KNOCKED OUT

SORRY EXPERIENCE OF WILKES-BARRE WOMAN.

Assaulted in a Dark Spot On Mifflin Avenue by a Male Companion and Left Lying Where She Fell with Her Eye and Consciousness Gone. Police Thought it Was Another Boschiter or Quinn Case Until the Victim Revived at the Lackawanna

Memories of the Boschiter, Quinn and other cases of fiendish assault were twakened in the minds of the Scranton police, last night, when a telephone nessage to headquarters announced that a young woman was lying half dead in a dark place on Mifflin avenue, as the result of an attack by some brute bearing the semblance of male humanity.

The police wagon, with Superinten-dent Day, Lieutenant Feeney, City Detective Dieter and a squad of patrolmen was rushed to the scene.

Visions of a night of searching for the assailant passed before the eyes of the blue coats as they were hastened down from headquarters, and determination to seek no rest till the culprit was apprehended marked their countenances.

The woman was found as described in the telephone message, excepting that she was not dying. A large lump and formerly of Green Island, N. Y., attested that she had received some rough treatment.

The trouble over the child day did not mention that he was ill, had occurred during his absence, and it was alleged that on his return home he entered the Rose residence and insulted Mrs. Rose. He left a $5 deposit at the central station, and was allowed to leave.

SMALL POX CASE REPORTED.

Second Member of Farley Family Afflicted by Disease.

Dr. J. W. Houser yesterday reported the Diocese of Dubuque, Iowa, on the discovery of another case of small November 21, 1894, and had labored in pox, to Superintendent W. E. Allan, of the bureau of health. A young child of Mr. Farley, of Nay Aug avenue, was found to have all the symptoms of the disease, and has been put under the proper treatment.

This is the second case of small pox in the Farley family. The other was reported early last week. Dr. Allen yesterday stated that the Farley child only suffering from a slight attack.

The Faelten Pianoforte System.

The Facilien System of Fundamental Training is not in the same category with the old systemless methods of teaching the piano, and should not be compared with them, except in the results achieved. Subjects like scale formations in all of major and minor keys, and the practical application of this knowledge in transposition, the ability to play from interval notation, and its practical application in rapid staff reading, a thorough mastery of note values and time relationsthese are subjects that in the old fashioned methods are seldom and in the majority of cases never, mastered. In the Faeltem System everything else must await this mastery. We build a house from the foundation, not from the chimney coping. We do not attempt mathematical problems until we have learned to add, subtract, multiply, and divide.

EXCURSIONS AT THE PARK

Sunday Schools from Carbondale and West Scranton Were There Yesterday-Others Coming.

Nay Aug park continues to be a mecca for the picnickers, and hardly a day passes that the grounds do not echo with sounds of laughter and Miss Minnie Belle Phillips and Ernest narry-making, from hundreds of jubilant excursionists. Yesterday several hundred picnickers came down on an excursion of the Carbondale Methodist Sunday school, and passed a red letter day, for general pleasure and enjoyment, Games of all sorts and conditions were played, and all kinds of races run. There were sack races, foot races, and egg races, and a tug of war between two parties of strong armed youths was another The Sunday school of the Tabernacle Congregational church of West Scranton also held carnival at the park. A very large number of persons attended, and spent a very pleasant day and then the wedding dinner with its Park Superintendent Phillips has been notified of a large number of other excursions and picnics which are to be held this week and next. Today, the Sunday school of the Elmhurst Baptist row the Lackawanna County Grangers' association will meet and make Saturday an excursion will be run over the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western railroad, from Bloomsburg, for the benefit of the Patriotic Order Sons of America of that city, and next Tuesday the Schooley Battery, which did splendid service in the Civil war will hold its annual reunion.

The following day will mark the re union of the Seven Counties Veterans reunion, in conjunction with which will be held the plenic of the Harford school for soldiers' orphans. A novel feature in the way of entertainment will be offorded at the reunion, by a number of West Pointers, who will do some trick riding, for the veterans and youngsters.

WARDEN SIMPSON RESIGNS.

He Is Succeeded by Chief Keeper Miles McAndrew of Archbald. As a consequence of the Throop incident of Tuesday night, Warden Simpson of the county jail, yesterday, tendered his resignation to Sheriff Schadt. Yesterday afternoon, a notice was posted at the jail announcing the resignation and the appointment of Chief Keeper Miles McAndrew of Archbald. to fill the vacancy. William Klein, of South Scranton, who has been serving as a guard of the chain gang for two years has been appointed keeper.

She Was Embarrassed. A few days ago a society not many miles from Scranton ran an excursion to one of our pretty lakes. There were a great many mileage books presented for fare. They were, of course, turned down and a regular excursion ticket demanded. Nearly all who were caught in this predicament were able to purchase their excursion tickets. In one case, however, that of a lady with three children, the circumstances were exceedingly embarrassing. She had figured on getting to the lake and back on her mileage and was not prepared to put the cash into four tickets. Friends nearby came to her assistance, but the situation, to say the least, was very annoying. Moral: Do not try to go to Lake Ariel with the Jr. O. U. A. M. on Saturday, August 16, with a mileage book, as they will not be accepted on the 8.45 a. m. or 1.35 p. m. trains.

