Epworth League of the Embury Methodist Episcopal Church Entertained Last Night. Henry Kline Suffered an Accident.

The Epworth league of the Embury | wagon about two weeks ago, is im-Methodist Episcopal church entertained the members and friends last evening. The evening's pleasure was opened with a selection by the audience, which was followed with prayer by the pastor, Rev. James Benninger. The instrumental solo by John Williams and the violin solo by John Stephens were well received, both being rendered with ease and grace.

Miss Lottie Jones, the elecutionist recited with usual grace. The recitation was followed by a selection by the audience. The principal feature of the evening was an address by Hon, James Moir. The address was overflowing with wit and humor, and contained many thoughts well worth retaining.

The instrumental selections by the
Watkins family, of Taylor, were well received and gave great pleasure. Miss Lottle Jones again favored with a recitation, which was followed by the closing selection of the programme, a finely rendered piano solo by Miss Anna

Ice cream and cake were served to all at the close of the entertainment.

Henry Kline, the 12-year-old son of sermon, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Kline, of Hampton street, was the victim of a painful injury, while visiting over the mountain in the country on Wednesday. In company with some companions he was playing with a ladder and while asto be suffering from a broken arm.

Mrs. Kate Pfeiffer, of North Hyde Park avenue, ran a needle into her thumb the other afternoon. The little bit of steel gave intense pain, and Dr. F. C. Hall was summoned to extract it, which he did. No serious results are anticipated.

Sick Recovering.

Miss Kate Trainer, who was thrown from a carriage at the corner of Lackawanna avenue and Seventh street, last week, is recovering. Although she sustained some severe contusions yet a hardy constitution is aiding the recov-

Eleazer Jenkins, of Thirteenth street, who is suffering from a paralytic stroke, received last Sabbath, was reported as being very low on Wednesday, and yesterday there was not much change. His recovery is doubtful on account of his advanced age.

Carrie Was Arrested.

Carrie McAndrew, of Broome county, N. Y., appeared before Alderman Noone Wednesday evening, to secure a warrant for the arrest of a woman in the central city, on the charge of defama-tion of character. The constable was given the warrant and started for the central city to secure the woman. When he returned, Carrie McAndrew was nowhere in sight, but an investigation revealed the fact that the police had arrested her on the charge of disorderly conduct.

Anniversary Celebration.

On Sunday the Ladies' Aid society of the German Presbyterian church, Chestnut street, will celebrate its sixteenth anniversary. The pastor, Rev. J. Schoettle, will preach an anniversary sermon, and the choir will render spe-

The Ladies' Aid society has done great work since its organization and has been one of the principal supports of the church. The officers of the society are: President, Mrs. Elizabeth cending it, lost his balance and fell to Naumann; secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth the ground. He was removed to this Koch; treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Schucity, where Dr. F. C. Hall found him bert. Friends and strangers alike will be welcomed on the Sabbath, and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

Dined on Ink.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Tague, of Jackson street, received quite a scare Wednesday afternoon. While Mrs. Tague was absent in an adjoining room, William, their bright and interesting little wenty-months-old son, discovered a bottle of ink and sampled it. Upon Mrs. Tague's return she noticed the ink-stained lips and hands, and immediately summoned Dr. F. C. Hall. The little fellow has shown no bad symptoms, and it is not known whether he drank a quantity of the ink or merely stained his lips.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

Rev. Abell Parry, D. D., of Rhyl, Wales, a divine who is well known on both sides of the Atlantic, will preach at the First Welsh Baptist church, South Main avenue, next Sunday. In the morning the sermon will be in Welsh, and in the evening Dr. Parry will deliver an English sermon. SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

An animated session of the Fourteen Friends was held in Hotel Best last evening, when nearly every member was present. Reports of the various com-mittees were most gratifying. The programme of sports will embrace nearly every game on the calendar, including boat racing, quoit playing, alley ball and ten pins, a fat man's race, a cake wall, and a contest between single and mar-ried members of the organization. Another meeting to arrange final details will take place next Monday night. At a recent outing of the Scranton Athletic club, a tug-of-war took place be-tween the single and married members The single men won the match, and last night they were treated to a supper by the losers at the club rooms on Alder street. The attendance was quite large, and at the close of the supper a social sesion was held.

They started for the pond at 3 o'clock yesterday morn-ing, but instead of using the usual fishing tackle, carried an assortment of carbines, rifles and reolvers. They reached the happy hunting grounds at daylight and at once proceeded to business. The daddy carp was soon located and he was greeted with a volley of lead. The trees, the shrubbery, the neighborhood and even the muddy water was shot all to pieces, but the fish, as usual, escaped, and the fishermen had nothing to show for their outing - aithough they passed Pierce's DUNMORE.

About two hundred interested taxpayers again gathered at the borough building last night to hear the results of the coun-cil's deliberations regarding the sewer contract which they some time ago were very anxious to award as soon as possible. Again Messrs, McAllister, O'Boyle and Conmy were the only ones present and adjournment was taken to meet at the call of President McLaughlin. An effort was made to see some of the absent councilmen but none were located and consequently the reason, if there was consequently the reason, if there was any, for their continued absence, could not be learned.

Hundreds of small boys and a large number of boys of a larger growth were greatly amused by the parade of Junior Order United American Mechanics Order United American Mechanics through the streets of the borough last fught. Music was furnished by the American band and the Patriotic Order Sons of America drum corps of South Scranton. A number of the paraders were mounted on prancing white horses which, coupled with the fantastic garb of the marches, attracted much attention.

Considerable excitement was caused on Chestnut street by what was feared was going to be a serious cave-in near the Union Cash hardware store. As it was he only damage done up to a late hour last night was the breaking of the gas and water mains and the bending of the tracks of the Traction company. The fissure appears to extend just about the width of the street and does not affect any of the adjouning properties. This is only about 300 feet from the scene of he big cave-in about a year ago. NOT MURDERER CERRO.

Suspect Arrested in the Lackawanna Yard in This City.

Special Officer Clark, of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western company, arrested a man in the Lackawanna yard last night who bore a striking resemblance to Francesco Cerro, the man who shot and fatally injured little Augusta Falbro at Old Forge on Aug.

The suspect was taken to Alderman Ruddy's office where it was agreed that he tallied in almost every respect with he wanted murderer. To add to the belief that he was the man, the prisoner refused to say a word about any thing. To all questions he merely shrugged his shoulders with a shrug that was characteristically Latin.

After long presusasion the prisoner numbled a few words that sounded like Polish. Constable Max Firestine was called in and soon ascertained that the suspect was a Polish vagrant in the city only a few days.

He was exonerated of the charge of murder but was sent to the county fail for ninety days for vagrancy.
