STRIKE ON FOR THREE MONTHS. OUTLINE OF THE CONDITIONS NOW OBTAINING. Losses Consequent Upon the Strike So Far Will Not Fall Short of $40,000,000—Main Hope of the Miners Lies in the Younger Men Going to Other Fields for Work—Alleged Murderer of Watchman Sweeney Captured—Warrants Out for Throop Strikers—President Mitchell Here.

Today ends the third month of the miners' strike, and finds both sides declaring with apparent sincerity that victory is assured. There has been no very pronounced change in the situation in these three months. The companies have succeeded in operating nearly all the washeries and within the past two weeks four collieries have been gotten under operation with fairly good-sized forces. In the Luzerne and Schuylkill regions some coal has been run through a breaker here and there, but as yet none of the mines have succeeded in getting under way. It was expected the bringing of troops to Shenandoah would result in the starting up of a few collieries there, but this expectation has not been realized. It is said, though, that several places are in good shape for starting and likely to be in operation in the course of another week.

The miners' greatest claim is that they are standing firm with unbroken ranks. Not much is being said by them regarding their financial condition. If none but those in absolute need apply for help, they declare, they will have money enough to carry on the campaign indefinitely. Their greatest hopes lie in the strikers becoming self-supporting, and to that end the young men are being urged to go to other fields to work. Thousands have already left for the soft coal regions, and a large number of foreigners have taken advantage of the idleness to run over to their native land on a visit or to work on the farms.

WAITING PATIENTLY. The general public of the anthracite regions seems to have settled down contentedly to await results, satisfied that the losses and hardships the companies and the men are suffering will make another strike an unlikely thing for many years.

The outside world is clamoring for an end of the conflict and calling upon the operators to break up the strike or make some concession that will effect a peaceable ending. The operators reply to these demands that they can do nothing more than they are doing and that the strike can only end by the men surrendering. Under no consideration, the operators declare, will they grant any concession.

What the strike has cost thus far in loss to the operators and men, is not easy of computation. The operators have lost the profits on 15,000,000 tons of coal and paid out a big sum for fixed charges and extra operating help without any returns. The men have lost in wages about $12,000,000. The total loss to operators, men and the local business community can safely be put at $40,000,000. The operators will regret the losses to some extent by reason of the fact that they will sell great quantities of coal at fancy prices for some time after the strike closes.

During the past few days there have been few developments of note in the local situation. All the collieries and washeries continue to work, with the exception of the National washery at Minooka, which had to shut down because the pumpmen at the mine refused to work if the water was used at the washery.

AN ARREST MADE. Chief J. E. Adamson, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western detective force, is positive he has the man who killed Watchman Daniel Sweeney, of the Bliss colliery. The alleged murderer is Paul Tomjock, of Hanover township. The three foreigners who were arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime, made a complete confession and told that it was Tomjock who struck the fatal blow. Chief Adamson and a squad of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western officers captured him at his boarding house, at 3 o'clock Saturday morning. He was committed to the Luzerne county prison by Squire Pollock.

Warrants have been issued from Alderman Kason's office for the arrest of a number of strikers at Throop, who attacked workmen at the Pancoast washery last Wednesday. They will be given a hearing today.

General Manager J. R. Bryden, of the Scranton Coal company, said yesterday that the Canouse washery will be rebuilt at once. Nothing definite has as yet been disclosed as to how the fire originated, but the investigation is not completed.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company has imported several carloads of foreigners into the Wilkes-Barre region to assist in cleaning up the mines and in running through the breakers the coal that was cut and run to the "foot" before the strike.

President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, ran up from Wilkes-Barre yesterday and spent the afternoon and early evening with personal friends. His visit, he said, was purely of a social nature. As far as could be learned, he saw no one on strike business during his stay.

MEMORIAL SERVICES. Hebrews Gather to Revere Memory of Chief Rabbi Josephs—Riot at His Funeral Deceased.

Services were held at Guernsey hall yesterday afternoon in memorial of the late Chief Rabbi Josephs, of New York city. They were conducted under the auspices of the McKinley Free Hebrew school. Rev. Joseph Levine, of Wilkes-Barre, and Rev. Israel Peiberg, of the central city orthodox Hebrew congregation, were the chief speakers of the afternoon. Both spoke in terms of the most unqualified praise of the celebrated Jewish divine, and bitterly denounced the conduct of the New York hoodlums, who caused the disgraceful riots attendant upon his funeral.

