DICKSON HAS STARTED UP

THIRD SCRANTON COLLIERY TO RESUME WORK.

Delaware and Hudson Company Succeeds in Getting One of Its Collieries in Operation—Coal Hoisted and Sent Through the Breaker.

The Dickson colliery of the Delaware & Hudson company—the Calico—at Green Ridge resumed operations yesterday.

Superintendent Rose would say nothing concerning the side of the force operating the colliery, but averred that it was large enough to warrant continuous operation, and that all the hands were old employees.

He further stated that at this colliery for two weeks past coal has been sent out and the crowd that gathered about the strikers' camp has been broken.

This makes three collieries now in operation in this city. The other two, the Oxford and Cayuga, continue to work without any serious interference from the strikers. In fact it seems that the strikers are not greatly grieved at seeing work resuming.

Superintendent Tobey, of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western mining department, said, yesterday, that another of the company's collieries will resume work today or tomorrow. He declined to say which colliery it will be. He did say, however, that it will not be the Woodward. The company was ready to start the Woodward last Monday morning, but the fact got into the papers and the crowd that gathered about the colliery frightened off the men who intended to return to work.

For that reason the company proposes, hereafter, to keep to itself its intention to start a colliery.

HOUSE DYNAMITED. One of the most dastardly attempts at destruction, as a result of the strike, occurred at Richmondville yesterday morning, when the dwelling house occupied by James Elias and family, was partially destroyed by dynamite, and the occupants narrowly escaped serious injury.

Prior to the inauguration of the strike, Elias was employed at the Richmondville breaker, and remained out until recently, when he returned to work in order to provide for his family.

Monday night, the family retired early and shortly after midnight were aroused by a terrific explosion, which broke the windows in the house, and sent away a portion of the front of the building.

A stick of dynamite had been placed on the porch beneath one of the front windows.

Elias, his wife and child, who were in the house, were thrown from their beds and a narrow escape from serious injury. The house is owned by Dr. J. C. Bateson, of this city.

Fifty men left here and one hundred more left Wilkes-Barre, yesterday, to work in the soft coal regions. Four Wilkes-Barre men are preparing to leave today for the same place. An agent is in these parts looking for men to work in the iron ore mines at Port Oram, N. J.

President Mitchell, of the Mine Workers, who has been here for two days on the street car arbitration, returns to Wilkes-Barre today.

COMPANY TO THE RESCUE. James H. Torrey, Joseph O'Brien and Robert J. Murray, counsel for the Delaware and Hudson company, went before Judge Noyes yesterday morning and secured the release of John Valuk from the county jail.

Valuk is employed at the Dickson colliery of the Delaware and Hudson company. He was on his way to work Monday night, when he was met by Joseph P. Peleo. Some trouble resulted and Peleo had him arrested for disorderly conduct. He was taken before Alderman Myers and committed to jail.

At a meeting of the board of mine examiners it was decided to investigate the reports that men not having certificates are mining coal at the various collieries, and if found true, to take such action as may be necessary.

This decision was drawn up in the form of a resolution as follows: Scranton, Aug. 4, 1902. We, the members of the board of mine examiners of the Second Inspection district, having met in the court house Monday, the fourth day of August, will continue to meet the first Monday of each month, for the examination of mine certificates to the public at large.

It has been brought to the notice of mine examiners that there are men mining coal at some of the collieries that have not had a certificate of mining and other men have received them in the First Inspection district and have not yet registered in the Second Inspection district, which is a violation of the state law.

We, the members of the said board, having come to the conclusion that we will have to do with the matter, and after taking steps to enforce the state law.

P. J. Mullane, Member of Board.

PRINTERS WON BALL GAME. Team from Globe Store Defeated by Score of 8-5.

An exciting game of baseball was yesterday played between nines representing the printers of the International Correspondence schools, and the Globe store. The former team won out by the score of 8-5. Play was begun at 6 o'clock last evening on the Ash street circus grounds, with Fallon in the box for the school's team, and Major the opposing twirler.

Until the seventh inning the score was 5-3 in favor of the Globe store team. Then the printers made a batting rally and scored five runs, two of which were decidedly attributable to a long drive for two bases by Will Burke, their second catcher. A feature of the game was a home run smash by Catcher Cornish of the winning team.

SEVEN CASES TRANSFERRED. Insurance Suits to Be Tried in the Federal Courts.

Judge E. N. Willard, attorney for the defendants, yesterday, transferred from the court of common pleas of Lackawanna county to the United States circuit court for the Middle district of Pennsylvania, at Scranton, seven insurance cases, arising over the insurance that was refused to be paid when the Summit Dairy company's plant at the Clark's Summit burned down. The cases are as follows:

No. 4, October term, 1902: George E. Taylor against Springfield Fire and Marine company, of Springfield, Mass. No. 5, October term, 1902: George E. Taylor against Hartford Fire Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn.

