IT WILL OPEN THE CAMPAIGN

PRESIDENT FLEITZ ON THE ERIE CONVENTION.

State League of Republican Clubs

Annual Gathering Will Mark the Opening of the State Campaign. All the Candidates and Many Other Prominent Republicans to Be Present - Eight Clubs from Lackawanna County Have Elected Delegates to Meeting.

Deputy Attorney General Frederic W. Fleitz returned Saturday from his vacation in Canada, where he spent a month in hunting and fishing, and when seen at his office by a Tribune man showed every indication of having had a very pleasant and beneficial trip. In regard to the local political situation, Mr. Fleitz expressed himself as being entirely confident of a complete Republican victory this fall.

When asked about the coming annua convention of the Pennsylvania State League of Republican clubs, which is to be held at Erle on September 17 and 18, Mr. Fleitz sald:

have kept in close touch with the detail work which has been done by the officers of the league during my ab sence, and from their reports and the contents of the letters which I have found awalting me upon my return, I am satisfied that this convention will be one of the largest and most enthuslastic ever held by the State league. Large delegations will go in special trains from Philadelphia and Pittsburg. and many of the interior counties will also send large representations.

"I am especially gratified to learn that eight clubs from Lackawanna county have already paid their dues and will send delegates to Erie, and I am now arranging to secure a special car for the accommodation of delegates and their friends from this section. We will probably leave here for Erie either Tuesday morning or Tuesday evening by way of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, and the delegates and others who expect to go should at once notify the assistant sec retary of the league, P. Silas Walter, in the Connell building, in order that definite arrangements may be made for and at Erie.

HOTELS WILL BE CROWDED.

"All available space in the hotels of Erie will be severely taxed, and arrangements for quarters should be made at the earliest possible moment, and it is impossible to do this until we know definitely just how many are going. The railroad company has been of mirrors, etc. very liberal with us in the matter of a special rate, giving us a one-fare rate for a round trip, which will amount to about $8."

The local committee at Erie, under the direction of ex-President Sobel, is making elaborate plans for the entertainment of the visitors. The programme arranged follows:

Tuesday evening, September 16th, at o'clock, the Chamber of Commerce, the leading industrial association of Erie, will tender a reception to the visiting dele gates and their friends; therefore, it is desirable that all delegations, if possible, arrive in Eric by that time. Wednesday morning, September 17th, at 2 of the series where ride to "Waldameer by the Lake," where a smoker will be given. Wednesday af-ternoon at 2 o'clock, in the New Park louse, the on ening se THEATRICAL. 'The Head Waiters.' There are theatrical performances that defy analysis and criticism and the Ly-ceum had one last night in "The Head Waiters," a little of everything with Ward and Vokes as the center piece. addition to the charges of forgery and recklessly discharging firearms, he will now be called upon to answer for breaking jail.

They had their usual line of talk as percy and Harold, some of which was new, more of which has done service in season's now long gone. They had with them Lucy Daly, who sings and dances as well, if not better, than she ever did and Margaret Daly Vokes who does not. They had be the the talk to be the talk as had a Warfield Hebrew, a dope fiend, a female brass band, and in fine everything and anything that would add to the galety of the occasion. There was some-thing doing every minute the curtain was

That this form of entertainment is en joyed, last night's audience testified. It was large and evidently delighted. The applause was honest and convincing. Max Hugomarks, musical director o the company, is the author of nine of the musical numbers in "The Head Waiters" and arranged the musical part of the en-tire production. Among his musical suc-cesses is "Oh! Fudge," rendered by the Tuxedo band and encored three times.

Schiller Stock Company.

The Schiller Stock company opened to The Schiller Stock company opened to a large audience at the Academy of Music last evening. Their opening offer-ing was a powerful melodrama by Chas. H. Longden and Eric Hudson entitled "Man's Enemy." The play deals with temperance. Campbell Stratton as Harry Stanton and Mamie Sheridan Woiford as Sally Banks were easily the stars of the production though the entire comthe production though the entire com-pany deserves mention.

Among the specialties that of Gorman and Leonard in a burlesque on the new comic operas was a top liner. Uu-to-date specialties by Kelly and Roe and Belmar and Lair drew forth rounds of applause. This afternoon, "The Indian" will be played by request in place of "A Wif'es Honor," as advertised and tonight Howard Hall's great success, "Slaves of Rus-

Dixie's New Bill.

"The best yet," was the general verdict of patrons who enjoyed the new programme at Dixie's theater yesterday afternoon and evening. The fun was started by Rastus and Banks with a very clever acrobatic song and dance act They both sing well and the male member their accommodation, both on the train of the team does some wonderful acrobatic work during its rendition.

The Imperial Japanese troupe appeared next with their trick dogs who work very cleverly and give a most pleasing act, Kudaras juggling act followed and then the feature of the bill the Great Ameta gave an act the equal of which has never been seen in this city. There was pretty scenery shown and beautiful electric effects were produced by the aid

Murphy and Willard opened the second act of the programme in a sketch called "Doughnuts," it might as well be called "Doughnuts" as anything else, but it was certainly very entertaining, full of quick wit and real meritorious musical numbers. Other members of the Japanese troupe here appeared in an acrobatic scene very cleverly performed and the little Japanese girl finished the act was an astounding performance upon a flying trapeze. The vitagraph closed the most interesting programme with some new funny pictures and concluded with the full pantomime of Cinderella and the fairy. Owing to Mr. Hickey's inability to per-form last evening, the Hickey and Nelson number on the programme will be replaced today by a first class attraction from New York.

THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1902.

[Concluded from Page 3.] pany against John S. Jenkins was not properly on the list and was stricken off. The case of B. S. Robinson et al. against John M. Kemmerer et al. having been continued seven times on account of the absence of Thomas A. Blythe, of Philadelphia, court refused to continue it again for that reason and it will probably be called Thursdar.

When the common pleas list was called only two cases were continued and all the others were marked for trial. The cases continued are the Art League against J. B. Gilhool, appeal, and Bridget Gray against Mary Mc-Cormick and others, ejectment.

Grand Jury Charged.

E, P. Kingsbury was named as foreman of the grand jury by Judge John P. Kelly, after the jury was called yeserday morning. Frank Beavers and Peter Davidson, of this city, were ex-cused on account of illness, and Walter Frick, of Carbondale, and William Adair, of Olyphant, were excused because of inability to be present. F. C. Davis, of Taylor, and M. M. Hufford, of South Abington, were reported as not found.

Judge Kelly in his charge to the jury did not make any reference to the strike or the rioting and disorder growing out of it. He told the jurors to show no fear or favor in considering cases, and urged the necessity of keeping inviolate the secrets of the grand jury. Among the prominent members of the grand jury besides the foreman, E. P. Kingsbury, is C. C. Mattes, W. H. ogan, manager of the Dun agency in this city, and Frank Swartz, the Dunnore merchant. Immediately after being charged the ury retired and took up the considerition of cases. Those heard during the

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, reception and ball will be held at Walda meer in honor of the visiting delegates and their friends. Friday morning, September 19th, those who can remain will be given an opportunity to go by special train to Niagara Falls, at a round trip fare of $1.75; train to leave Eric Friday morning and return Friday evening.

CAMPAIGN OPENING.

"The public meeting which will be held in the Opera house at Erie on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17, will be the opening of the gubernatorial campaign, and consequently of much interest and importance," continued Mr. Fleitz. "Judge Pennypacker and Hon. William M. Brown, the Republican candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, and Senator Penrose, have positively assure me that they will be present and speak. I am also in hopes that Governor Stone and Attorney General Elkin will participate in the speech-making on this occasion. There is a strong probability that Senator Beveridge and Isaac Miller Hamilton, of Chicago, president of the National League of Republican clubs, will also be present at Erie and take part in the proceedings. I have the personal assurance of many of the most prominent politicians in the state, that they will be present at the convention, and participate in its work. Erie is famous as a convention city, and all who go may rely upon having a splendid time An opportunity will also be given the delegates and their friends to visit Niagara Falls and Buffalo on their way home. I hope the clubs in Scranton, that have not already done so, will elect their delegates and report at once to Mr. Walter."

Mr. Fleitz left yesterday afternoon for Harrisburg, and expects to return to this city on Friday.

MUCH WANTED M'VIDDIE.

Frank McViddie, of Wyoming ave-nue, Green Ridge, was indicted March 18, 1901, for passing a forged check on a Penn avenue business man. He failed appear for trial and forfeited $500 bail put up by his mother.

July 3, 1901, a patrolman brought to the Center street police station a young man charged with recklessly discharging a revolver. At the station house he was recognized as the fugitive Mc-Viddle, and the chief was sent for that the ball piece might be served on him. As he was sitting near the sergeant's desk, awaiting the coming of the chief, he saw a chance to escape by suddenly holting through the door and successfully took advantage of it.

Yesterday afternoon Superintendent of Police Day chauced to drop into a central city business place and there, caimly seated on a chair tilted back against the wall, was the much wanted comedy McViddie. He spent the night in the ley."

"The Morning Glories."

Scribner's "Morning Glories" bloome vesterday afternoon to a delightful audince at the Star. In addition to a meritorious programme in the way of the usual burlesque acts the Morning Glories gave a surprise yesterday in the way of an excellent and and well drilled chorus which rendered selections from the grand operas with a spirit and finish seldom equalled by the opera companies that visit inland cities. The singing of the "Anvil Chorus" from

"il Trovatore," with anvil accompani-ment, was an artistic performance and evoked hearty encores. The musical burlesque entitled "My Son's Wife" is an old theme that has been brightened up with new lokes and music and enabled Harry Hastings and company an opportunity to raise the usual laughs

Robert Mantell Tonight.

Robert B. Mantell and his manager, M W. Hanley, are firm believers in the romantic drama. They were the first to foresce the popularity of plays of this type, and Mr. Mantell's many successes in them have made him one of the forenost of actors. In "The Dagger and The cross," the new play, Mr. Mantell is believed to have excelled his previous tri-umphs, and the critics wherever the play has been presented have bestoyed the highest praises upon drama, actor, com-pany and scenic investiture. #### "A Colonial Girl."

"The home of romance," as Frohman's Lyceum theater has become known to New Yorkers, has turned out no more successful play than the charming comedy of revolutionary days, "A Colonial Girl," in which Miss Bertha Creighton will appear at the Lycoum theater on Thursday night.

Since the original production, the play has been rewritten by the authoress, Grace Livingston Furniss, especially for Mass Creighton's tour. Entirely new scenery and accessories have been prepared, the entire production being an ex-act duplicate of the Lyceum presenta-tion which was noted for its historical accuracy and pleturesqueness. Diagram opens this morning at 9 o'clock.