Other speakers were Rev. Nathan Drack, L. Turn, N. Blum, M. Weine and M. Melman. The hall was draped in deep black. A large number of persons were present at the services.

Dr. Lindabury, Surgeon, diseases of women a specialty, 215 Connell building. Hours: 11 a. m. to 4 p. m.; 7 to 8:30 p. m.

SOME MEN OF THE HOUR. Arthur C. Fuller, the treasurer of the Scranton Stone works, is one of the business men who have assisted in making the name of Scranton known far and wide, for the product of the company with whom he holds such an important office is found in many of the states of the union.

Mr. Fuller is a native of Clinton, Oneida county, New York, and had his first business experience in a general store in his home. For twenty years he has been connected with the Scranton Stone works, and has done not a little to place it on the firm footing it enjoys among the manufacturing establishments of the country. Mr. Fuller is treasurer of the New York State Stone Association, and has filled that office for the last ten years.

Edward Roderick, the mine inspector of the First Lackawanna district, is recognized as one of the best authorities on anthracite mining problems in the state and has been very successful in performing the duties of his office. He is a combination of Welsh and Scotch and came to this country in 1864 with his father, when he was only 4 years of age. Young Roderick attended the public schools in Wilkes-Barre and his first work was picking stone in one of the Wilkes-Barre Coal company's breakers.

AN INTERESTING POOL TOURNAMENT. It is Now in Progress at the Scranton Bicycle Club House—Those Who Are Participating. A great amount of interest is taken at the Scranton Bicycle club, in the hand-picked pool tournament which has been in progress since the early part of last week, and is now about half over. Liberal prizes will be awarded the leading players, and twenty of the ablest knights of the cue, in the club, are shooting excellent pool to capture the proffered bonus.

J. W. Dusenbury and R. C. Stanton are the only men playing scratch. Each of these has to make 125 against his opponents, whose handicaps range from 35 to 50. The twenty players are divided into four groups of five each, a special committee having divided them according to their ability, and also having decided upon the various handicaps. At the end of the preliminary matches, the two leading players in each class will shoot in the semi-finals, as a result of which the four best players will then engage in the finals.

After the two scratch players come H. S. Gorman and F. C. Wardell, who must each make 90. F. J. Farley, J. P. Connolly and J. F. Broadbent make up the 75 class, and E. H. Starr and H. T. Northrup are in the 60 class. E. A. Hintermister, C. Goodell, C. E. Coursen, P. H. Greff and E. B. Franklin, must each shoot at a 65 clip, and H. C. Wallace and W. R. Roper are slated to make 60. William Ford and W. J. Bengert are each given a 75 handicap, and must make 50, while H. D. Buck and B. P. Connolly are listed at 45.

The games up to date have resulted as follows: Dusenbury beat Starr and Wardell; Broadbent beat Coursen; Wardell beat Starr; Wallace beat Foley; Foley beat Franklin, J. P. Connolly and Greff; J. P. Connolly beat Greff and Wallace; Goodell beat Blanton; Bengert beat E. P. Connolly; Roper beat Bengert and Northrup; Hintermister beat Bengert, Northrup, Roper and E. P. Connolly.

The prizes will probably be cues. The members expected to wind the preliminary work up this week, and get started on the semi-finals by next Monday. Tennis and a hand ball tournament are also to be soon started at the club, on the courts which were recently laid out. The weather is still too warm for bowling and the lighter diversions are taking the place of the more strenuous tennis sports.

THEIR ANNUAL OUTING. Employees of Sauquoit Silk Mill at Lake Ariel. The annual excursion of the Sauquoit Silk Manufacturing company's employees was run to Lake Ariel on Saturday, and was unquestionably the largest excursion of the season.

Fully five thousand persons were in attendance, and the day was an ideal one for such an outing. Six special trains were employed in transporting the throng, which included a large number outside the company's employees.

During the day, tickets were given out to all the children, which entitled them to five cents' worth of anything cashed in at the grounds. The tickets were given to well-known men to distribute, and such a scramble as there was is indescribable.

