

TRAVIS KILLS A GREY FOX

ONE OF THE RARE ANIMALS IN STRANGE POSITION.

Hon. G. A. Grow's Retirement Announced—Rev. Personous Joins Elijah No. 2—Fourteen Converts to Mormonism Will Soon Leave Susquehanna County—A Few Pleasantries and Other Things in Brief Paragraphs.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Sept. 7.—Farmer Jesse Travis of near Starbuck was on Saturday attracted by the constant barking of his dog near the woods. He made an investigation and discovered the object of his dog's attention to be a silver grey fox, whose bushy tail, in some unaccountable manner, had caught in the rough bark of a hickory sapling, and in the effort of Reynolds to escape had become securedly fastened to the sapling. The dog fearing to tackle the fox, stood a short distance away, barking at it, when Travis grasped a stone and killed the fox. The animal was full grown, and its fur was very fine.

AND EIGHTY YEARS OLD. Hon. Galusha A. Grow, the venerable congressman-at-large, who is summing up his farm at Glenwood, this county, informs his acquaintances that he positively retires from political life at the close of the present congress. Prominent friends are urging Mr. Grow to write a record of his personal experiences as a member of eleven congresses, from the thirty-first to the thirty-seventh and from the fifty-third to the fifty-seventh inclusive. The veteran statesman is in excellent health.

JOINED ELIJAH NUMBER TWO. Charles B. Personous, for several years a minister of the M. E. church and a member of the Wyoming conference, and whose last charge as a minister was Sanitarium Springs, has surrendered his ordination parchment and no longer sustains a ministerial or lay relation to the M. E. church, he having become a disciple of the so-called Second Elijah.

FOR RAPID READING. A number of its best players having left town for the season, the Star ball club has disbanded, with a record of twenty-two games won and five lost. Hon. Galusha A. Grow on Friday, September 1, celebrated his eightieth birthday. The out crop will be the largest in Susquehanna county, will be the largest since 1871.

The annual meeting of the Susquehanna Association of Universalists will be held at Brooklyn, this county, September 12, 13, 14. Fourteen converts to Mormonism made by missionaries will in a few days leave Susquehanna county for Salt Lake City. As a result, several homes will be broken up and Susquehanna county will be about on foot. The protracted meeting at the Hallstead school board has been broken by the temporary re-election of Principal B. M. Pease.

PLEASANTRIES. When a private died the editor is asked to write of the good qualities and leave the bad out. When an editor dies the private citizen says: "Now the blank lar will get his deserts." From young towns, all things look dark now and then, grin and bear it. Don't whine. Don't cry over spilled milk. It may be half water. "Keep your eye open as you go through life," may be a good motto, but there is nevertheless wisdom in being blind occasionally. Some people are made miserable by seeing too much. Catfish, mosquitoes and fools are biting. It is easier for a father to support ten sons than it is for ten sons to support a father. "Poverty is no disgrace," and the same may be said of the smallpox.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM. The fifth annual reunion of the Cox and Howell families will be held at the home of Moses W. Cox, at Kingsley, on Thursday, Sept. 11. William H. Dennis, Sr., of Montrose, has been re-elected commander of the Susquehanna County Veteran organization. Eric Hose Company No. 1, of Susquehanna, will go to Port Jervis on Thursday next, to participate in the annual parade of the fire department of that village, as guests of Fowler Hose.

CHRONIC DIARRHOEA. Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "My father had for years been troubled with chronic diarrhoea, and tried every means possible to effect a cure, but all to no avail," says John H. Zirkle, of Phillips, W. Va. "He saw Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy advertised in the Republican and decided to try it. The result is one bottle of it cured him and he has not suffered with this disease for over eighteen months. Before taking this remedy he was a constant sufferer. He is now sound and well, and although sixty years of age can do as much work as a young man. These are facts and you can use the above if you desire." Mr. Zirkle and his brother published the Phillips Republican. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

QUICK WORK.

The Experience of a Scranton Man with the Little Conqueror.

