room, is suffering a bad laceration of the thumb and forefinger. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hileman, jr. entertained a small company at a thimble tea yesterday afternoon. Work is progressing slowly on the new theater owing to the inability of Contractor Stipp to secure enough brick A very mysterious affair was witnessed on Main street, Duryea, at an early hour Sunday morning, and whether or not a crime has been committed and covered up is a question that may never be solved. One of the Misses Benedict, who resides in the old Benedict homestead a short dis-tance below Stephenson street, heard voices in front of the house and arose to investigate. Looking out of the window she observed a half dozen men in the roadway in front of the house. Between them, lying on the street, was the body of a man which seemed to have his arms and legs bound. One of the men was heard to remark that he had no idea he struck the man such a heavy blow. In a few minutes the men picked up the body and carried it off, disappearing around the corner of a saloon leading in the direction of the river. The next morning it was discovered that the Benedict's rope clothes line had been stolen. Nothing has been heard of the affair since. Miss Benedict did not recognize any of the men she saw. A heavy lightning and thunder storm, accompanied by a downpour of water that resembled a waterfall took place this afternoon. It rained just fifteen minutes, but in that space of time enough water fell to make Main street look like a river, the sewer basin being taxed to more than their cap-

ATLANTIC CITY.

From The Tribune Bureau, Tilyou's Stee-plechase Pier. Atlantic City, Aug. 18.-The crowd of Sunday last at the shore was greater than that of the week before, and the eminiscent tattler of the resort now has a new record to swear by-285,000 being the total reached after a careful study of the railroad reports from Saturday to Monday. And this astonishing hegira was in the face of the tidal wave prophesied by Rev. Dusky Jones. to rip things wide open here, a prophesy which seemed to bring people to the ed to cleanse the stomach and ward off promised scene of devastation rather the approaching attack.