Dancing, base ball, boating and fishing were the principal attractions, and these were enjoyed during the day by some thousands of persons.

The Erie Railroad company handled the crowd in good shape, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the day. This annual event is looked forward to with great interest by the silk mill employees, and the Sauquoit company reserves great credit for having inaugurated such an elaborate outing for their guests. Superintendent W. H. Davis and his assistants worked hard for the success of the excursion and were well pleased at the result.

MRS. CADDEN WAS SHOOKED. With Her Husband She Sues to Recover Damages. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Cadden, of Green Ridge, began an action Saturday against P. W. McDonald and James Sheffield to recover damages in the sum of $5,000. Of this amount, $3,000 is claimed by the husband and $2,000 by the wife.

The declaration in the case was filed for the plaintiffs by Attorneys P. E. Boyle and L. P. Vedeman, and sets forth that on July 17 the radsons were tenants in a house at 1382 North Washington avenue. On that day the defendants entered the house, demanded the payment of the rent, and used loud and boisterous language. The plaintiffs claimed that they didn't owe any rent, and refused to pay, whereupon McDonald and Sheffield carried away a number of articles of furniture.

It is claimed that the loud and boisterous conduct of the men so shocked and worried Mrs. Cadden that she became ill. The husband has been deprived of her services and in compensation therefore he asks damages in the sum of $3,000. Mrs. Cadden, in her own right, sues and claims for $2,000 for the injuries and shock to her.

Last week was a busy one in The Tribune's Educational Contest, 282 points being turned in by the various contestants. With the exception of four, all below ninth place have changed positions in the main table. Every one of the first nine increased their scores, but there were no changes in position. Of the twenty below that, moved either up or down, only five advanced, the others being pushed back one or more places by the good fortune of the competitors.

The greatest gain was made by Miss Jane Mathewson, of Factoryville, who went up five places. Miss Edna Coleman also did some very good work this morning appears three places higher up than she did a week ago. Fred Kibler and Eddie Morris, both of South Scranton, each advanced two places, and William Sherwood, of Harford, one. Mr. Sherwood had to do some good work to gain this position, he having scored forty-eight points. A. J. Kellerman, however, heads the list for the week, as well as for the month and the entire contest, he having scored 69 points and increased his lead in the main table by 62.

Not a contestant below thirty-third place scored a point, except Newton Hawley, of Green Ridge, who added three points and went up five places. Several of others only a few points below the honor roll, a little work would make great changes. The full standing follows:

34. Thomas Dempsey, Olyphant, 13. 35. Don C. Capwell, Scranton, 11. 36. Newton Hawley, Green Ridge, 9. 37. Walter Ellis, Hyde Park, 8. 38. Emanuel Buck, Scranton, 7. 39. On Saturday William Sherwood brought in 11 points, the largest number scored by any one contestant. The others heard from were as follows: Albert Freedman, G. L. E. Stanton, G. Wm. T. Rodriguez, Oscar H. Kipp, J. Maxwell Shepherd, J. Louis Gere, J. Fred Kibler, J. Charles W. Dorsey, I. The only change in position made in the main table was by Louis Gere, of Brooklyn, who by scoring one point broke the existing tie between he and C. J. Clark, of Peckville, and advanced one place.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. [Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune does not assume responsibility for opinions here expressed.]

Death of G. D. Winters. Editor of The Tribune. Sir: It is with sorrow that I learn from your issue of this morning of the death of G. D. Winters, of Jerny. At his passing the news was a great relief to most of my former home in that borough. During my stay there I was given a clerkship in the store of the late John Jerny. "Charles" Winters, as he was familiarly known, was then its manager. My impressions and associations with him made my stay pleasant. He was an ideal manager, ever ready to lend a helping hand to his subordinates. As an employee I regarded him as exemplary, industrious and faithful. He was no half way man, but true to the core, a staunch Christian and his life and teaching were in accordance. As he lived, so he died, in communion with his God. At the weekly prayer meeting of his church he was stricken from which he never recovered consciousness. He was a noble citizen, ready for aid and wide. The bereaved widow and children have the sympathy of the community at large who deeply lament his death. Frederick Hartnoll, Scranton, Saturday, July 5.