The experience of Mr. B. W. Evans, related in the following words, will deeply interest hundreds of readers. Mr. Evans is a Scranton citizen, residing at 223 Twelfth street. No letter proof of merit can be had than his statement. Mr. H. W. Evans, of 223 Twelfth street, Hyde Park, employed by the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Co., as mine machinist, says: "I was troubled considerably with a dull pain across my back from hip to hip, and at times a darting pain extended down my legs. It was always worse toward evening. When I got cold or during damp weather I was so lame and sore across my back that it was actual torture to stoop. I used plasters without relief. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me by a friend and I procured a box from Matthews Bros. drug store. I was careful to use them just as directed, and gradually the pain in my back began to leave me, and when I had completely disappeared." For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

is one of the most drawing cards among fair of Pennsylvania. It has always been a success, and it has never had a horse race. You can use a postage stamp twice. The first time it will cost two cents; the second time, 50 cents. Many a matrimonial match is lighted by the fire in a maiden's eye. The barber is one who must rake and scrape to make a living. "Did he advertise?" "No." "Did he succeed in business?" "No." "Did he fail?" "Yes." It is the old, old story!

When a young man applies for a position, he should always have a cigarette in his mouth—if he does not want a situation. You can have your sympathies enlisted in a good cause without danger of drawing a pension. No one realizes what "Home, Sweet Home," until he hears it sung for the fourth time in a boarding-house parlor.

IN A PARAGRAPH. The Hallstead Water company, composed of Scranton capitalists, will sink an artesian well to the depth of 1,000 feet, near the spot in Great Bend township where gas, oil and salt were recently encountered. Farmers are exacting fancy prices for vicinity land. Hiram Lawson, of Pleasant Valley, has received word that he has fallen heir to a fortune by the father of a 5-year-old girl whom he rescued from drowning, in July last, at Savin Rock, near New Haven. The Franklin Forks oil-gas well is among the good things that were. In the general shuffle, keep in mind that the Republican senatorial deadlock in the district of the coal strike may be settled in the same week. Bear's Quay, the silent fisherman, may be a potent factor in settling them both.

There were frosts in the vicinity of Susquehanna on Friday night. It will be a trial to the delay. Feed the Panama to the cows. It is understood that Susquehanna county prohibitionists will open no bar this fall. Susquehanna county Democrats are preparing to elect a county commissioner.

A singular coincidence, the elder and the straw crops are both large in Susquehanna county this season. PITSTON. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pitston, Sept. 7.—The stone masons employed on the Cannon Hall trolley line in Pitston city have been on strike the past week for an increase of wages. They have been receiving $2.70 for a day of nine hours and ask for $3.00 for the same length of time. The contractors have refused to grant their demands. Three of the men returned to work yesterday, but the remainder are still idle.

Mrs. Catherine Anthony is critically ill at her home on High street. George Martin, of Oregon, who was in the Mt. Lookout mine last week with Rudolph Swelzer, when the latter received fatal burns by an explosion of mine gas, and who was slightly burned, has so far recovered as to be able to return to work yesterday. The Luzerne team yesterday afternoon at Y. M. C. A. park, Wilkes-Barre, by a score of 4-3. The Luzerne county fair opens on Tuesday of this week and bids fair to be one of the most successful fairs held in recent years. The entry list for the races is a large one, and speedy races are looked for. Hugh Jennings was a visitor at the home of his brother, Dr. Jennings, here yesterday. Hughey is out of the game for a few days, owing to an injury. Rev. Dr. Harrington, rector of Trinity parish, West Pittston, received the following information yesterday that Mrs. Margaret Lacey White, of Rock Island, Ill., has offered to erect for the parish a beautiful rectory on the plot of ground at the corner of Montgomery and Spring streets, adjoining the lot on which the church is situated. The donation is made in memory of her father, the late Ralph D. Lacey. Mrs. White will also erect a memorial tablet to her father on the wall of the church opposite the seat formerly occupied by Mr. Lacey. A series of evangelistic meetings are being held under canvas on Luzerne avenue under the auspices of enthusiastic Christian workers from several of the churches on the West Side. E. A. Coray is chairman of the committee in charge. The Republican primaries for the nomination of county candidates were held yesterday afternoon under the Crawford county system. Only a light vote was polled in Pittston and West Pittston. Interest here centered on the race for the commissionship nomination, there being two candidates from Pittston, John M. Jones, the present commissioner, and Charles Smith, a clerk in the register's office. Jones led Smith in Pittston by about twenty votes, while on the West Side, Smith secured 231 votes to Jones' 114. Latest reports from the county headquarters this morning were to the effect that Jones, of Pittston, and Thomas Smith, of Wilkes-Barre, were the two nominees for the office of commissioner and that Mainwaring was in the lead over Kuntz for register. While visiting in Yatesville last week, Mrs. Mary A. Banker, mother of Frank H. Banker, the real estate agent, said an aged resident of this city accidentally tripped and fell. No bones were broken but she received a severe nervous shock and has lost the power of one of her limbs. She is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Mahon, on North Main street. The trial of Constable Michael Dowd, of the Second ward, charged with the killing of a foreigner, who attacked him when he was about to serve a warrant a few months ago, and who he shot dead, will be called in the Luzerne court tomorrow. Quite a little stir was caused here last evening about 9 o'clock by the arrest of a Dupont foreigner. The man was caught trying to burglarize the Florence Coal Company's store at Dupont and was placed in a wagon and brought to the lock-up here. The prisoner was boisterous and made strong efforts to escape. A constable and two assistants were kept busy preventing him from leaping from the wagon. An improvised patrol wagon entered this city attention was attracted by the bells of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rash, itching, and chaffing, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of women use CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chaffing, or too free or offensive perspiration. In the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women.

