Door Fell on His Foot.
 While working at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western car shops yesterday, Joseph Sandebar had his right foot painfully crushed by a door, which fell upon it. He was taken to the Moses Taylor hospital.

His Son Dying.
 On his return from the Dickson City mass meeting, yesterday, ex-organizer Fred Dlicher, of the United Mine Workers, found awaiting him a telegram announcing that his six-year-old son was dying, at his home in Nelsonville, O. He left for Nelsonville last night.

Mrs. McCarthy's Mother Found.
 The police have been notified that Mrs. Elizabeth Murray, of 1051 York, is the mother of the Mrs. Mary McCarthy, of Corbettsville, whose death was announced to the local authorities, Tuesday. A sister of Mrs. McCarthy has left the city for the remains.

New Entries in Tournament.
 Ten new players have entered the Bicycle club's pool tournament, and interest is brisk among the members, as the contest nears its close. Neither H. A. Hintermeister nor John Broadbent, both handicapped men, have yet lost a game. Broadbent last night beat J. W. Duncanson, one of the scratch men, 7-7.

Attempted Burglary.
 The police are on the alert, for any clue as to the men who attempted to burglarize the home of James Leundy, on P'helps street, Tuesday morning. Entrance was made through a window, and the burglars were at work, when discovered by one of the children of the house. They left without any plunder.

Accused of Trespass.
 Benjamin Harowitz and Louis Bender, of New York; Aaron Venikoff, of Brooklyn, and Louis Compas, of Trenton, N. J. were yesterday arraigned before Alderman M. J. Ruddy on the charge of vagrancy, and trespass on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad. They were each committed to the county jail for ninety days.

The Largest Dividend.
 Referee in Bankruptcy C. A. Van Worman was here yesterday, drawing checks for various of the claims in the case of G. L. Bullard, of Meshoppen, bankrupt. Referee Van Worman declared, in this case, the largest dividend he has ever declared in bankruptcy proceedings. It was for sixty-eight cents and nine mills on the dollar.

Burglars Were Discovered.
 A telephone message notified Sergeant Ridgway at police headquarters late last night that an attempt had been made to burglarize 67 Prescott avenue. Patrolman McMillan investigated and found that two men had climbed the rear porch, and were about to enter the house through the bathroom, when discovered by members of the family.

The Third Hearing.
 City Solicitor George M. Watson yesterday conducted the third hearing in the case of Randolph Crippen, of the Bristol house, North Scranton, who has brought action against the city to recover his possession of that portion of land outside his place, which he claims is his own property. C. S. Von Storch and John Sillman yesterday testified for the city, to the effect that the land in question has always been a public thoroughfare. There will be another hearing Friday.

STREET CAR ACCIDENT.
Out-bound Providence Car Collides with Horse and Buggy.
 An out-bound Providence car collided with a horse and buggy about 8 o'clock last evening on Penn avenue. The buggy was totally demolished, but neither the driver nor horse suffered any harm.

The rig was going down Penn avenue, when the driver suddenly saw a car approaching on the Green Ridge People's line. In attempting to avoid this, he started to drive across the track, and his carriage was struck squarely by the Providence car. He was thrown from his seat and was slightly bruised by striking the pavement. His carriage was reduced to a mass of broken framework, and the horse escaped unscathed. The car was in charge of Motorman Everitt and Conductor Randall.

SHORE DINNER AT LODGE.
 Conductors Will Enjoy a Rhode Island Banquet, August 27th.
 A great excursion will be run by the Delaware and Hudson conductors on Wednesday, August 27, at Lake Lodore, by the shores of which they will serve a Rhode Island Shore Dinner, a repeat of the delicacies, including sweet corn, fish and clams, all covered with clover and long grass and sod and cooked at the same time under a great pyramid of burning wood. People who once enjoy a real Shore Dinner will want to attend another.
 Many attractions will be provided, including an elegant dance programme, for the enjoyment of every one who attends.
 Excursion trains will be run from all points of the Delaware and Hudson railroad, between Wilkes-Barre and Honesdale, at greatly reduced rates. Trains will leave the Lackawanna avenue depot, Scranton, at 9:28 and 10:13 a. m., and 12 m. Fare from Scranton, 75 cents.

MAN WITH A NEW SCHEME.
 Pretends He Has the Right to Collect Mercantile Tax.
 A tall man with blue eyes has been making the rounds of the foreign speaking business community pretending that he is empowered to collect mercantile tax for County Treasurer J. A. Scranton. How successful he has been in his collections is not yet known but County Detective Phillips is engaged in making an investigation.
 Thus far complaints have been received from Silvia Notari and Nicholas Sossone both of whom report that they paid $8 to the man who pretended that he had the right to collect the tax. He wrote receipts on a sheet of note paper and signed them "J. A. Scranton, per D."

$1,000 REWARD.
 The Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad company will pay the above for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who set fire to the Bellevue washery on Friday evening, August 1st, 1902.

