

ATTORNEY BYRNE ANSWERS CRITICS

Regrets to Observe Statements Appearing in the Catholic Press Regarding Government.

NO PROSELYTING IN THE PHILIPPINES

Catholics Out Number Protestants Three to One in the Philippines. America Unlike Any Other Nation in the Treatment of Subjects in Colonies—The American Government in Arranging for Disposal of Land Held by Friars Would Follow Out the Identical Principle with the Irish Land Problem.

Atlantic City, Aug. 4.—The "embarkation day" reunion of the Knights of Columbus came to an end tonight with a banquet. There were 500 covers. Prayer was offered by Rev. William V. Cantwell, chaplain of the New Jersey council. The orator of the evening was William Michael Byrne, of Delaware, whose topic was "Some Issues of the Hour."

Other speakers were: Congressman John J. Gardner, of New Jersey, and Henry Burk, of Pennsylvania; E. A. Tibbitts, ex-district attorney of New York; Thomas Harrison Cummings, national organizer; George F. Monaghan, of Detroit, Mich., and Frank Smith, editor of the Pittsburg Catholic.

Previous to the banquet, the following cablegram was forwarded to Pope Leo XIII. at Rome: "Your spiritual children, Knights of Columbus of America, in meeting assembled at Atlantic City, rejoicing in the length of your pontificate, felicitate your holiness on the memorable achievements of your auspicious reign, and rejoice at the spirit of amity you manifest for the American Republic."

William Michael Byrne, United States attorney for Delaware, responded to the toast "Some Issues of the Hour." He gave a vigorous discourse on the relations of church and state in the Philippines. Mr. Byrne spoke of the action of the Knights of Columbus of Delaware, and throughout the country, in protesting against the misrepresentation of Catholic interests in certain recent publications, and held that as Catholics demanded from Protestants the strictest veracity in the printed word, so they should in turn observe these strict standards when treating of topics affecting the conduct of their Protestant fellow-countrymen.

In opening his address, Mr. Byrne said: "I wish it distinctly understood that I in no way seek to obtain for them any approval of any kind from the Knights of Columbus as an organization, nor do I make them as a Knight of Columbus, but simply and merely as an American citizen, profoundly interested in questions affecting my church and country."

"I believe that no Catholic editor in America would allow to appear in his paper any statement of a fact as true which he knew to be false. But this is not enough. A scrupulously honest man states a fact as a fact which he does not know to be true and I regret to observe that the statements appearing in the Catholic press charging the government with proselyting in the Philippines were made without that care of investigation which the gravity of the charge demanded."

Some Misstatements. Mr. Byrne stated that it was not true that Protestant clergymen were employed as public school teachers in the Philippines and showed that there are about 3,500 Catholic teachers in the Philippine schools. In addition Catholic teachers may give instruction in the Catholic religion in the school buildings three days every week.

"Surely," said Mr. Byrne, "with our Catholic teachers outnumbering Protestants three to one, with the young Filipino already grounded in the practices of the Catholic faith with an adequate allowance of time to Catholic priests to give these school children in the school rooms instruction in the doctrines of the Catholic religion, it is a treacherous and somewhat conscious weakness of our cause if we frantically accuse the government of systematic proselyting because a small proportion of the teachers in the Philippines happen to be Protestants. The constitution of the United States prevents the government from passing any law respecting the establishment of a religion and the spirit of that provision is equally preventive of any action by the government tending to change a religion.

ARCHBISHOP RYAN AGREES WITH PRESIDENT

He Believes that the Present Flurry Among Catholics of America Will Soon Subside.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 4.—Archbishop Ryan, after his visit to Sagamore Hill, said that he agreed with the president and Governor Taft on the stand they are taking toward the friars in the Philippines.

He believes that the present flurry among Catholics will subside, and the church as a whole will realize that the president is acting for the best so far as the United States is concerned.

THE WEST VIRGINIA OPERATORS COMBINE

A Movement on Foot to Better the Conditions.

Cincinnati, Aug. 4.—An important meeting of West Virginia coal operators was held in this city today, looking toward what the operators term a betterment of the conditions which they have to contend with at this time. The first and most important question is the uniformity of rates for the coming winter, and some of the operators are authority for the statement that the prices will advance within the next few months, because of the great losses which the companies have been obliged to withstand in the way of strikes.

A matter which was considered, also, was the shipment of coal to the Lake Superior regions, the control of which was consummated in Chicago and which was to become effective in September.

SITUATION IN FRANCE REGARDED AS GRAVE

Cardinal Rampolla Still in Favor of Temporarily with Government.

Rome, Aug. 4.—The Vatican regards the present situation in France resulting from the closing of unauthorized congregational schools, as most grave, as it is now believed to be the intention of M. Combes, the French premier, to denounce the concordat. It is reported that Cardinal Rampolla, papal secretary, is still in favor of temporizing with France, fearing that the hostile attitude of the Vatican toward that country would lead to graver complications. Some of the cardinals advocate an entire rupture with France, thus anticipating that republic and preventing the passage of the law of further anti-clerical laws.

SENATOR HANNA HONORED

Seven or Eight Hundred Employes Present Him with a Cane.