No. 6, October term, 1902: George E. Taylor against Royal Insurance company, of Liverpool, England. No. 7, October term, 1902: George E. Taylor against Phoenix Insurance company, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

No. 8, October term, 1902: George E. Taylor against Phoenix Insurance company, of Hartford, Conn. No. 9, October term, 1902: Summit Dairy company against Phoenix Insurance company, of London.

No. 10, October term, 1902: Summit Dairy company against The Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance company.

LIVELY RUNAWAY. One of W. H. Pierce's Drivers Injured on Adams Avenue.

Two of W. H. Pierce's wagons collided on Adams avenue at noon yesterday. The horses were frightened and ran away, and the drivers sustained severe injuries.

Sheldon Whithers, who resides in the rear of 808 North Washington avenue, was thrown from one of the wagons, and was badly bruised. He was taken to Dr. Gardner's office where it was ascertained that no bones were broken.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES. D. H. Canouse brought suit against Old Forge borough yesterday to recover $500 for damage done a horse and wagon which went into an unprotected trench on the main street of the borough. F. E. Boyle and L. P. Wedeman represent the plaintiff.

The hotel license of Stephen Muranko, of Olyphant, was yesterday transferred by Judge Edward Kovtoko. Muranko in his deposition said he could not continue business because of having failed on account of the strike.

GODFREY IS TO REMAIN

WILL CONTINUE TO CONDUCT HOTEL JERMYN.

His Lease Extended for Five Years at a Meeting, Yesterday, with the Executors of the Jermy Estate.

Will Spend $25,000 on Improvements to the Building and a Goodly Sum in Refurnishing—Interesting Story of Hotel's Reputation as Narrated by George B. Jermy.

Fred S. Godfrey yesterday completed negotiations with the executors of the John Jermy estate for a five year extension to his lease on Hotel Jermy.

There was some talk a few months ago that there had been a disagreement as to the rental terms and that at the end of his present lease, next April, Mr. Godfrey would give up the hotel business in this city and go to New York. This, however, was simply talk. Mr. Godfrey and Joseph J. and George B. Jermy met, yesterday, by appointment and after a ten minutes conference, consummated the deal by which Mr. Godfrey continues as proprietor of the hotel and reached an agreement by which the owner is to spend $25,000 in improving the property and the lessee is to put in a goodly sum in refurnishing it.

The hotel has been conducted under Mr. Godfrey's management since it was opened six years ago. In that time it has come to be known as one of the very best hostleries in the country. Indeed many of the drummers declare it to be the very best hotel in the United States, in the way of giving a guest his money's worth. There is scarcely any question but that it is the "best for the money" anywhere.

The reputation the hotel has attained is indicated by an instance related by George B. Jermy. He was traveling in Switzerland a year ago and one night put up at a small and uninviting Alpine inn. At the far end of the table at which he was one of a large number of diners, sat a man and his wife. During the course of the meal the man was seen to look disparagingly at the food and heard to say: "What a cheap hotel Jermy's here." Mr. Jermy, of course was much interested and at the conclusion of the meal sought out the man and asked him what Hotel Jermy he had made reference to at the dinner. The reply was: "Oh a hotel over in America, at a place called Scranton, where my wife and I stopped for a few days on our way here from St. Paul. Its the greatest hotel we ever encountered."

Mr. Jermy introduced himself by saying "My father owns that place." The man from St. Paul excused himself to his wife and accompanied Mr. Jermy to the dairy or some other place to toast Hotel Jermy.

It is not saying too much to make the assertion that the Hotel Jermy, under Mr. Godfrey's capable management, has done as much for any other of Scranton's institutions in making the town celebrated. Before its existence, it was no uncommon thing for traveling men who had to stay in these parts for a considerable length of time to go to the Wyoming Valley hotel in Wilkes-Barre to make their headquarters.

Just what improvements are to be made on the hotel property have not been divulged further than that the machinery in the basement and the floor of the lobby are to be replaced.

TO SHOOT AT MONTROSE. Thirteenth's Rifle Team Will Practice at 1,000 Yard Range.

Colonel I. A. Watres is in favor of giving the Thirteenth regiment's rifle team practice on a strange range, before it leaves here for the state matches at Mt. Gretna, and it is therefore very likely that Lieutenant Lewis B. Carter will take his marksmen to Montrose, a week from today.

Practice will be conducted there at the 1000 yard range. Last year's team also shot at Montrose, before going to the state range. Lieutenant Carter is feeling highly elated over the splendid showing his team has been making in practice, and is confident the Thirteenth will be heard from, when the time arrives for the distribution of prizes. Every man on the team this year is an able, experienced shot, and at least two of the men ought to make the state team.
