

The News of Carbondale.

DISTINGUISHED RED MEN.

Great Sachem Charles R. Willet, of Harrisburg, and Grand Keeper of Wampum Thomas K. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, Entertained by Anthracite City Brethren.

Lackawanna tribe, No. 208, held a very interesting meeting last evening, when the great sachem of this state, Brother Charles R. Willet, of Harrisburg, and Brother Thomas K. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, great keeper of wampum, were present.

Great Sachem Willet gave an interesting and profitable talk pertaining to the order, which was appreciated by the members.

Brother Donnelly, better known as the silver-tongued orator, was at one time a prominent worker among labor organizations in Philadelphia. He spoke for some time upon the good being done by the Red Men in this state, presenting statistics to prove that they are one of the most substantial of this country.

Brothers Willet and Donnelly are on a tour of inspection of this section and have been on the road since July 31. From this city they go to Scranton to visit Panoma tribe of that city. Bro. Lewis, who has been in Arizona for nearly two years, also spoke very interestingly in regard to the habits and customs of the aborigines of that country.

Lackawaxen tribe members were quite flattered to entertain last night's visitors, and if their coming was not somewhat unexpected, an elaborate programme in their honor would undoubtedly have been prepared and observed. The coming of Grand Wampum Keeper Donnelly was a particular reason for felicitation, as he is one of the most distinguished Red Men in the country, a man of high ideals, culture and ability. The remembrance of this, his first visit to Carbondale, will be forever cherished by his brethren of the Anthracite city.

BULL DOG GOT AWAY.

Exciting Chewing Match at Main Street and Seventh Avenue.

A man walked down Main street, between 7 and 7:30 yesterday morning proudly leading a bull dog; one with a funny face. At Seventh avenue, the animal with the corrugated features got away. He made for a bunch of shy curs that stood shivering against the Floradora posters on the bill boards on the corner and in an instant there was somethin' doin'.

The air was filled with a chorus of yelps that rivaled a sausage factory that you sometimes read about in the funny papers. The puppies and their bigger brothers scattered like a crowd at the old Blazing Stump when Constable Ed Neary hove in sight. Bull dogs are not known to chew the rag, but they can chew dog meat until further orders. This one did the same thing. He got a dog between his jaws that would scarcely make a good-size breakfast; and he held on like Honesdale is clinging to the game that it won from us. There was excitement galore while the yellow dog's continued.

"Are you on?" if asked, Mr. Bulldog would probably be answered with a bob of his abbreviated tail that would mean "terrific yer life; and you can't loose me." After much apprehension, anxiety, excitement, fear, trembling and a tolerable glottal of cussing, the tenacious,狗-like dog let loose, but not until he had torn one dog, and made a few others feel that the sausage man was after them.

The man with the dog resumed his trip, prouder than when he struck the fateful corner.

AL. JONES' SUCCESS.

He Is Prospering in Trenton—Will Move His Family There.

It will be pleasant news to his wide circle of friends in this valley to learn that A. R. Jones, formerly of this city, late half owner of the Saturday Review, is prospering in his new field in Trenton, N. J., and is meeting with the success that was predicted when he left Carbondale for the hustling Jersey capital.

An interesting announcement, which can be taken as an indication of Mr. Jones' success, is that he proposes to move his family to Trenton. Mrs. Jones and their two children, who remained behind in Carbondale when he left for New Jersey, in the spring will go to Trenton next Monday to take up their residence, provided the change agrees with Mrs. Jones, who has been in frail health for some time. Her condition now, however, is much improved, which will be gratefully received among her many friends. The

A test was made to find if just the leaving off of coffee alone would produce an equal condition of health as when coffee is left off. Postum Food Coffee used in its place.

A man from Clinton, Wis., made the experiment. He says: "About a year ago I left off drinking coffee and tea and began to use Postum. For several years previous my system had been in a wretched condition. I always had a thickly furled, bilious tongue and foul breath, often accompanied with severe headaches. I was troubled all the time with chronic constipation, so that I was morose in disposition and almost discouraged."