HEARING IN PAGET CASE

TESTIMONY FOR THE DEFENSE PUT IN.
Number of Veterinarians Testify That Dr. Paget Was Correct When He Diagnosed the Trouble Farrel's Dog Was Suffering from as Rabies. At the Next Hearing the Plaintiff Will Offer Testimony in Rebuttal. Injured Husband Asks for a Divorce—Marriage Licenses.
 There was another hearing yesterday before arbitrators H. M. Mulholland, John H. Bonner and Thomas Beck in the case of John M. Farrel against Dr. A. J. Paget. On April 14 last Farrel bought a valuable bull dog from Tony Battito for $50. The dog was an offspring of Dick Crocker's kennel and was reputed to be worth $200.
 At the time Farrel purchased it the dog was at Paget's dog hospital, the doctor having diagnosed its trouble as dumb rabies. Dr. Helmer was of the opinion that the dog was suffering from bone in the throat and when Farrel purchased it he made a demand that it be turned over to him.
 This was not done by Dr. Paget by instruction from the bureau of health. The dog died and Farrel sued Dr. Paget to recover its value. At a hearing before Alderman Kanson he was given judgment for $200 and from this Dr. Paget took an appeal.
 Yesterday was the second hearing before the arbitrators, the plaintiff being represented by Attorney L. P. Wedeman and John F. Strang and the defendant by Attorneys Frank E. Donnelly and Joseph O'Brien.
 John M. Farrel was the first witness examined yesterday and told of his purchase of the dog, his belief that it was merely suffering from a bone in the neck and his fruitless demands on Dr. Paget and the bureau of health for his dog and his inability to get it. Al-

Rose and Edward Peters testified to the value of the dog.
 Dr. Paget was the first witness and told of his examination of the dog and arriving at the conclusion that it had dumb rabies. The dog continued to grow worse and he notified Dr. W. E. Allen of the bureau of health. By the latter's direction he kept the dog confined in a steel cage to prevent it from biting any person. A few days later the dog died. He dissected the dog and removed parts of the brain and nerve tissue which were forwarded to the Pennsylvania Veterinarian institute and to Dr. Revmal a bacteriologist and specialist as to rabies. Both confirmed his diagnosis of the case. In accordance with the directions of Dr. Allen the remains of the dog after it was dissected were sent to the crematory and destroyed.
 Dr. C. S. Gilbert of this city, Dr. William H. Wilkes-Barre and Dr. Sturge of this city who examined the dog all testified that it was suffering from rabies and that death would be the result. The defense rested late in the afternoon and at the next hearing evidence in rebuttal will be offered by the plaintiff.

Unfaithfulness Is Charged.
 Lafayette Bidwell says his wife, Cordelia B. Bidwell, has been unfaithful to him with one Frank Edwards, and he yesterday filed his petition for a divorce with Prothonotary John Copeland.
 They were married December 25, 1884, at Salem Corners, Wayne county, and lived there and at Nay Aug until April 7, 1901, when, Bidwell says, he left his wife because of her unfaithfulness.

Court House News Notes.
 Frank Sweet, who owns a property on the South Scranton flat, owned the Scranton Gas and Water company, the Wilkes-Barre and Scranton Railway company, the Scranton Steel company and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company to recover $5,000 damages for injury done to his property by the floods of last spring. A. A. Chase is his attorney.
 It is determined, that a committee of the court for a commission to inquire into the mental condition of Joseph Carpenter of North Abington township, who is now confined in the insane department of the Hillside Home. Carpenter is unable to look after his estate and the purpose of the inquiry is to have his insanity determined, that a committee may be appointed to look after his affairs.

DENOUNCED THE REILLY SERMON

BURDEN OF SPEECHES AT THE DICKSON MEETING.
 District President Nicholls Declares That God's Curses Will Fall on Pulpiters Who Defile His Temple by Such Utterances—Ex-Organizer Dlicher Characterizes the Sermon as Unwarranted and a Tissue of Falsehoods—Necessity of Sacrifice Impressed Upon the Strikers.

Denunciations of the sermon of Rev. H. R. O'Reilly, of Shenandoah, formed the burden of the remarks of the speakers at the big mass meeting of strikers held yesterday afternoon, on the Dickson City rifle range. No individual reference was made to Father O'Reilly, but the speaker's words left no doubt in the minds of any hearer as to whom the burden of the remarks of the speakers at the big mass meeting of strikers held yesterday afternoon, on the Dickson City rifle range. No individual reference was made to Father O'Reilly, but the speaker's words left no doubt in the minds of any hearer as to whom the burden of the remarks of the speakers at the big mass meeting of strikers held yesterday afternoon, on the Dickson City rifle range.

Fully 3,000 men and women attended the meeting, but many of them did not stay after arriving on the grounds and learning that National President Mitchell had sent word he could not come. Those who remained listened attentively to the speakers and enthusiastically cheered their utterances.
 Stephen Reap, chairman of the sub-district of which Priceburg and Dickson is a part, presided over the meeting. Burgess Kennedy occupied a seat on the platform. Music was furnished by the North End Glee club and the Silver Cornet band of Providence and a couple of drum corps headed locals which marched to the meeting in a body. Andrew Smith, a breaker boy, provoked much applause and laughter by reciting the comic rhyme now going round of the press entitled "Hunting"