county ticket held a meeting at Hotel Graham on Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of electing a chairman, secretary and treasurer of the county committee. As a result of their deliberations, Frank S. Harding, of Eaton, was chosen chairman, and Alvira G. Gregory, of Meshoppen, to be secretary and treasurer for the ensuing year. The following graduates of the Tunkhannock High school in 1902 have registered as students, as follows: Miss Pearl Dietrich, at Drexel institute, Philadelphia; Miss Marion Leighton, at Bucknell university, Lewisburg; Miss Kate Townsend, at Packer's Business college, New York city, and Jacob Colsky, college at Allegheny.

TUNKHANNOCK.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Tunkhannock, Sept. 7.—Isadore Stern, who has been occupying the Louis Hillkovich house on Harrison street, will move his family back to New York city some time this month. Beginning September 14, there will be a mission held in the Catholic church in this place, which is for the purpose of raising funds, and will be under the supervision of one of the Passionists Fathers of Hoboken, N. J. A slight fire broke out on Saturday morning at the house of Thomas Sherwood, on East Toga street, caused by ignition from the kitchen stove. It was soon extinguished, with small damage to the building. "Squire Dennis J. Harley and ex-Sheriff A. G. Gregory, of Meshoppen, were in town on business Saturday. The trial for October term of the court of common pleas was made up by the Bar association on Saturday afternoon.

WYALUSING.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Wyalusing, Sept. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Leach and son Frederick, of Auburn, N. Y., are spending a few days with Mrs. Leach's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Gaylord. Bert Gaylord has moved his family to Hamanda, where he has secured a position. Miss May Westly, of Russell Hill, is spending the week with her cousin, Mrs. G. Mortimer Lewis. Mrs. Sarah Parks and son Francis, of Westfield, Mass., are visiting relatives in town. William Ellsworth and George Morris, of LeRoyville, spent a few days in town recently. Miss Mary Hoag visited relatives at Laceyville last week. Bruce Cook returned to New York city Saturday morning. Misses Bessie and Jennie Slocum and Francis Parks, of Westfield, Mass., spent last Friday at Lake Carey, the guests of Mrs. Polen. Mrs. Samuel Howard and Mrs. N. H. Allen gave a reception last Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 7 o'clock. L. B. Hines, of Scranton, spent last Sunday with his mother at this place. Edward Larkin is attending the High school in Athens. Fred Mitter has moved into Miss Hattie Marsh's home, and Rev. Arma Trout into the one vacated by Mr. Mitter.

There is quite a rivalry between the two ferry companies at this place, and the cost of transportation on the river is accordingly being reduced. The annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Wyoming county will be held at the Baptist church here on Monday and Tuesday, September 8 and 9. Miss Belle Kearney, the brilliant young orator of Meshoppen, will be the Daughter of a Slaveholder, will be present and address the convention on Monday evening. The public are cordially invited. The Democratic county convention convenes at the court house today at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a county ticket to be voted for at the November election. The new Citizens' National bank is expected to be ready for business in their rooms in the Billings building, on Water street, September 11. Patrick Boyce resumed his position as foreman on the Lehigh Valley railroad. His son, P. A. Boyce, is his assistant. The fair at Montrose will be held September 16 and 17, and the fair at Harford, Sept. 18 and 19. The Democratic primaries were held in the different wards on Saturday afternoon, between the hours of 5 and 7. The Republican candidates on the
