A REQUEST FROM OHIO. Information as to the Whereabouts of Mrs. David H. Peinn Wanted. The following letter has been received by The Tribune:

Wellsville, Ohio, Aug. 17, 1902. Editor of The Tribune. About twenty years ago there lived in New York city, on the corner of Cortland and John street, a man by the name of David H. Peinn. In about 1888, or near that time, he married Miss Clara Cassidy. My impression is that she was formerly from Scranton. As I understand that she lived there after the death of her husband, but that she went west some little time ago. It is very important that we know her whereabouts, if living. Will you kindly, through your paper, try and find the desired information? I am poor, but you will get your reward in another world, if not in this, and if we can find Mrs. David Peinn you may get it in this, for there is a large sum of money coming as soon as we find out a few things that we think she can tell us. David H. Peinn was a cousin of mine. Any parties that can give this information will kindly address, Mrs. G. W. Thompson, L. B. 23, Columbiana county, Wellsville, Ohio.

THE TEMPLE IRON COMPANY. The Temple Iron company will pay the above reward for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who shot and seriously injured two of its employes at the Edgerton colliery on Monday night, August 18, 1902. DYNAMITE WAS USED. Attempt Made to Destroy the House of John Wachs, Pittston—Eight Persons in the Building. An attempt was made early yesterday morning to take the lives of members of the family of John Wachs, on Center street, Pittston, by dynamiting the house. Was and two of his sons have continued at their work about the collieries and are classified under the heading of "scabs." That no lives were blotted out is no fault of the fiends, who would have taken the lives of five innocent persons to reach the three they considered guilty of the charge of "scabbing."

STORM WAS SEVERE. Rain and Hail Fell in Great Quantities—Sewers Blocked and Great Damage to Property. For almost an hour yesterday afternoon Scranton experienced one of the most severe rain storms that has ever swept over the city. The rain fell in sweeping, heavy sheets for fifty minutes, and was accompanied by lightning, thunder and hail. The official figures of Observer Clarke of the weather bureau, showed that fifty-three one hundredths of an inch of water had fallen, the rain beginning at 2:46 o'clock and continuing until 3:55 o'clock. Sewers were blocked in several portions of the city, being utterly unable to drain the water which flowed along the streets in small streams. A number of windows were broken by the hail, and a few houses were struck by lightning.

ADAMS MAKES ANOTHER GAIN. HE FOLLOWED UP A GOOD SUGGESTION. Twelve Leaders Scored Points in The Tribune's Educational Contest Yesterday—Hendrick Adams, Harry Madden and Miss Mary Yeager Improve Their Positions—Kellerman Passes the 600 Mark—Has Reversed Burns' Lead of Six Weeks Ago.

Standing of Contestants. 1. A. J. Kellerman, Scranton, 609. 2. Charles Burns, Vandling, 491. 3. Oscar H. Kipp, Elmhurst, 342. 4. Albert Freedman, Bellevue, 320. 5. Wm. T. S. Rodriguez, Scranton, 307. 6. Fred K. Gunster, Green Ridge, 303. 7. Herbert Thompson, Carbondale, 281. 8. Maxwell Shepherd, Carbondale, 216. 9. Wm. Sherwood, Harford, 170. 10. Chas. W. Dorsey, Scranton, 164. 11. L. E. Stanton, Scranton, 133. 12. J. A. Havenstrite, Moscow, 85. 13. Hendrick Adams, Chinchilla, 72. 14. Frank B. McCreary, Hallstead, 71. 15. Harry Madden, Scranton, 68. 16. Homer Krage, Hyde Park, 68. 17. Miss Beatrice Harpur, Thompson, 65. 18. Miss Jane Mathewson, Factoryville, 61. 19. William Cooper, Priceburg, 47. 20. Lee Culler, Springfield, 39. 21. Grace M. Decker, Hallstead, 37. 22. Walter Hallstead, Scranton, 31. 23. Fred Kibler, South Scranton, 29. 24. Miss Mary Yeager, Green Ridge, 28. 25. Miss Edna Coleman, Scranton, 27. 26. Hugh Johnston, Forest City, 27. 27. Harry Danvers, Providence, 26. 28. Louis McCusker, Park Place, 23. 29. Eddie Morris, South Scranton, 23. 30. Louis Gere, Brooklyn, 19. 31. C. J. Clark, Peckville, 18. 32. John Mackie, Providence, 16. 33. Elmer Williams, Elmhurst, 16.

An even dozen of the leaders in The Tribune's Educational Contest scored points yesterday, some of them adding very abundantly to their scores. They were as follows: Hugh Johnston, Forest City, 3; William T. S. Rodriguez, Scranton, 1; Herbert Thompson, Carbondale, 4; Hendrick Adams, Chinchilla, 12; Miss Mary Yeager, Green Ridge, 6; Fred K. Gunster, Green Ridge, 2; Miss Edna Coleman, Scranton, 3; A. J. Kellerman, Scranton, 27; Charles W. Dorsey, Scranton, 8; Harry Madden, Scranton, 13; Maxwell Shepherd, Carbondale, 4, and L. E. Stanton, Scranton, 1.

A. J. Kellerman advanced beyond the 600 mark and leads Charles Burns, his nearest rival, 118 points this morning. About a month ago this situation was reversed, Burns leading Kellerman on July 1 by 136 points. This shows what strenuous work the Scranton young man has been doing during the past six weeks.

Hendrick Adams did what was hinted could be done in yesterday's Tribune, and by bringing in 12 points later in the day, jumped from seventh to thirteenth place. Harry Madden, whom Adams passed Monday, promptly went to work and nearly recovered the lost ground, being but one point behind Mr. Adams and tied with Frank McCreary for fourth place.
