GATHERING OF THE ABINGTON BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

Large Number of Delegates Attend the Meetings at Factoryville Yesterday Which Were Devoted Exclusively to the Sunday School in the Morning-Dr. Fitch Delivers the Address of Welcome-Reports Read and Approved.

special to the Scranton Tribune

Factoryville, Sept. 9 .- In the midst of downpour of rain the Abington aptist association began its annual sathering yesterday in the Baptist burch at Factoryville, of which Rev. . R. Smith is the pastor. The early orning trains from Scranton stopping t Factoryville brought a large numer of delegates and all through the lay new arrivals came who will attend or part of the sessions of the assoiational gathering and who will be royally entertained by the members of the Factoryville church. Yesterday was devoted exclusively to the Sunday hool convention. When the morning ssion opened there were a large numer of delegates present from the varus schools in the association. The ercises of the morning began with a devotional service conducted by Z. D. Edwards, of Blakely, the president of convention. Several prayers were ffered and spirited hymns were sung nder the leadership of Evangelist and rs. Wells. The address of welcome as given by Dr. A. B. Fitch, superitendent of the Factoryville Sunday hool, and it was responded to by resident Edwards, Business was the next in order and e first thing done was the adoption of the programme as arranged by the ommittee. A lengthy report on normal ass work was read by J. J. Van Nort, Scranton. Treasurer E. M. Peck, made his annual report and the following auditors were appointed: Rev. Thomas DeGruchy, D. D., Glles Clark and Luther Keller, of Scranton. The annual election of officers was held and the following were elected: President, Giles Clark, of Scranton; vice-president, Dr. A. B. Fitch, of Factoryville; secretary, T. M. Koehler, of Scranton. The new president, Mr. Clark took the gave an inspiring address on "The Boy chair and presided over the rest of the chair and presided over the rest of the in Our Sunday School for Jesus and whose answers are find convention, Maxwell D. Lathrop, of Christ." The speaker said in the Carbondale, delivered an interesting course of his remarks that the Sunaddress on "Why We Attend Sunday day school is for the boy. The boy is School." He answered this by stating a tremendous, significant creature, We that the primary purpose is to study the bible. He dwelt upon the importance of bible study the lack of it and the unique characteristics of the word of God which schould make it a book much studied.

PROFITABLE REPORT.

E. M. Peck read a profitable report of the tenth international Sunday convention recently held in on the "Sunday School Teacher's Work and Reward," was read by Mrs. G. R. Denver, Colorado. The report was prepared by A. Wilson Geary and his sister and was to have been presented by prepared paper by Dariun Comings. A him but serious illness prevented his presence. The report showed that the rumor was false as to the intention of the international committee on preparation of Sunday school lessons to omit temperance lessons in the course of study. The paper was listened to with intense interest and a very excellent review of this great convention. At the suggestion of Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., of Scranton, a vote of thanks was extended to Miss Geary for pre-paring the paper and Rev. W. B. Graw was called upon to invoke God's bless-thy soul prospereth." E. E. Jones of Harford, gave a report on the "Heart Lake Summer School." This school was organized two years ago and is one of the best attended This evening the Baptist Young Peoschools of this kind in the state. The ple's union rally will occur, the prin-report suggested many excellent cipal address being delivered by Rev. methods of Sunday school work, and Henry E. Potter, of the Green Ridge how Sunday school teachers should be Baptist church, Scranton, trained for their work which is the purpose of the school. Owing to the fact that two of the speakers of the morning, Messrs Lathrop and Jones came from other denominations than the Baptist a vote of thanks was un-animously extended to them. The Convention-Interesting Exercises morning session came to a close with morning session came to a close with singing. "Blest Be the Tie" and benediction by Rev. Cole, of Elmhurst.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The sun shone forth bright and warm when the afternoon session opened at 2 o'clock with a devotional service, led by Albert Ball, of Dalton. At the close of this President Clark took the chair and called the convention to order. The reading of letters was dispensed with this time, and an address vas given of an instructive nature on 'Does Sunday School Work Pay?" by E. S. Williams. He said this work involves more than dollars and cents. No work in the country has so much talent and love devoted to a work as is teaching in the Ives district.

has the Sunday school work. The work Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Barnes attended pays because character is being molded, the church is being recruited, and the joy there is in the work and the endurance of this work in eternity. "The Pupil" was the subject of a very interesting open conference, in charge of S. Fletcher Weyburn, of Scranton. In his introductory remarks the speaker stated that the Sunday school should not take the Sunday school and Melissa Watkins are charge of S. Fletcher Weyburn, of Scranton. In his introductory replace of the home, that it is a most mportant factor, and that Jesus Christ should be the central figure and power in the Sunday school work. This work unifies and strengthens the spiritual forces of the Christian and in the Sunday school the highest moral culture may be wrought. The topic was divided into three parts, each assigned to a speaker. The first speaker, Grant Lewis, spoke on "How to Catch the Pupil." He lamented the small attendance of young men at the Sunday school. He advised personal contact and invitation, with perseverance and sociability, and inducements be presented as to benefits to be derived in being a pupil in the school Giles Clark spoke on "How to Hold the Pupil." He emphasized the fact that one should interest, instruct and impress. "How to Save the Pupil" was considered by Miss S. C. Krigbaum. Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, D. D., should use tact, kindness, love and patience in dealing with boys. Teachers should be evangelists. They should teach to win souls to Christ. Follow-ing this Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., paper, prepared by Miss Ruth Miller Smith. "Missions in the Sunday School" was the topic of a well-brief business session was held, and the afternoon exercises came to a close. EVENING EXERCISES. In the evening there was a large audience present when Professor B. F. Thomas, of Keystone academy, opened the devotional exercises at 7.30 o'clock. The first address of the evening was delivered by George W. Phillips, on the "Relation of Teacher to Pupil." choir of the church sang an anthem and the convention came to a close with an address by John H. Harris, D. to the bedside of Mr. Geary, with this to the bedside of Mr. Geary, with this church, and principal of Keystone academy, located here. Today the nine-soldier and Andre's horse.
