

WEST SCRANTON

Police Are Again After the Keepers of "Speakeasies"—Two Arrests Made. Funeral of F. H. McNerney.

Salvatore Darlenzo, of 205 North Ninth street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Lieutenant Davis and Patrolman Peters, on the charge of running a speakeasy. The warrant was sworn out at the instance of Superintendent of Police Day. Darlenzo was given a hearing at 6 o'clock last evening, and as a result of the evidence produced, he was fined $50 and costs. At this writing he had not yet paid.

Mrs. Bridget Timmy, of 113 North Grant avenue, was also arrested yesterday afternoon on the same charge. Patrolmen Jones and McColligan placed her under arrest and she was given a hearing before Magistrate Davis, in police court last evening. She was fined $50 and costs, which she paid.

Serious Accident.

Miss Ida Lambriek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lambriek, of 2654 Frink street, was the victim of a very painful and possibly serious accident on Tuesday.

The young woman was carrying a pail of scalding water into the house, when she stumbled and spilled the boiling fluid over her. Her screams of agony brought some of the family to her, and the aid of a physician was immediately secured. The burns are exceedingly painful.

Cats Are Afflicted.

Quite a large number of West Side cats are said to be afflicted with diphtheria. A cat belonging to J. R. Kime, of 116 North Hyde Park avenue, was taken violently sick, and they were compelled to bury it on Sunday evening. Two pet Angora cats died next door to the Kime home recently, and it is believed that death was caused by the same disease.

Kime-Williams.

Theodore W. Kime, of 2424 Frink street, and Miss Jeanie Williams, of North Main avenue, were united in marriage on Tuesday evening at the parsonage of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, by Rev. Hugh C. McDermott.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Upon their return from a brief wedding trip, they will reside in West Scranton.

Last Tribute to the Dead. The funeral services of the late F. H. McNerney, of 17 Stark place, who passed away on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, just five hours after the burial of his eldest son, were held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church. Rev. J. J. Dunn officiated at a solemn high mass of requiem. The church was filled with the sorrowing friends of the deceased, to whom the sad circumstances surrounding his death especially appealed. At the conclusion of the services the funeral cortege moved to the Cathedral cemetery, where the body of the father was laid to rest beside that of his son. The pallbearers were Jeremiah Holigan, James Mahy, Michael Mack, Martin Delaney, Frank Madden and M. Moran.

Funeral of Richard W. Roberts.

From the home of his daughter, Mrs. Thomas X. Davis, of Oxford street, was held the funeral of the late Richard W. Roberts, who was found dead on Monday morning. At 2 o'clock short services of prayer were conducted at the home by Rev. D. P. Jones, and at 2:30 o'clock further services were held at the Tabernacle Congregational church, of which the deceased was a prominent member.

Rev. D. P. Jones delivered an eloquent eulogy and paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the deceased. Appropriate music was sweetly rendered by a quartette. The floral offerings were many and beautiful, and in their silent language told of the high respect and esteem in which the dead man was held. At the close of the services the cortege moved to the Forest Hill cemetery, where interment was made.

The pallbearers were: Owen D. John, Richard Thomas, William Reese, John Aswell, Reese Aswell and William Rogers. The flower bearers were William Jones and John Evans.

SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES.

Bowling on Arlington Alleys Between Picked Teams—Mr. and Mrs. Osburn Entertain.

Lovers of ten pins are preparing for a busy season. Among those most interested just now are the members of the city league, who are hard at work preparing for the fall campaign. A large contingent of the Lederkrantz players visited the Arlington alleys on Pittston avenue, last evening, and enjoyed the sport for several hours.

Some excellent scores were made, and the league team made a good average in the series of games played. A special session followed the matches. Another practice game will take place between the Maennerchor and Arlington teams on the latter's alley, this evening.

Did Not Inform Police.

The interruption of a base ball game last Sunday by the police has caused some discussion among lovers of the sport on this side. In casting about for a reason why the police appeared on the scene, it appears to have been believed that Miller, the Cedar avenue underdog, had phoned to Superintendent Day to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath.

As a matter of fact, however, Mr. Miller was unaware until yesterday that the game was stopped or that he was accused. He at once got into communication with the chief, who promised to let him know, last evening, where the information came from. At 8 o'clock last evening Mr. Miller was informed that the game was stopped because of a complaint received at headquarters from a resident of the flats near the game ground, who stated that the noise of the players annoyed him.

A Pleasant Affair.

A well attended party and social took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Osburn, of 816 Locust street, a few nights ago, and a fine musical programme was one of the features. Dancing and other amusements were also indulged in, and a bountiful repast was served at midnight.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cordier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Osburn, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Hill, of Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Hagen, of Pittston; Mrs. Phaff, Mrs. J. Gilmore, Mrs. Phaff, Jr., Mrs. Osborn, Mrs. Nicholas Snyder, of Philadelphia; Annie and Katie Caffery, Maggie Gilman, Agnes Dougherty, Katie Jordan, Kate Osburn, Maggie Jordan, Bessie Warry, Della Osborn, Miss Morrison, and Charles Cordier, Patrick Wylie, Edward Mullen, Charles Fuller, Patrick Miles, Charles O'Boyle and Frank Kearney.