At the end of the first week after making the change from coffee to Postum I witnessed a marvelous change in myself. My once coated tongue cleared off, my appetite increased, breath became sweet and the headaches ceased entirely. One thing I wish to state emphatically, you have in Postum a virgin remedy for constipation, for I certainly had about the worst case ever known among mortals and I am completely cured of it. I feed in every way like a new person."

During the last summer I concluded that I would experiment to see if the Postum kept me in good shape or whether I had gotten well from just leaving off coffee. So I quit Postum for quite a time and drank cocoa and water. I found out before two weeks were past that something was wrong and I began to get constive as of old. It was evident the liver was not working properly, so I became convinced it was not the avoidance of coffee alone that cured me, but the great value came from the regular use of Postum."

news of her contemplated removal will be received with universal regret.

ANENT THE CONTRACT.

A Correspondent's Opinion of the Directors' Action.

In the matter of the union painters' flutter about the painting of the central school building, a taxpayer suggests to the Tribune man that the non-union citizens of Carbondale pay two-thirds of three-fourths of the school taxes of this city and he believes will uphold the directors in their awarding the painting contract to the lowest bidder.

MANY VISITORS AT THE LAKES

Long-Delayed Exodus of Campers and Sojourners Has Commenced in earnest.

The exodus of campers and sojourners at Crystal lake and Newton, which was held in check by the rainy weather, has commenced in earnest now, and the former pretty resort has numerous Carbondaleans, besides visitors from afar, about its shores.

Fern Hall has a host of boarders, from as far south as Washington, D. C., and including a representation of all the principal towns in the two valleys. Two camping parties are now holding forth at the lake. The Strippings are in Stephen Whitman's roomy cottage, and the Ping Pongs are in the grove near Crystal Inn.

Both had many visitors yesterday. Among the callers at the former were Misses Veronica Gorman and Kitte Godwin, William McHale, P. V. Donnelly, Martin O'Malley, Carbondale.

Miss Hazel Wheeler is the guest of the Misses Frieder, at their cottage.

ARCHBALD TO-DAY.

Noise Producers Will Go Up Against the "Pets" On Duffy's Field at 3 O'clock.

After today the honor of the sports of the borough of Carbondale will have been satisfied. The dream, the ambition, the longing of the town of "Politico" fame will be realized. The team from the home of the White Oak colony, the Klondike mine and the O. & W. washers will go up against the Crescents—the pets this afternoon.

The game will be called at three o'clock on Duffy's field, which is now an historic battle ground of the Anthracite city.

The genial and witty Squire Gildea will be our guest, together with a host of rooters, who have been heard in whispers rooting for visiting teams during the recent games in this city. To accommodate and rightly receive them, we have reserved the front row of the bleachers, where they may sit, while they are on good behavior, which it is hoped will last until after the third inning at least. Furthermore, they will be saluted from the press box at reasonable intervals, through the Press club's megaphones. This is a special honor which it is hoped will be appreciated by Archbaldians.

Our Owney will pitch, which means that he will be the special target for the men from six miles down the valley. There was some thought of warming up another pitcher, who is likely to become member of the Crescents, but later judgment prevailed and "Owney" will do the trick in order to spare the Archbald crowd the disappointment of not seeing what a decided rarity in that borough, namely, the champion pitcher of the valley pitch a game as it ought to be pitched. We likewise trust that this consideration will not be overlooked.

It might be suggested that the Crescents' rooters need not specially exert themselves today; Archbald can make enough noise at one time for a dozen games. Nuf sed.

The next game on Duffy's field will be with the South Scranton team, which played the 12-inning game here a few weeks ago.

The Crescents will play two games at Lake Lodore this month; one on the day of the Delaware & Hudson trainmen's clam bake, the other on Aug. 30 the occasion of the Silk Mill excursion. The opposing teams will be announced in a few days.