'BILLY" CRAIG'S LITTLE JOKE Fred C. Hand Was the Victim of It.

"Billy" Craig is at it again. The city has some few practical jokers, but none more confirmed or resourceful than the aforesaid William. He conceives and executes a joke at the proverbial "drop of a hat," and in the choice of victims is as indiscriminate as a tax collector.

Fred C. Hand is his latest victim Fred is summering at Elmhurst. "Billy" with a friend, who is also somewhat of a joker, were driving out Elmhurst way the other day and chanced to pass the Hand cottage. "Let's put up a rig on Fred," suggested Craig.

"All right; what'll it be?" said his companion. Billy scratched his gilt-crowned head a moment, and then with "I've got it;

come on," headed for the Hand home, followed by his friend. Entering they found Mr. Hand at home and delighted to see them. After the usual formalities, Craig proceeded to tell, as only the innocent-looking Craig can tell, that he and his friend were a committee from a coterie of admiring friends, who had met informally the day before and decided to attest, with some little substantial token, their appreciation of Mr. Hand's efforts in giving the people of Scranton a series of high-class musical attractions, which, but for these efforts, the city would never get. Concluding his prefatory remarks, Craig drew from his pocket his own new gold watch and handed it to the

"surprised and delighted" Hand. The circumstances scarcely warranted formalities, but Mr. Hand could not refrain from what he felt was an appropriate response in words, and then sulting actions to these words, made Craig and his fellow-conspirator parthe house afforded in the way of hospitality. The cigars he offered met with Hand made him take a box of them along with him. ize for not having had the watch suitably engraved. "Ought to be something telling about the occasion of the presentation and who gave it and that sort of thing," averred Craig, and so angry was he with himself for not having attended to it, that he insisted on taking the watch and having the engraving done that very night, even if he had to wake some jeweler out of bed to do it.

Craig took the watch, with all man ner of apologies for his thoughtlessness, and drove away, slashing the horse as if his anger with himself was something positively uncontrollable It is needless to say that Mr. Hand is still waiting for the watch.

MELBA TO COME HERE.

Will Give a Concert at the New Armory in March. Melba will be here in March. With a company of instrumentalists, which is said to be of itself an attraction of most unusual merit, she will give a concert at the new armory. The exact date has not as yet been fixed. A contract for her appearance here was made in Buffalo, Tuesday, between her manager, Mr. Brennan, and P. F. Duffy, jr., president of St. Brendan's council, Young Men's Institute, under whose auspices the concert is to be given.

The guarantee necessary to secure this attraction is $200 higher than the highest price ever paid for a similar the Saratoga Floral Fetes, which have become world known, an illuminated parade will be the main attraction this year. This will occur on the night of Thursday, September and will be one of the most spectacular pageants yet presented Thousands of torches and hundreds of pretty women mingling in a panorama of beauty, with a night sunburst of light, will make a scene as picturesque as it is unusual.

This being the first time that a night fete has been attempted at Saratoga, 'no expense will be spared to make it as successful as money will warrant. Thousands of dollars have already been

He Maintains That

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

Is a Banisher of Disease and Restorer of Health.

A noted medical specialist- a physician possessing ample wealth-ever ready to acknowledge worth and merit, speaks of Paine's Celery Compound, as follows:-

"In summer time, when strength falls, when that tired, listless feeling is experienced from day to day, when the digestive organs are not doing their work properly, when constipution is poisoning the blood, when disease with fron hand takes possession of the body, Paine's Celery Compound will be found a marvelous banisher of disease and a true health restorer." This strong statement should influence all weak, run-down and half sick men and women during the hot August weather. This remarkable indorsation of Paine's Celery Compound by an acknowledged specialist should at once convince the suffering and diseased that Dr. Phelps' great medical discovery is what they need to restore perfect health. The thousands of lives fast wearing away can be saved and made happy and useful to families and friends. May Heaven speedily convince the doubting and despondent, and direct them to that unfailing life giver-Paine's Celery Compound.

spent in the preparations for the grand event and arrangements are just passing out of their primary shape. The presentation of a night pageant in a way satisfactory to the public, demands the expenditure of a small fortune, and the presentation of such at Saratoga, where the people are hypercritical, means even a greater expense.

If Saratoga during the summer season is great, it will be Saratoga the Great from September 1st to 4th. The village will truely be transformed info a place of beauty and grandeur. No set of floats ever cost more than those which will be in this parade at Saratoga. They were purchased from the managers of the last New Orleans Mardi Gras, and comprise the most magnificent display ever seen in that city of gorgeous shows. The Veiled Prophets' parade of St. Louis, which has become famous, does not come anywhere near being as pretty or as attractive as the Proteus aggregation of floats. Those who saw them at New Orleans this spring, pronounced them to be the finest ever displayed in this country. They will be shown at Saratoga on the night of September 4, will hundreds of blazing lights, just as they were shown at New Orleans, when they won the praise of press, public and critics.
