WYOMING CAMP MEETING.

The Wyoming camp meeting was opened on Manday evening of this week with a meeting in the auditorium. Presiding ership of Miss Wagner and Mrs. Furey.
A young people's meeting is conducted in Franklin street chapel every evening at 6 o'clock. Though the weather is a little cool on this mountain top and especially venings, the attendance at the meetings s about as large as usual.

Some of the old-time camp meeting atendants are not to be seen but they will probably put in their appearance before the meetings close on next Wednesday. Little more rigid rules are being en-forced this year than heretofor. Every evening at 10 o'clock the bell rings above the auditorium and all occupants of cottages must retire and all visitors on the grounds must leave. No loud talking is permitted after this hour so that all can sleep soundly who wish to do so. Rev. Henry, of Taylor, has charge of the boarding house and the store, Nearly all the cottages are filled with people, some been spending the summer months have been spending the summer months here, others have just come during the meetings. The singing is in charge of various ministers, each taking their turn in leading the congregation to lift up their voices in braise to the Almighty which resounds through the whole camp ground and can be heard on the hill tops and in the valleys of the surrounding country for some distance. Among the country for some distance. Among the ministers noted at the grounds this week have been Rev. H. C. McDermott, D. D., Rev. G. C. Lyman, of Scranton; Rev. Santee, of West Nanticoke; Rev. Wagner, of Askam; Rev. Blair, of Wyoming; Rev. Jay, of Dorranceton; Rev. Godshall, of Waverly; Rev. Thomas and Rev. ounds this week

Elder Griffin, D. D., and Rev. H. C. Mc-Dermott, D. D., of this city, were the principal speakers. On Tuesday a Sun-day school raily was held all day, closing in the evening with an able discourse on "The Reading of the Bible" by Rev. Dr. Frost, of White Haven. Dr. Frost is 73 years of age and has been in the ministry 56 years and never once has falled to answer to his name at the conference roll calls. He is tall, well built, has strong body and mind and he has a striking per-sonality. His address was one of eloquence and interest. Tuesday was Ep-worth League day. Each of the sessions of the day were well attended by repre-sentatives from leagues throughout the Wyoming district. Rev. Godshall, of Waverly, gave two instructive and helpful Bible readings during the day and in the afternoon a very pleasing address was delivered by Rev. Gilbert, of Berwick, on "The Mission and Destiny of Epworth Leaguers." In the evening Dr. Frost again spoke upon "The Model Epworth Leaguer." The principal address of Thursday was a missionary sermon in the afternoon by Rev. L. C. Murdock, of Kingston. Rev. Murdock is one of the most popular speakers that visits the Wyoming Camp ground. About 9 o'clock every morning love feast is held in the auditorium which begins the services of he day and is conducted by various min sters. At 1 o'clock a children's meeting s held in the auditorium under the lead-
