Remains of David Williams Laid at Rest in the Cambria Cemetery—Case Heard in Police Court—Other News Notes.

Yesterday afternoon from the late home on Eymon street was held the funeral of the late David Williams, who dropped dead in a field between Hampton and Rock streets, while on his way to work. Rev. Frank J. Milman, of Pottsville, had charge of the services, and spoke words of comfort and consolation to the afflicted family.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, and testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pallbearers were selected from the life-long friends of the deceased, and were: Levi Williams, George Piper, Samuel Crader, Thomas Evans and Walter Frudge. The flower bearers were Chester Williams and Thomas Beavers. Interment was made in the Cambria cemetery.

Seventy-fourth Anniversary.

The seventy-fourth birthday anniversary of James Jopling, of Inkerman, was held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Reed, of 1114 Jackson street, on Friday evening. During the evening, Mr. Jopling told numerous stories of his boyhood days, which was history to all present. He was born in Northumberland county, England, and was married in 1849, coming to this country on a wedding trip. He liked this country so well that he never went back.

Funerals at St. Patrick's Church.

At 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon was held the funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Kelly, of 1423 Luzerne street. After a brief service at the house the funeral cortege moved to St. Patrick's church, where Rev. Father Dunn had charge of the services. Interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

NOT QUITE A WILD MAN.

Michael Chienty was only partially deranged. Michael Chienty, a deranged Italian, living at Old Forge, was arraigned before Magistrate Howe in police court yesterday morning, on the charge of being the "wild man of the Moscow mountains," and terrorizing the residents of Moscow and vicinity. He was discharged.

Superintendent of Police Day yesterday declared that the reports which had been circulated of the capture of Chienty were grossly exaggerated. These stated that a nude man had been found wandering in the mountains, presenting a most grotesque appearance, and had only been taken into custody after a ferocious battle with two Lackawanna detectives.

"I've my own doubts about all that," said the superintendent. "The man may have lacked some of his clothes, but there isn't any real 'wild man of the mountains' air about him."

Chienty has been an incumbrance upon the Moscow poor board authorities for some time past.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething, is the prescription of the best of the best. It is used in all the nurseries in the United States, and has been used sixty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhoea, soothes the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price, twenty-five cents a bottle.

DUNMORE.

Tonight the borough fathers will meet and make another effort to award the sewer contract. It is most earnestly hoped that some practical means will be found to prove to the satisfaction of all the councilmen which of the bidders is the lowest and best done, let them proceed to give an opportunity to the many idle men in town to get to work at once.

Today will be observed as a general holiday in the borough. All the stores and offices are closed, giving the employees an opportunity for a day's enjoyment. The various locals of the Mine Workers will meet at Temperance hall and march to Scranton, where they will take part in the big parade.
