was a guest over Sunday of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stark. Charles Bessell has almost entirely recovered from his recent sickness. One of the most interesting ball games of the season, on the grounds in this place, occurred Wednesday between the Tritons, of Tunkhannock, and the home team. The game was very close and the teams evenly matched, the score being 3-2 in favor of the visitors. This makes two defeats out of three games between Montrose and Tunkhannock, that the Montrose team has sustained. Very little difficulty was experienced in regard to the decisions of the umpire and all went smoothly with few exceptions. The attendance was quite large-about 700 people witnessing the contest. Charles Read, of Washington, D. C., was a guest of his uncle, H. P. Read, for a few days recently. Miss Mollie Miller is on a trip to toryville and Scranton, visiting re-

The annual reunion of the descend-ants of the pioneer. Samuel Wilbur, occurred in McKune's grove, about two miles north of Nicholson, on Wednes-day last. About 150 members of the family were in attendance, and the day being perfect, a very enjoyable time was had. Besides those living in the immediate vicinity, there were a number present from Scranton, Bingham-ton, Montrose, and other places. The Wilbur family is of Connecticut stock, Samuel Wilbur having emigrated thence about the beginning of the nineteenth century, and settled where Nicholson now stands. He was one of the ard. sons of Oliver Wilbur, a captain in the Continental army, and saw some scrvice himself as a soldier in the War of 1812. The descendants of the family are numerous and scattered all over the
