PAINTING CONTRACT

Union Labor Men Up in Arms Over Frank & Son Getting High School Job-Central Labor Union to Act.

be a repetition of the friction that ensued over the painting of the park fountain by non-union labor. On Wednesday night, school Directors Vannan and Evans, of the school board building committee awarded, from a number of bids, the contract for painting at the high school to H. Frank & Son. Their bid was considerably lower. Frank & Son do not employ union men and the unions are consequently in arms against the disposition of the

The strong united labor sentiment that is in Carbondale is manifesting itself and the more radical are in favor of taking some action to retrive what they deem an insult to united labor on the part of the directors who gave out the contract. The directors take the stand that it was their duty to give the contract to the lowest bidder, but the union men claim that they should have been given consideration. A meeting of the Central Labor union will be held Sunday at which some action will probably be taken. MISS MAXWELL'S MARRIAGE.

Wedding in Missouri of a Former

Carbondale Girl. The following report of the marriage of Miss Marcella Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Maxwell, former well-known residents of this city, appears in the Carthage, Mo., Democrat

'A surprise in Carthage yesterday was the wedding of George Barclay Stump and Miss Marcella Maxwell, both prominent young people of this city, at St. Peter's cathedral in Jop-

"The ceremony occurred at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Father Hoverstadt. The couple were accompanied by Miss Mamie Maxwell, sister of the bride, and J. D.

Harris, of Carthage. 'Although many thought the wedding to be an event of the near future, it was sooner than expected and was Texas, where he is interested in oil wells. He will leave today for Port Arthur to look after his business and to assist his relative, David Stump, in the publication of the Port Arthur

"A home will be prepared for his bride there and she will follow in a month in the meantime remaining at the hom of her parents in Carthage,

"The bridal party took supper a Joplin and then came to Carthage, where an elegant reception was given at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. James Maxwell, on North

"Mr. Stump is a Carthage bred boy, a printer by trade. He has spent the greater part of his life in Carthage and is considered unusually fine in his work. Also he a fine musician and a valuable part of the Light Guard band, which is loser, Miss Maxwell came to Carthag only a few years ago from Pennsylvania and has a large circle of friends.'

A DELIGHTFUL EVENING.

Successful Dance Under Patronage of Silas and Roswell McMullen.

The informal dance given by Messrs Silas and Roswell McMullen, in Burke's hall, last evening, proved to be one of the swellest of the season, the participants giving the event a decidedly fashonable air. A delightful social time was enjoyed. Prof. Firth provided splendid dance music. Messrs. McMullen, the hosts, scored quite a social triumph in their conduct of the enter-though, at the same time, heartfelt wishes for his success will accompany him to the west. His personality attracted friends in all his relations and his manly qualities gave him a rare standing in this community for the short time he was here. When Captain Murphy relinquished his duties here, a month ago, owing to the severe depression following the coal strike, the schools had a favorable place for him in Philadelphia. In the hastened by a sudden business call to meantime the opening at Cincinnati was offered, and accordingly Mr. Murphy accepted the change, which will be away ahead of the Carbondale field,

The National Debt.

Washington, Aug. 1-The monthly state-nent of the national debt shows that at the close of business, July 31, 1902, the lebt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to 4973.910.3s7, which is an increase as compared with July 1, of 24.453.126. This increase is accounted for by the reduction in the amount of cash on hand
