INSTITUTE FOR TEACHERS

Instructors Who Have Been Secured for the Session Which Opens in This City Next Week.

Instead of holding the city teachers' institute at Easter this year, as formerly, it will be held next year at the high school, and the present intention is to continue this precedent, and hold the institute every year, before the opening of the public schools. This will allow the teachers to enjoy an Easter vacation, and moreover is expected to have a beneficial result upon their work during the year, as whatever new ideas or thoughts are suggested by the speakers at the institute can be acted upon from the very beginning of school.

A number of widely known, prominent educators have been secured by Superintendent of City Schools George W. Phillips, and will address the teachers upon various subjects of interest and importance. The first session of the institute will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, and the final session Friday noon, beginning Tuesday morning, there will be sessions at 9 o'clock.

One of the principal speakers of the institute will be Dr. George G. Groff, of Bucknell university. He will deliver a lecture Tuesday night, on Porto Rico, where he has spent two years as superintendent of public instruction. Professor William S. Monroe of the Westfield, Mass. Normal school, is another well known educator whose presence is promised, and Principal E. L. Kemp, of the Stroudsburg Normal school has also assured Superintendent Phillips that he would be in attendance.

Miss Louise Connolly of New York, who spoke at the county institute two years ago, and made herself a great favorite with the teachers, will deliver a number of addresses during the course of the week, and other ladies prominently identified with educational work who will be present are Miss Elizabeth A. Conditine of Weehauken, N. J., and Mrs. L. P. Wilson, general secretary of the State Kindergarten association, whose present quarters are at Johnstown.

Mrs. Wilson will, of course, speak on the kindergarten question, and some interesting talks are expected from Miss Conditine, on the matter of phonetic spelling.

The Misses Merrill's Private School, for primary and intermediate pupils, will re-open Monday, September 8, 1902, 612 Jefferson avenue.

ARRESTS ARE TO BE MADE

TEMPLE COMPANY AFTER DUREYA AUTHORITIES.

It is Alleged That Two Employees of the Company Were Held Up on the Highway and Placed Under Arrest Without Cause—Letter That Has Been Sent to President John Mitchell by the North American Coal Company—Number of Arrests Were Made Yesterday.

The officials of the Temple Iron company are threatening to take legal action against the police authorities of Dureya, on account of the arrest of two of their employees at the Babylon colliery, and it is very likely that on the return this morning of General Manager S. B. Thorne from New York, proceedings will be instituted.

Counsel has been consulted and the company officials are fully determined to push the matter. The company has had about eighteen men at work pumping out the colliery, during the past two weeks, Saturday afternoon one of the special police, Max Plant, and a cook, Julius Morgan, who had been away from the colliery since the morning, started to walk back to work from the Dureya station. They claim they had only walked a short distance when a crowd gathered around them.

One man, who appeared to possess of some legal authority, elbowed his way through the mass of men and, announcing himself as a constable, remarked: "You fellows got any guns on you?"

THEY WERE ARRESTED. Both men were armed, but not wishing to cause any trouble by display of their firearms, denied that they had any on them. They were promptly seized and searched, and when the weapons were found, were hurried to the Dureya jail. They say that they were granted no hearing, and were only released on paying a fine.

Today will be characterized by a resumption of work at the Avondale colliery of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, near Plymouth. Officials of the Lackawanna coal department stated yesterday that unless something unforeseen should occur, work would be resumed today with a force of about fifty men. A small amount of work was done there yesterday, and work will be resumed in earnest this morning.

All was quiet yesterday at the mine workers' headquarters. President T. D. Nichols was absent, and Secretary and Treasurer John T. Dempsey, who was indisposed the latter part of last week, was back at work again. President Nichols was in Newark yesterday and addressed a public meeting there last night.

TO START WASHERY. The following is a copy of a letter delivered yesterday to John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America: Mr. John Mitchell, President United Mine Workers of America, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Sir:—I would request that you, as president of the miners' union, instruct its members, by proclamation or otherwise, not only to refrain from any overt act against our employees while at work, or going to, or returning from work, but that they remain away from the immediate neighborhood of the washery, in order that every man employed by this company may freely exercise his right to earn a living for himself and those dependent upon him, without fear of molestation.

This letter will be delivered to you by one of our employees, and a copy of it is being mailed to the press of Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, with the request that it be published. Yours truly, North American Coal Company. (Signed) N. W. Anthony, President.

HENDRICKS HELD IN BAIL.

He Is Charged with Sending an Anonymous Letter Through the Mails to Hon. P. E. Timlin.

T. A. Hendricks, of Jermy, was yesterday held in $500 bail by Alderman M. J. Ruddy on a charge of mailing a libelous letter to Hon. P. E. Timlin, former member of the legislature from the Fourth district of this county.

Mr. Timlin lived in Jermy until a few weeks ago when he moved to Carbondale. He is a young man and a member of the Lackawanna bar. Mr. Hendricks has been a resident of Jermy for ten years. He is engaged in business there and is counted one of the town's best known citizens. He is now engaged in a desperate battle with Mr. Timlin for the Democratic nomination for the legislature. The primaries will take place this afternoon and the battle leading up to them has been very exciting. It has been the cause of bad blood between the two men all through the inception of the trouble between them.

On Aug. 17, Mr. Timlin alleges that he received an anonymous letter through the mails which denounced him in bitter language, referred to him as corrupt in politics and said many other unpleasant things about him.

He spent several days in investigating the source from which the letter came and after comparing it closely with letters he had received, Mr. Hendricks came to the conclusion that the latter was the man who wrote the letter and accordingly on Saturday swore out a warrant before Alderman Ruddy for his arrest.

The hearing was fixed for 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon but it was postponed when the defendant put in his appearance. He was represented by Attorney John J. Murphy and the defendant by Attorney H. D. Carey.

Mr. Murphy said to fully establish their case it would be necessary to have an expert in handwriting to pass upon the letter, and he asked that the case go over until today to give them an opportunity to secure an expert. Mr. Carey objected with vigor. They had been summoned for a hearing and were ready to proceed. It would be unjust to compel them to come around today.

The primary election is today. Mr. Hendricks and keeping him away from the fight for representative that it was proposed to continue until today.

In no sense was that their intention, Mr. Murphy said, and as an expert in handwriting was not available to give their side of the case in the absence of the expert reserving the right to call the expert later.

Mr. Timlin was called and testified to the receipt of the letter and having compared it with letters he had received, he was convinced that the latter was the author of the letter. Mrs. Timlin, mother of the prosecutor also testified that she was familiar with Mr. Hendricks' handwriting and was convinced that he was the person who wrote the anonymous letter.

Thomas Walkey, formerly postmaster of Jermy was sworn but could not throw much light on the authorship of the letter. Mr. Hendricks the defendant was then put on the stand and denied having had anything to do with the writing or mailing of the letter in question.

Mr. Murphy asked that the defendant be bound over for his appearance at court and Mr. Carey objected to this saying a case had not been made out and that at all events there was no libel for the essence of libel is publication and there was no publication in this case until Mr. Timlin had himself made known the contents of the letter.

The alderman decided that there was sufficient evidence in the case to bind for court and accordingly held Mr. Hendricks in $500 bail. His attorney became his bondsman.
