast this community last night, but despite his efforts, a good-sized assemblage of well-known young people of the town had a pleasant evening of dancing in the Burke building.

BURKE KNOWS HIS BOOK.

Michael Burke, the North Main street tenor artist, is getting quite a reputation as a base ball umpire. Yesterday he was at Susquehanna acting in that capacity in the game between the Carbondale Crescents and a Susquehanna nine.—Jermyn Correspondent.
