A LOYAL DEFENSE OF COAL WORKERS

A. R. Jones, Formerly of This City, Writes a Ringing Letter to the Trenton True American, in Which He Pays High Tribute to His Former Townspeople, Particularly Referring to City Treasurer P. F. Connor-The Letter Will Be Read with Interest by Carbondalians.

A letter that will be read with keen nterest by Carbondalians appears in a recent issue of the Trenton (N. J.) True American. It is from A. R. Jones, formerly of this city, now advertising manager on the True American.

The letter is characteristic of Mr. Jones. It is a defense in vigorous, ringing words of the inhabitants of the anthracite region against the cry of Ignorance and lawlessness that is so often raised abroad. It is a loyal defense of the sturdy people among whom Mr. Jones was born and raised, and Carbondalians, who will read the letter with keen interest, will respond with deserved words of appreciation and credit. Mr. Jones, though somewhat removed from the coal regions, still feels the ties that binds him to those he left behind, and, above all, he has shown himself to be a true Carbondalian. In the tributes, that in his warm-hearted devotion he pays to the citizens of the home of his birth, he makes particular mention of City Treasurer P. F. Connor. Mr. Jones' communication reads:

"That the anthracite coal strike is one of vital interest to the entire world is evinced by the many conjectures as to when and how the great problem will be solved. During the few months I have lived in Trenton, I have heard many expressions as to the conditions of the striking miners.

"In the majority of cases to those unacquainted the miners are classed as an ignorant set of mortals to be feared because of an alleged inclination to acts of lawlessness. Having spent my entire life in the coal region I have therefore some knowledge of the customs and manner of the miner's life.

"The average miners are intelligent and in most cases of Welsh or Irish nationality, own their own homes and have families that are well educated. During the past few years some of the most important officers in the municipalities of Scranton and Carbondale have and are at present filled by men who are the sons of the miner, and I cannot cite a single exception where the incumbent has not shown his ability to perform his duties in a most sat-

His executive ability is unquestioned and the confidence of citizens in him is ottested from the fact that he has succeeded himself to the office.

Both select and common council are made up of men who are property owners, and many of them are miners who, up to the commencement of the present strike, earned their livelihood by toiling hundreds of feet underground. They are men of brains, highly respected in the community, and manipulate

LABOR DAY TODAY.

No Parade, but Numerous Diversions to Attract Pleasure Seekers.

Today-sacred to the cause of laborwill be observed by a suspension of work at what industries that have not been affected by the strike.

There will be no parade in this city, as customary, heretofore, but there will be numerous diversions to satisfy the pleasure-seeker. Two games of ball will be played on Duffy's field; one in the morning, commencing at 10 o'clock, between the Crescents and the Alumni team, of West Scranton; the other in the afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, between the same teams. The excursion to Lake Lodore will attract many. A big feature will be the game between the Archbald and Honesdale teams. The Erie will run an excursion to Binghamton in the morning.

The theatrical season will open today. The newly decorated Grand will be reopened with Howard Kyle in "Nathan Hale." There will be a matinee and a night performance. This was one of the best plays seen here last year, and will undoubtedly attract large audi-

MR. FOX WASN'T FOXEY GRANDPA

Therefore, Our "Pets" Slammed and Banged Him All Over Duffy's Field for Nineteen Hits and Thereby Won from the Best Team in Scranton, the Semi-Professionals - A Great Game - Kelleher Pitches Well-The Story of the Day.

And they are still "Our Pets!" When our "Pets"-with our Owney in right garden-can win from the best team that Scranton-ten miles below the Archbald pot-hole—can boast of, it seems that that consarned hoodoo has been lifted and that we are some shucks again, though a few bumps were our sad lot the past three weeks.

But we can cheer up, you can bet your life. Any team that can bump Pitcher Jakey Fox, of Scranton, for Carbondale is a self-made young man nineteen hits, is some pumpkins, according to Lafe Smith. And that's what the "Pets"-still "Our Pets"-did; and no lobstering about it either.

bout and worth doing so much talking about and the Archbald Citizen and the papers of Rustytown, over the Moosics, will please not take offense if we say a word or two about this game: this great game; a game, if played near the White Oak or in the canal basin would be observed by a general holiday the next day.

This was the best game, most of the cranks thought, that has been played here this season; and they were nearly city affairs in a way that makes Car- right at that. Not since the day the bondale, a city of over 18,000 population, Crescents put the "Insurgents" out de business was there such a batting picnic. Nineteen hits! And all Pitcher Jakey Fox, "who goes to Philadelphia in the morning" to play with district are men who in boyhood toiled the National league club. He kept the Scranton sluggers-that's what they are -down to eleven hits. A few of them were long-winded, but they didn't come when men were on bases. He had four strike-outs.

It was a great game for sharp fieldfair were: Misses Nora Flannery, of ing. The Crescents alone made three Nanticoke; May Farrell, of Mayfield; quick double plays. Some of the errors, however, McTiernan and Murray's particularly, were made on cannon ball drives, and were almost excusable. On the other hand, we should have had at least four more runs, had the right spirit been put into the base running and the coaching. The Crescents were admittedly woefully weak in this direction, and such glaring deficiencies were manifested as to call for some sharp criticism to prevent a repetition, particularly in to day's games. Candor compels the statement that the team has been woefully, almost shamefully, weak along these lines all season, and just so soon as the reform is carried out in these directions will we be assured of clinching more games. Many a run has been lost

It was expected that the Sunsets would be the opposing team, and it was somewhat of a surprise to see Madenspacher, Ferris, Jones, McDonanyone from drugging themselves to ald, Franz, et al., of Scranton semiprofessional team, trot out onto the field. But the "Pets" are made of sterner stuff than to be dismayed by even harm to Americans, because of its big Jakey Fox and his great pitching record. They went after Jakey's twisters and kept after them until they had the goods, and made the "knockers" well. At least one-half are not. Only feel worse than if they were sea sick. ELECT ONE JANITOR: THEN A DEADLOCK

School Board Repeats an Old Custom. Two Teachers' Salaries Are Slight-

The day will be colder than yestertain its traditions in the deadlock.

This time 'tis a janitor that ties the directors; but it is hardly likely to disturb the board's routine or ruffle the At Saturday night's meeting of the board, Mr. Vanaan proposed the name of Patrick Finnegan as janitor of No. 3 school. Secretary Gallagher followed with the name of Bryan O'Byrne, There is a vacancy in this position, caused by the resignation of Henry Kennedy.

When the vote took place the board was divided. Gallagher, Copeland and Hughes voted for O'Byrne; Vanaan, Evans and Kerwin for Finnegan, There seemed to be hope of a compromise, so Mr. Evans adroitly moved that the matter be left with President Kerwin for him to fill the vacancy as he saw fit until the deadlock be broken. Mr. Gallagher was on his feet in a moment with a strong protest. He insisted that this was against the rules the matter belonging to the janitors committee. The motion prevailed, and President Kerwin will have the appointing of the substitute janitor. As Mr. Kerwin is a supporter of Finnegan. likely that Finnegan will be the janitor while the deadlock is on, which from appearances will be prolonged.

Two names were proposed for the ianitorship of No. 9 school, in the annex: David Lewis, the old janitor, by Mr. Gallagher, and John Jennings, by Mr. Evans. Mr. Lewis, the former ianitor, was elected. Two recommendations for increase of salary were adopted without debate, as follows: Miss Emma Barrett, Brook lyn school, $3 per month, making her salary $38 per month; Miss Louise Davis, No. 9 school, $2.50, raising her salary to $42.50 per month.
