Hungarian Striker with a Shotgun Captured by Sheriff Schadt When the Smoke of the Throop Battle Cleared Away Succeeds in Escaping-Women and Children Make a Demonstration at the Dickson Colliery-Interview with Vice President Loomis, of the Lackawanna.

After the smoke of Monday night's battle at Throop had cleared away, Sheriff Schadt and a few of his deputies nade a search of the woods, where the strikers had taken their position, and while beating the brush came across Hungarian walking with a cane. The sheriff took him in tow, and discovered that the cane was in reality he barrel of a single-barreled jointed shotgun, and that the Hungarian had the stock concealed under his coat.

Warden Simpson, of the county jail vas given charge of the fellow and directed to take him to Joe Lahotsky's saloon, near the boulevard, and wall with him there until the party was ready to return to Scranton. After scouring the woods further, the sheriff repaired to the saloon, only to find that the prisoner had gotten away. He had made an excuse to go to the bar to get a cigar and on reaching the barroom made a successful bolt for liberty. Sheriff Schadt suspended the warden pending an investigation.

Throop was quiet yesterday and last night. Sheriff Schadt, with Deputies Ferber and Weisman, went there early in the evening and remained until after o'clock. No disturbance took place.

THE WOMEN MARCHED.

The members of the Dickson local of the United Mine Workers had a piculo yesterday in a grove a few hundred yards north of the colliery. They wanted to show, they said, that despite the fact that the colliery is in operation and that their treasurer defaulted with the $475 remaining in the treasury, they are still happy and united.

About fifty women and children, headed by John Crabb, a member of the local, formed a procession at the picnic grounds at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and marched around the breaker Police Lieutenant Palmer and Patrolman Watkins sought to have them give over the demonstration, but they refused, and as they had a permit from the city to conduct a parade, the offieers were powerless to interfere.

Attorney Joseph O'Brien, representing the Delaware and Hudson company, waited on Sheriff Schadt with a complaint to the effect that the procession was bent on intimidating the workmen at the Dickson and should be prevented. The parade was over before the sheriff could make any move n the matter. No attempt was made to molest the workmen. The paraders simply marched along the streets adjacent to the colliery and returned to the picnic. No disturbance of any kind occurred.

The expected trouble at Duryea did not occur yesterday. The starting up of the Warnke washery was postponed until today. Fully 1,500 strikers and their sympathizers gathered around the washery, yesterday morning, bent on preventing any workmen from reaching the place. Sheriff Jacobs, it is said, have fifty deputies on hand this morning to prevent disorder.

MR. LOOMIS IN CITY.

Vice-President E. E. Loomis, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, was here yesterday on one of his periodical trips. To a Tribune reporter he said that all talk of the operators making concessions is the purest nonsense and that the strike will only end by the miners returning to work

Regarding the statement of President Mitchell that the operators, if victorious, will recoup their strike losses by reducing the wages of the men, Mr. Loomis said:

"The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western miners will be allowed to return to work on the same terms and under the same conditions that obtained when they were taken from their employment by the strike leaders. If there are any grievances to be adjusted they will be adjusted as heretofore. It is up to the miners to say how much more of a sacrifice they are willing to make for the agitators who led them into this trouble."

The Delaware and Hudson company's orce at the Marvine is increasing daily and the company expects to be able to start operations in a short time. A mass meeting of the strikers of Priceburg and vicinity will be held at the Dickson City rifle range this after-100n. President Mitchell is expected to be one of the speakers. Brewery Workers' local, No. 65, last night voted to donate $100 to the

HELD UP BY ROBBERS.

Masked Men Waylay and Abuse Two Men Who Are Employed in the Brisbin Mine.

Evan Thomas, a well-known young nan living on Putnam street, was held up by robbers, Sunday night, near the Brisbin patch, in North Scranton. He was walking towards his home, when two masked men suddenly sprang upon him, and ordered him to hold up his

They then searched him and secured Fred K. Gunster for fifth place. It will several small articles, but no money, several small articles, but no money, as an amount of small change he had as an amount of small change he had closely bunched and it will take but closely bunched and it will take but The masked robbers are believed by the police to belong to a gang, of which considerable complaint has been made, and are thought to have been implicated in the robbery and assault of anyoung North Scranton man, Louis Heller, a short while ago. The latter is still confined to his bed as a result of the beating he received. Before releasing the young man, Sunday night, his captors made various dire threats as to what they would do if he resumed work. He is employed as a clerk at the office of the Brisbin colliery, and Heller is employed at the same colliery as a fireman.

MATTER OF CONTRACTS.

Will Be Considered by Recorder and His Cabinet.

It is expected that at the next meetng of Recorder W. L. Connell and his cabinet, City Solicitor George M. Wat-son will submit a brief, which will exhaustively treat of the matter of city contracts. At the last meeting of the cabinet this matter was discussed, and there was considerable debate us to the advisability of using formal contracts in providing for all city work, regardless of the amount of money or labor involved.

If such action were to be taken and all work done strictly by contract, it would obviate the possibility of any trouble similar to that caused by the hold-up of W. H. Wickizer's bill for West Scranton street repairs, which was refused payment by the city controffer, until Solicitor Watson's opinion sustained the legality of the claim.

There were not quite as many points as usual turned in in The Tribune's Educational Contest yesterday, although what few there were caused considerable changing. Those who scored were: Charles Burns, 6; Maxwell Shepherd, 4: William T. S. Rodriguez, 3; William Cooper, 2; Charles W Dorsey, 1: Miss Edna Coleman, 1.

The three points scored by Mr. Rodriguez places him just beyond the 300 mark and creates a tie between he and few points to make some important changes. Recently they have scored pretty evenly, but if any one should stop work for a day or two he would be pretty sure to lose his position. The only change in the main table was made by Miss Edna Coleman, who, although she brought in but one point, succeeded in advancing two places, as yesterday morning she was tied with hree other contestants for twenty-fifth place. Miss Coleman was among the first to start in the contest, taking thirteenth place on May 9, but she was unable to keep this position, although she scored from time to time, and gradually dropped back until she was lose to the danger line. Only last Thursday she was in thirty-first place but she has passed steadily upward, being in twenty-ninth on August 8, twenty-seventh on August 9, and is now in twenty-fifth. The first six among the leaders for the special August prizes remain un-changed, but seventh place is occupied this morning by Charles Burns, who was not in the table yesterday as he did not have sufficient points to get above the line. Maxwell Shepherd was the only other contestant to advance.
