Big Chiefs of the Improved Order of Red Men Here—Sons of Cambria Entertain—Other News Notes.

Panooka tribe, No. 141, Improved Order of Red Men, held a very interesting meeting last night in Hari-Garl hall. The great sachem of the state, Charles R. Willets, of Harrisburg, and Thomas K. Donnelly, of Philadelphia, great chief of records, were present.

Great Sachem Charles Willets gave an interesting and profitable talk on the Red Men's order, which was greatly appreciated by all the members. Past Great Inchoonee Donnelly, who was at one time a prominent worker among labor organizations in Philadelphia and one who has done much to elevate the working class, spoke for some time on the good being done by the Red Men in this state. He presented statistics to prove that the order was one of the most substantial in the country. Interesting and instructive speeches were also made by John T. Howe, of No. 105; Past Sachem Cole, of No. 37; Mr. Warner, of No. 239; Thomas Lowry and John R. Ball, of No. 141; H. Geiss, of No. 105; William Jeffrey, of No. 229; Mr. Miller, of No. 5, in Philadelphia, and Mr. Walters, of No. 105.

Chiefs Willets and Donnelly are on a tour of inspection and have been on the road since July 23. Panooka tribe, No. 141, and its members were quite flattered to entertain the visitors of last evening.

Great Chief of Records Donnelly is one of the most distinguished Red Men in the country. A man of high ideas, culture and ability. The remembrance of this visit of the great chiefs will be long cherished by their brothers of the hunting grounds of Scranton.

An entertainment and smoker was enjoyed after the speeches.

Pretty Church Wedding.

Yesterday morning occurred one of the prettiest church weddings of the season, when Miss Rose Caravan, of Pleasant street, was united in marriage to Thomas F. Hopkins, of Pottsville, at St. Patrick's church. The bride party entered the church to the low, sweet strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin," as played by Miss Mame Johnson, and passing up the main aisle, met Rev. J. J. Dunn at the altar, where the solemn words were spoken that united them. Mendelssohn's march was played as a recessional.

Miss Lucy Farrell, of Olyphant, was maid of honor, and James O'Hara, of Elmira, acted as best man. The bride was charmingly attired in white broadcloth and carried a beautiful bouquet.

through the window, but upon going out into the court could find no trace of the perpetrator. There is no clue as to who the guilty party was, but it is supposed to be the same one who fired several shots at the same house on Saturday morning.

Before the Alderman.

William Yourblot, of 2020 Jackson street, swore out a warrant before Alderman Noone charging John Bilski, of Twenty-first street, with assault and battery and calling him "scab." The prosecutor claims that the defendant assaulted him on South Washington avenue, and also stole from him, at the same time, a silver dollar. After the assault he called him "scab" and other names. Bilski has not been apprehended as yet.

Stanley Bailey was arrested on a warrant sworn out by E. E. Sheip, of Lackawanna avenue, before Alderman Noone. Sheip claims he traded horses with Bailey and after the trade a man from Binghamton came and claimed the horse which Bailey had given him. The Binghamton man gave proof that the horse was stolen from him. Sheip gave the horse up and then swore out the warrant for Bailey. At the hearing, the alderman tried to get them to settle the matter themselves, but as they refused to do this, he placed Bailey under $500 bail.

ARRAIGNED FOR FALSE PROTEST.

Peter Mulligan was arraigned before Alderman Lentes last evening on a charge of false protest, preferred by Messrs. Smith and Murphy, of the Cedar avenue grocers. Some time ago, Mulligan gave them an order for goods to the amount of $7.50, claiming he was employed in the department of public works. The goods were delivered and later the firm learned that no man bearing that name was in the city's employ.

Again, recently, he ordered more goods, and paid cash for them, but these were not delivered, as the money was applied to the old account. The firm was then sued for not delivering the goods and last night's suit was the outcome.

Mulligan claimed he had worked for the city at the time he gave the first order, and Alderman Lentes postponed the case until Friday to give him a chance to prove his statement.

Laid at Rest.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Schieber took place yesterday from the family residence, 1205 Cedar avenue. Many friends of the family visited the house to pay their last respects, and there was also a large attendance at St. Mary's German Catholic church, where services were conducted by Rev. Peter Christ.

Father Straub officiated at the Twentieth Ward cemetery, where interment was made. The pall bearers were Messrs. John P. Phillips, Philip Myers, Stephen Knapp and George Miller. The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Klein.

A Serenade and Social.

John Zeis, who returned to his home recently, after a long absence, was pleasantly surprised last evening by a large party of friends. The Mountain Lake Citizens' band also attended and rendered a number of selections, under the leadership of Richard Lucko. Games of various kinds were indulged in, and refreshments were served at a seasonable hour.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Picture of an Old Resident, Who Has Reached the Age of Ninety.

Before Alderman Lentes.

George Lohmann, whose picture is here presented, is probably the oldest resident in South Scranton, having passed his ninetieth birthday last April. The old gentleman is in good health and spirits, and being of a genial disposition, has a large acquaintance and is highly esteemed in the community.

He was born in Bavaria, Germany, in 1812, and came to this country, settling at Honesdale in 1850. In 1866, he came to Scranton, where he has resided since at 423 Willow street. As a member of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, of which he is a charter member, he has been prominently identified with church matters.

Last year he celebrated his golden wedding, and recently successfully passed through the ordeal of a severe and delicate operation. Mr. Lohmann is the father of Louis and John Lohmann, the well-known central city hotel-men. One other member of the family, besides his wife, is living in this city—Mrs. George Schantz, of South Scranton.

The old gentleman is hearty and well, and passes the twilight of life in visiting friends, when his garden and flowers do not require his attention. He looks as though he would easily reach the century mark.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT DELAY.

Reduction in Tax Levy Prevents Needed City Improvements.

Complaints are almost daily heard in the city hall, regarding the necessity for the various city improvements which have been indefinitely postponed, by the reduction in the tax levy, out of the funds raised by which the improvements were to have been paid for. As was stated in The Tribune's report, the ordinance was amended upon its third and final reading to a form providing for a decreased levy. This has resulted in the postponement of repair work on a number of city streets, and on the rebuilding of several of the