Cleveland, Aug. 4.—The seven or eight hundred employes of the Cleveland City Railway company, of which Senator Hanna is president, met in a downtown hall tonight and presented Senator Hanna with a valuable cane. In acknowledging the gift, Senator Hanna expressed his sincere thanks to his employes for their gift, and incidentally spoke on the relations that he hopes soon to exist between capital and labor. Concerning the anthracite strike, Mr. Hanna said:

"When the great anthracite strike was threatening the Civic Federation worked hard for weeks to avert it, to bring men and employers together, but failed. After it was on, we worked hard to stop it, but failed. It is my personal satisfaction to know that the organization made at this time that the men would not go back on their word has been kept and that a sympathetic strike has been averted. I told the federation that there would be no sympathetic strike among the bituminous miners. I believe in manhood. Labor organizations are not things which can be sued for breach of contract. They have no corporate existence, but I would rather have the promise of a laboring man, backed only by his sense of honor and his manhood, than any agreement which might be enforced by law. Manhood and integrity are the same, whether they belong to a miner, a street railway man or a boss. For myself, I have no higher ambition than to work for the purpose of bringing capital and labor nearer together, and to live out my life in Cleveland, where I have lived for fifty-two years."

SUITS AGAINST BEEF TRUST

Are Sent a Step Forward by Filing of the Demurrers by the Attorneys.

ARGUMENT ADVANCED BY THE PACKERS

Effects of Filing Demurrers Is Technically to Admit All Allegations Charged in the Bill—No Further Steps Will Be Taken for Some Time Hence.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—The government suit against the alleged beef trust was sent a step forward here today by the filing in the United States circuit court of demurrers of the defendants, both as individuals and as corporations. The demurrers set up at considerable length that the complaint on which an injunction is asked is insufficient. It is maintained that the suit is multifarious, and if allowed to stand would tend to congest the business of the courts. In specific terms the demurrers assert that so much of the bill of complaint as asks a discovery of the secret interests of the defendants and their business methods "has not stated such a case as would entitle the complainant to the relief prayed for."

The effect of the filing of the demurrers is technically to admit all the allegations charged in the bill of complaint. The argument advanced in support of the packers' position is that admitting the truth of the charge, no sufficient ground has been shown for the issuance of the petitioned writ. The instrument was signed by John S. Miller, counsel for all the packers. "If the demurrer is sustained by the court, the original complaint may be amended, and if overruled the defendants have the privilege of arguing. It is not expected that any further steps will be taken in the case by either side until about October 1, when the federal judges return from their vacations."

Storms came and went, but the rooster did not change color, and Peterson started an investigation in an attempt to recover the $30 check which he had given for the device. He found the check at the village bank. It had accomplished what the rooster failed to do. It had turned to $30. The swindler has not been apprehended.

BATTLE OVER JULY OATS

Judge Chetlain, of Chicago, Issues Twenty-nine More Injunctions.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Judge Chetlain today issued twenty-nine more injunctions against the Chicago oat growers, stating that being vexed over the recent corner in July oats. At the request of Waite, Thorburn & Co., the complainants in the former injunction suits, nineteen bills were issued against the Bank of Montreal, restraining its officers from paying over margins to as many holders of trade bills as whom the complainants had made short sales of July oats. There is a marked difference in the nature of the petition on these bills, however, from those first granted. The petition this time, instead of alleging conspiracy to corner July oats, states that the margins can be paid only by the illegal use of an authority inequitable and unjust. Ten of the injunctions issued today were at the complaint of Pratt and Buckley and other board firms. These latter injunctions are against individual board firms to prevent them from collecting margins. The amount of money involved in the Waite and Thorburn cases is about $20,000; in the others about twice that sum.

PRIEST ATTACKS STRIKE LEADERS

Says Everybody Was Contented Until Mitchell and His Assistants Began Their Movement.

Shenandoah, Aug. 4.—At the 8 o'clock mass on Sunday morning, Rev. Father H. F. O'Reilly, pastor of the Catholic Church of the Annunciation, delivered an address on the strike which was the talk of Shenandoah all day Sunday and was the theme of much comment today. This is what he said: "It is a law of God and of man that every human being has a right to earn enough to feed himself and his family. If his children cry for bread, he has the right to get that bread honestly, and no man living has a right to deprive him of his bread. The man who interferes is a lawbreaker and an enemy to public good. I know that there are men in my congregation who would never do a thing that didn't want to quit work, but they would go back tomorrow if they did not fear for their lives. I say this is wrong. You should have the manhood to go back to work and defend this organization known as the United Mine Workers. It is a blood-stained organization, and it will be blood-stained until it ceases to exist. It is wrong to promote crime and protect criminals. Every one was happy and contented here until Mitchell and Fahy came and organized this strike. It is not respectable, and I wouldn't give two cents for the opinion of either of them. They draw big salaries and live on the best in the homes of the state, and the other side, the mine workers, are starving. They sell me Fahy offered $100,000 to the sheriff to suppress disorder. The sheriff was wise in refusing his help. If he had, God help this community. If the mine workers really wanted to show that they favored peace, why didn't they get out and capture the murderers of that young man who was clubbed to death by the strike? Why didn't they go to Bedford Springs when it happened, but it made me ashamed to say I came from Shenandoah. I would urge you not to sign the petition for the withdrawal of the troops. Some misguided men are signing it. I for one say the troops are needed here. If they are taken away, God only knows how many lives will be sacrificed. They are not against the strikers; they are here to protect them. I have seen many strikes, my children, and I say to you, even if you, the cost is too great. You men who spend time in loafing around the saloons during a strike know only half the story. I go into the homes of the strikers, and the other side, it's the women and children who go hungry, who live in terror of riot and bloodshed, who suffer most. You should consider them."
