A SUCCESSFUL TRIP.

Prof. W. D. Evans with Scranton Quartette Up York State—Flatter-ing for home when the umpire called ing Receptions.

W. D. Evans, of this city, director of music at the First Methodist church, returned Wednesday forenoon from but sadder still was the finish. When New York state, where he engaged in the smoke had cleared away, Pender's two concerts with the soloists who are conspicuous in musical circles in this part of the state.

quartette comprised Mrs. J. E. Heckel, soprano; Miss Via Jones, contralto; W. D. Evans, tenor; John W. Jones, basso. Mr. Jones also acted as accompanist. The quartette comprehends rare musical talent, and it is not surprising that the members met with such a flattering reception. Mrs. Heckel has been soloist at the Second Presbyterian, Elm Park and Penn Avenue Baptist churches, in Scranton, and is regarded as one of the leading soloists in that city. Miss Jones enjoys the distinction of having won the chief prize for the alto solo at the national eisteddfod in Scranton, a few months ago. Mr. Jones is soloist at St. Luke's church and a member of the locally famous Schubert quartette. He comes from a musical family, and is a brother of Llewellyn Jones, organist and choir-master at Trinity church, this city. Mr. Evans' talent is too well appreciated by his townspeople, who pride in his merit, to call for any comment.

The quartette gave two concerts, one at Stamford, on Monday night; the other at Hobart, on Tuesday night. Both were flatteringly successful, both towns were keenly appreciative of the rare. In leaving either place the soloists were assured of a similar greeting on their return.

this quartette, but it is likely that they will not be the last.

ARMSTRONG-SMILEY WEDDING.

Nathan Armstrong, of This City, and Miss Bessie Smiley Married at Schenectady, N. Y.

A very pretty marriage was solemin-Carbondalian and a charming young lady of Schenectady, N. Y. The bride, who is well known in this city, is Miss Bessie Smiley. The groom, Nathan friends here.

Miss Smiley is the daughter of Mrs. Annie Smiley, of Schenectady, and having visited friends and relatives in this city, has won many warm friends

Mrs. Walter Armstrong, of upper Birkett street. He lived here for a number of years, working at the Delaware and Hudson shops on North Main street, where he made many warm friends, working there until two years ago, when he was offered a better position as mechanic in the Edison Electrical works, where he has worked ever

They were married at the home of the bride, and Rev. Mr. Talbot, the Baptist minister of that place, tied the nuptial knot. Frank Gates, a well-known young man of this city, was groomsman, and Miss Lena Heckman, of Schenectady, was bridesmaid. The marriage was followed by a reception. which about forty couple attended. furnished home at Schenectady.

FRANK H. COLLINS.

Yesterday's North American contained a magnificent half-tone cut of the University of Pennsylvania foot ball squad that are in training at Eaglesmere for the coming foot ball season. The central figure in the group is an excellent likeness of Frank H. Collins, one of Carbondale's bestknown young athletes. Mr. Collins weighs 2.0 pounds and will be played on the rush line, if he enters the university, as he contemplates.

Interesting Game.

A very interesting game of ball was played on the No. 4 grounds between the Snake Chasers, of Belmont strret and Stump Jumpers of Canaan street, the former is managed by Watson and the latter by Pender. Watson and Sampson was the battery for the Chasers, and Arthur and McDermott, did the work for the latter, the game

JUDGE GLANGY

Of Hornellsville, N.Y., Hands Down an Important Decision

Judge James H. Clancy of Hornellsvitte, N. Y., and one of the most promnent members of the bar in that historic bown, decided recently that as against Blodd and Liver trouble, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was worthy of he highest praise. He says:

"I have used Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and strongly recommend it for its good effect in my case for liver trouble and blood disorder. It built me right up and I improved greatly in health."

Geo. H. Tifft of 878 River street, Troy, N. Y., suffered from liver trouble and his blood was all out of order and after using "Favorite Remedy," has this to say:

For any one suffering from that run down or tired out feeling, caused by blood or liver trouble, Dr. David Mennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best medicine you can buy. I have used it and I know."

used it and I know."

The one sure cure for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, is Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

It matters not how sick you are, how long you have suffered, or how many physicians have failed to help you, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy will cure you if a cure is possible.

It is for sale by all druggists in the Maw 50 Gent Sime and the regular $1.00 size bottles—less than a cent a dose, Sample bottle—sneups for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, flondout, N. Y. Br. David Kennedy's Gelies Placem atrength—was full of fun from start to finish. The feature of it was the three-base hit by Arthur, a man being on first and one on second, Sam being a good run-it a foul ball. Allen was retired for calling the umpire down, a great one-hand catch by Philipot was another feature of the game worth mentioning Chasers were away behind, the final score was 28-8. The Jumpers are confident that they have the better team and would like to meet the Chasers again. They can't defeat them they say and have money to back it. Umpire Farrington, time 2.50.

An Enjoyable Evening.

Misses Edith and Eula Carey, of Reynshanhurst, entertained a number of their friends last evening in honor of their guest, Miss Hattle Woodward, of Dalton, who is spending her vacation at their home. Music, games and cards were indulged in. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour. Several vocal solos were rendered by the Misses Carey and John Williams. Among those present were the Misses Maud Collins, Mae Rutan, Cora Francy, Hattie Woodward, Eula and Edith Carey, Messrs, John Williams, Claude Oliver, R. Willis, Wilson D. Giles, Morgan Boyd and S. The gentleman was Thomas Peasley, who will be remembered as the director producing the musical cantata, "Queen Esther," and "Pina-These were the first concerts given by fore." Peasley is still engaged, producing these and similar operettas.

A Mysterious Fire.

A mysterious fire occurred yesterday morning between three and four o'clock when the home of Frank Halford of upper Wayne street, was destroyed. No alarm was sent to the central city as the house was beyond the water ized Wednesday afternoon of a former limits and nothing could have been after 2.15 p. m. done toward saving the structure which was totally destroyed.

The house was but recently built and was one of the most ostentatious in Armstrong, who having lived here all that section. It is not known how the his life until a few years ago, has mapy fire originated. Mr. Halford and famlly esaped but saved very little of their belongings.

Sustained a Painful Injury.

Harry Robinson, who is employed by J. A. Hoole, in the erection of the Mr. Armstrong is the son of Mr. and Methodist church, sustained a painful injury to his right leg. He was engaged in erecting a scaffolding, standing on a ladder about twenty-five feet from the floor. He fell the whole distance, landing on a piece of scantling. He sprained his instep and briused his right leg, but, while painful, it is not serious. He will be around in a few
